Sign-up tables will be located in the lobbies of three area banks on that date. The Madison Lions will be at the First National Bank in Madison, the Granite City Lions will be at the First Granite City National Bank and the Pontoon Beach Lions will be at the Colonial Bank of Granite City. Additional information about the donor program will be available at all three locations.

Father, son of GC, Madison drown in fishing accident

Two Quad-City men, Carl Joseph Ropac Sr., of Madison, and his son, Jerome J. Ropac Sr., of Granite City, drowned Monday in a fishing accident on Aztec Lake near Cherokee Village, Ark.

The two men were last seen at 10 a.m. Monday fishing from a boat on the lake and it is believed the boat sank and the two were unable to reach land as they were found in the water at 4 p.m. Monday, and pronounced dead at the scene by the coroner, Mr. Estes.

According to a report received here, the authorities in Arkansas are still searching for the boat to determine the cause of the accident.

Mr. Carl Ropac, 70, resided at 1323 Grand Ave., Madison, and is a lifelong resident of the area.

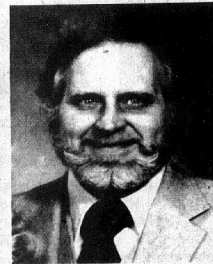

He was a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church in Madison, and also belonged to the United Steelworkers of America, Local 87, and the Croatian Catholic Union, Lodge 80.

Mr. Ropac started working at Granite City Steel, Dec. 5, 1949, and retired Jan. 31, 1975, as a general inspector in the Cold Strip department.

He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Anna C. (Lesko) Ropac; one son, Raymond Ropac, Granite City; two daughters, CARL ROPAC SR.

JEROME ROPAC SR.

Mrs. Raymond (Loretta) Stephens, Lillian, Ark., and Miss Geraldine Ropac, Madison; a sister, Mrs. Richard (Ann) Langley of Naples, Fla.; three brothers, John Ropac, Granite City, Mike Ropac, Chicago, and Victor Ropac, Riverside, Calif.; and 11 grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by two other sons, Robert J. Ropac and Carl J.

Police chief cites ways to avoid home invasions here

"First, keep all outside doors locked at all times, and do not open the door until you are sure who is there and then only if you know the person," Granite City Police Chief Ronald J. Veizer said this week.

One of the hardest crimes for police to combat are cases involving home invasion, a serious offense in which robbers and other unwanted intruders forcibly push their way into private residences.

"Once you let them into your house, or give them the slightest chance to enter, we (police) are virtually helpless. We don't know about it until after they are gone," Chief Veizer said Tuesday.

Although there were no instances of home invasions for about a year in Granite City, one occurred Saturday night in Briarcliff subdivision and another on Monday in the downtown area.

On one occasion the homeowner answered a knock at the door and the intruders then forced their way inside.

Another home invasion in city

The second Granite City homeowner to be terrorized by a home invasion team of robbers within a period of two days reported details of the incident to police Monday night.

Shortly after 9 p.m. Monday, two men entered the home of Michael Hopke, 29, of the 2200 block of Edison Avenue, tied him up, beat him and stole his wallet, a credit card, about $15 cash and a portable television, among other items.

Hopke sustained injuries from the beating and was admitted to St. Elizabeth Medical Center. He was reported in fair condition Tuesday.

The first home invasion case to be reported for some time occurred at 10:40 p.m. Saturday, at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Norman Russell on Briarwood Lane.

Cash and items valued at more than $5,000 were taken at gunpoint by the two robbers.

Both Russell and his wife were bound hand and foot and their mouths were taped by the intruders, but neither they nor their infant suffered physical injuries.

Today, Granite City Police Chief Ronald Veizer offered some suggestions to help local residents combat instances of home invasion. These precautionary hints may be found in a related article.

Officers met with Hopke in the hospital emergency room and he gave the following account of the incident:

About 9 o'clock Monday night, Hopke heard a knock on his door and as soon as he opened it a man punched him in the face, knocking him against the wall.

The man immediately got behind Hopke, pulling his arm backward, and placed a knife to his throat.

The intruder then forcibly pushed Hopke up the stairs without the victim ever seeing his face.

At least one other man entered his apartment at that time, the victim told police.

At the top of the stairs, a second man got a pillowcase and put it over Hopke's head.

The men used cords from a hairdryer and from some other appliance to tie his hands and feet.

The cord from his hand bands was then tied to a chin-bar in the hallway.

The men went through Hopke's pockets and took his wallet and cash and asked him where he had other valuables in the house. He could hear them searching the apartment, he told police.

While tied up, the robbers repeatedly hit Hopke about the face and body and kept calling him an obscene name.

They said that they had been watching him and warned Hopke not to tell police or they would "get him."

As soon as Hopke heard the men leave he managed to free himself, but then found the intruders had cut the telephone cord.

He went to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, it was learned.

Hopke was unable to tell officers immediately what other items may have been stolen from the apartment. An investigation is continuing.

Deputies in shakeup

The pay of three Madison County sheriff's deputies already has been suspended for 15 days and the activities of at least 12 other deputies is being investigated, Madison County Sheriff Emil Toffant verified this morning.

"Rumors in the county courthouse this week were that a county CETA worker had kept a diary which detailed alleged sexual misconduct by numerous deputies and when her CETA commission expired, she showed the diary to Toffant, thinking it would help get her onto the county payroll. Toffant did not confirm the existence of a diary. However, the sheriff confirmed that he is conducting an investigation into alleged "conduct unbecoming an officer" and already has suspended the pay of three deputies.

"Priests and deputies don't do this sort of thing," Toffant said, noting that some of the allegations are sexual in nature.

He also said that the Madison County state's attorney's office is studying some allegations and misconduct charges against two deputies will be filed before the Sheriff's Department Merit Board today. It is not believed that any of the charges will be criminal in nature.

Toffant said two kinds of actions are

Venice board names Bilbrey

By VALERIE EVENDEN
of the Press-Record

The Venice Board of Education named Michael R. Bilbrey as board attorney at its meeting Monday night. Bilbrey succeeds Lawrence T. Hartman, who had submitted his resignation at an earlier meeting, citing pressure of business. Hartman had served as school attorney for the past 15 years.

Board members also set a public hearing at 7 p.m. Monday, March 23, to consider the anticipated honorable dismissal of teachers.

A regular meeting of the board will follow the hearing.

The mailing of honorable dismissal notices is a procedure carried out each year as a protective measure to keep open the district's option of reducing staff if adequate funds are not available.

Last March, 42 teachers with less than 16 years' seniority, who were employed in the Venice Public Schools and at Venice-Lincoln Technical Center, received the dismissal notices.

Venice-Lincoln, an adult vocational school, is financed solely with federal and state funds.

Most of the 1980 notices were rescinded before the end of the school year.

Venice Superintendent of Schools Robert Vickers said authorization will be sought at the March 23 public hearing to prepare and mail "about the same number of dismissal notices as last year."

By law, the dismissals probably will affect faculty members with up to 17 years seniority, Supt. Vickers said.

The Venice School District's new attorney attended Monday night's meeting and was welcomed by Board President Jack Tolliver.

Bilbrey resides in Venice with his wife, Linda. He is associated with the law firm of Irvin C. Slate Jr., 2122 Edison Ave.

He graduated in May 1980 from the St. Louis University School of Law and was admitted to the Illinois Bar also last year.

Bilbrey received an undergraduate degree in 1977 from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. He attended Assumption High School in East St. Louis.

He is a member of the Tri-City Bar Association, Illinois Bar Association and the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association.

Employment up

While unemployment in Madison County increased slightly during January, the employment picture improved in Granite City, according to the latest available figures released by the Illinois Department of Labor this week.

According to Bob Worden of the research and analysis division in Belleville, unemployment in Granite City declined from 14 percent in the final December, 1980, figures to 13.6 percent in the preliminary January, 1981, totals.

The preliminary statistics show 125 persons gainfully employed in Granite City during January than in December. Of an available labor force of 17,492, a total of 15,111 are employed and 2,381 are out of work, Worden said.

In December, 1980, 15,422 persons were employed and 2,506 were out of work, the figures show.

Unemployment rose four-tenths of a percent in Madison County in January, going from 11 percent in the final December figures to 11.4 percent in the preliminary January totals, Worden said. A total of 12,211 persons were unemployed in the county in January out of a work force of 106,946. That compares with the previous month, in which 11,993 persons were out of work of a total Madison County labor force of 106,679.

The unemployment rate in Granite City still remains higher than in East St. Louis, which had a 12.7 percent unemployment rate in the January preliminary figures. Belleville had the highest rate with 15.5 percent unemployment while Alton's jobless rate was 12.8 percent.

St. Clair County had a 10.7 percent jobless rate in the preliminary January figures, Worden added.

CLEANUP KICKOFF. Members of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce prepare trash for pickup by a Milam East truck as a reminder of the community-wide cleanup drive scheduled April 25 through May 1. All residents, businesses, churches and organizations are being asked to make plans to help in the drive to make this a cleaner and more beautiful community. From left

Arts Council offers aid

April 13 is the deadline for non-profit organizations to apply to the Illinois Arts Council for financial assistance for arts programs occurring between Sept. 1, 1981, and Aug. 31, 1982.

To apply, an organization must be a registered not-for-profit corporation. Organizations which have conducted arts programming for at least one year before the date of application are eligible. Examples include arts producers such as theater companies, arts service organizations, such as park districts.

Last year, IAC awarded

$1.5 million to more than 400 non-profit organizations under the financial assistance program. The average-size grant was $3,000.

IAC provides only partial funding of any program. Although no specific matching of funds is required, the council favors proposals showing substantial financial support from local sources.

Further information or applications are available from the Illinois Arts Council, 111 N. Wabash Ave., Chicago, Ill. 60602.

Jerry Barnett Jr. Air Force enlistee

Upon graduation from the Air Force's six weeks basic military training, he will receive training in the Electronics Career Area. He is a 1977 graduate of Granite City High School North.

Some foods conflict with drugs

By MARY RICHARDS

Ill. Dept. of Public Health Did you know that certain foods can affect certain drugs so that the drug does not do its job? The reverse is also true. Some drugs can affect the way your body uses food.

Let's have a quiz this week to see how much you know about what has been learned in recent studies of the interaction of foods and drugs. Which of the following statements are "true" and which are "false"? More green leafy vegetables should be eaten if you are on birth control pills because the pill depletes the blood's content of certain vitamins.

Chronic use of antacids can lead to muscle weakness and vitamin D deficiency. As little as two-and-a-half tablespoons of mineral oil taken orally each day can interfere with the absorption of certain vitamins.

The long-term use of diuretics, or "water pills," to treat conditions such as congestive heart failure or hypertension can make the heart sensitive to the effects of other drugs, especially digitals.

The use of soda pop or acid fruit or vegetable juices when taking some drugs may cause them to dissolve quickly in the stomach instead of the intestines where they can be more readily absorbed into the blood stream.

The calcium in dairy products impairs absorption of tetracycline, a commonly prescribed antibiotic, keeping you from getting the full benefit of treatment.

The answer to all of the above is "true."

The extent of interaction between foods and drugs depends on the drug dosage and on the individual's age, size, and medical condition. In general, though, the presence of food in the stomach and intestines can influence a drug's effectiveness by slowing down or speeding up the time it takes the medicine to reach the site in the body where it is needed.

Food also contains natural and added chemicals that can react with certain drugs in ways that make the drugs virtually useless, and some reactions can be downright dangerous.

Nutrient depletion of the body occurs gradually, but if drugs are taken over long periods of time, these interactions can lead to deficiencies of certain vitamins and minerals, especially in children, the elderly and the chronically ill.

What can you do to prevent undesirable food-drug interactions? You can read the labels on over-the-counter remedies and the package inserts that come with prescription drugs. Ask your doctor when to take drugs and what foods or beverages to take or to avoid while taking medication.

The state health department urges you to eat a wide variety of foods, for a drug is less likely to cause depletion of vitamins and minerals if your overall nutritional status is good.

Further information about food and drug interactions can be obtained by writing to the Illinois Department of Public Health, Division of Education and Information, 1001 West Jefferson, Springfield, Ill. 62761.

Fourth graders attend concert

Fourth graders from Louis Baer School at Madison, attended a student concert performed by the St. Louis Symphony Orchestra last week. Students from Mrs. Rosie Fields' class and Mrs. Virginia Gulleger's class and half of the students from Mrs. Dorothy Johnson's class attended this concert.

The remaining fourth graders will be attending a concert on April 28. The students were accompanied by Mrs. Fields, Mrs. Gulleger, and Mrs. Marie Hlava, aide. Robert Barnhart is the principal of Louis Baer School.

The tickets for these concerts were purchased by the Venice-Madison Fine Arts Committee through a grant from the Illinois Arts Council, an agency of the State of Illinois. Mrs. Margaret Lee is the chairman of this committee. The program which includes 250 fourth graders in the Venice-Madison public and parochial schools having the opportunity to attend at least one Symphony Concert during the school year is coordinated by Mrs. Marguerite Connole.

Cox of 2124 Dewey Ave., Granite City, has completed training as a cannoner under the One Station Unit Training (OSUT) Program at the U.S. Army Field Artillery School, Fort Sill, Okla. OSUT is a 13-week period which combines basic combat training with advanced individual training.

Stoker on Dean's List

Robert Wayne Stoker, 3801 Lake Drive, Lot 144, Pontoon Beach, is among 52 Drake University students named to the Dean's List for the fall, 1980 semester.

To be eligible for the Dean's List, students must have earned at least a 3.5 grade-point average (on a 4.0 scale) while taking a minimum of 12 hours of course work during the semester.

Two hundred sixty-five Drake students earned a 4.0 grade-point average during the semester, which qualified them to be named to the President's List. There were 6,592 students enrolled at Drake University last fall.

Foggy River Boys to perform here

The Junior Youth Fellowship of St. John United Church of Christ is sponsoring a Foggy River Boys concert on Friday, March 27, at the G.C.H.S. South Memorial Gymnasium at 8 p.m., according to Mrs. James Engelle, leader.

This is a special night of entertainment for the entire family. Tickets are $4 in advance from any St. John Youth member or from the church office, 2901 Nameki Road from 8:30 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Tickets will also be sold at the door the night of the performance, according to Mrs. Engelle, for $4.50.

Winner of the 1970 Mid-Continent Quartet Contest, the group is said to appeal to every age.

Inheriting a musical tradition established in the 1940's and carried on through the 1950's by the original Jordanaires of Nashville's Grand Ole Opry, the Foggy River Boys have expanded on the Jordanaires' repertoire to embrace virtually every type of vocal music, Mrs. Engelle added.

Agents to attend insurance meet

Area Manager Bill Terrell and associates John E. Brooks and Richard G. Essington of the Bill Terrell Agency for the Franklin Life Insurance Co., Springfield, Ill., will attend the company's agency convention at the Hyatt on Hilton Head Island, S.C. in July 1981.

Terrell, Brooks and Essington qualified for attendance through outstanding sales production and will receive special recognition from Company President William J. Alley.

O.U. for achieving membership in the Franklin Million Dollar Conference, and organization of millions-dollar-a-year sales and sales management leaders.

Local students named in PTA Fine Arts project

"Reflections," a cultural arts activity of the National Parent Teacher Association and sponsored locally by the Area PTA Council attracted students in the Granite City elementary schools with the 15 winning students named at the annual Area Council Awards Banquet held at the Granite City Army Installation.

Mrs. June Nightwinger Branding served as chairman of the area program and presented the 15 winning students names at the dinner.

In the three categories, music, literature and art, there were four first place winners and an overall grand winner selected.

The entries for both the Granite City Area Council PTA winners and Illinois District 29 PTA winners have been sent to the state level to be judged in Chicago.

Mrs. Branding explained, Mrs. Marilyn Bernaia served as judge in the music category.

The grand winner was Laura Hileman, sixth grade student at Nameki School. First place honors went to David Lane, Brian Forbes, Yolanda Sue McCoy, sixth grade pupils at Nameki and Dana Kelly, fifth grade student at Logan School.

Literature competition was judged by Mrs. Marceline Williams, Julie Davis, sixth grade Parkview School student received the grand winner award, and sixth graders Becky Kramer, Wilson School, Michelle Jackson and Jamie Hogan, both from Parkview School and Dean Sheikh, second grader at Parkview, captured first place awards.

Top honors in the art category went to Kenneth Beljanski, a sixth grade pupil at Nameki. First place awards went to Cheryl Thomas, third grade student at Wilson School, Clara Cornelison, third grader at Nameki, Christine Gruse, first grader at Wilson School and Buffy Baum, first grade pupil at Logan School.

Mrs. Julie Gates, Area Council PTA president, presented the names of the winning students to Mrs. Barbara Haddock, District 29 PTA president.

Mrs. Branding addressed the assembly and announced the theme of the project was "What A Family Means To Me" and was created in 1969 to give recognition to children and young people with talent in the arts.

In the 1979-80 national competition, 42 states sent 196 visual arts entries, 41 states sent 181 literature entries and 40 states had 163 music entries for a total of 539 entries.

Some of the objectives of the project are, to provide opportunities for children to use their creative talents by expressing themselves through their own original works of art; to portray their emotions in a tangible way; a means of communication; to emphasize the value of cultural arts as useful tools for every day living; to explore these fields of arts as a possibility for making future career choices, Mrs. Branding said.

She added, the purpose is to encourage creative expression among children and youth in the form of visual arts, literature and music following the theme.

Comments by Bob Moske, who served as judge in the art category were, the child, in his first years in school, has individually arrived at satisfactory ways of representing or symbolizing people and objects in his environment. The important thing to remember is that the child does not attempt to reproduce realistically what he sees. Generally he uses symbols to express his feelings.

A most helpful role for the adult is to be a supporter of the child's efforts motivating and encouraging the discovery of his own solutions.

The theme "What A Family Means To Me" stresses a child's perception of the world in which he intimately lives, his outer environment. Sometimes he will focus on inner perceptions dealing with his personal feelings. Each child needs these experiences in perception with the visual arts as a means of developing and promoting primary skills.

Moske concluded with the statement, "Usually a theme such as this deals with significant past events that the child wishes to remember. When this happens you see the true feeling that influences the child's values and conduct, sharing an event, responding to others, and perceiving beauty in the use of materials to express himself."

At that point, she ran south on Maryville Road and the man drove away, traveling north on Maryville.

The would-be abductor was described as white, about five feet, six inches tall and in his early 20's.

He was well groomed with short black hair, cut above the ears, a dark mustache and bushy black eyebrows.

The man was wearing dark colored slacks and an orange down-filled coat with tan stripes around the sleeves and across the back, the victim said.

John Apperson, a Granite City police officer and highly successful magician in his own right, will serve as master-of-ceremonies for the show.

The public is invited to attend.

Pat McDaniel, 25, of 2416 Benton St., has been named the first runner-up in the Miss St. Louis Blues Contest, staged jointly by the Blues and the St. Louis Heart Association.

Winners are determined annually by the amount of money raised in donations by each candidate. This year, which was the third of the contest, she raised $2,704 and the contest raised a total of $24,000, exceeding the combined proceeds from the two previous years.

Most of her donations were obtained from Granite City businessmen, but she also asked for donations in and around the Checkerboard during seven Blues games.

Miss McDaniel is the daughter of Lyman Morris of Granite City.

Woman thwarts abduction try

A woman from St. Clair, Mo., successfully resisted efforts by a man attempting to abduct her near Maryville Road and St. Clair Avenue about 9:35 p.m. Tuesday.

The near-victim, who told police she is staying with friends in the 2200 block of Wilson Avenue, was walking to a store when a man driving a light blue, newer model Mercedes stopped and asked if she wanted a ride.

After she replied, "No," and kept walking, the man got out of the auto and attempted to grab her arm and shoulder, saying "I feel like taking," she told police.

The woman managed to pull away, but her accoster again tried to grab her and she hit him in the stomach. She then hit the man in the groin when he attempted to pull on her for the third time, she reported to officers.

At that point, she ran south on Maryville Road and the man drove away, traveling north on Maryville.

The would-be abductor was described as white, about five feet, six inches tall and in his early 20's.

Willie O. Pyke of Edwardsville, professor and chairman of business education and administrative services at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, is one of six members appointed to a national committee to revise the content of the Business Education Area Examination of the National Teacher Examination.

The test, produced by the Educational Testing Service of Princeton, N.J., is used to assess teacher preparation and educational programs in the business education field. Professor Pyke, who was nominated by the 15,000-member National Business Education Association, will also work with the committee in writing test items for the new test forms that are to be prepared and in reviewing other items for which performance data are available.

The committee will also recommend other experts to write test questions and will suggest revisions before reviewing the final test. A recognized expert in his field, Professor Pyke has published several articles, yearbook chapters and curriculum guide chapters that have appeared in leading business education publications. She is currently working on a textbook.

At SIUE, she is president-elect of the Faculty Senate and administers a $34,000 grant funded by the Illinois Board of Higher Education to integrate business education studies in the Metro-East area.

Fines are distributed

Fines totaling $15,925 collected by Madison County Circuit Court during February for local law enforcement departments have been distributed to the municipalities and village, Circuit Clerk Willard V. "Butch" Portell announced this week.

Fines during the month totaled $153,355 county-wide, including $11,660 distributed to Granite City, $1,865 to Madison, $1,495 to Ponton Beach and $905 to Venice.

Granite City's collections were second among cities only to Alton, which received $12,765 from the February collections. The county government received $56,318, the state received $33,587 for overweight trucks, the Illinois Commerce Commission received $375 and the Department of Conservation got $25 in fines, Portell reported.

Chief Velzer urged residents to keep their doors locked and make sure they know who is outside before opening the door.

"If you have any question about someone at the door, or you don't believe what that person is telling you, call the police," the officer stressed.

"If the caller is there legitimately, they won't mind you checking with the police."

"Also, please instruct your children not to open the door to anyone," he added.

"Neighbors can help by watching for suspicious people in the neighborhood...for anything unusual that may be happening...for someone they don't recognize who is acting questionable."

"It is very easy for us to check things out. Much easier than writing a report after something happens,"

Chief Velzer said.

He urged residents to keep valuables and money in a safe place, such as a bank.

"Do not keep these things around the house," he emphasized. To ask police to check on something happening in the neighborhood, or to report someone at the door who appears suspicious, Granite City residents should call—877-6111.

Venice board

of Local 965, American Federation of Teachers, to start negotiating sessions toward a 1981-82 working agreement.

The current one year contract, ratified in December after lengthy negotiations, expires June 30, 1981.

Supt. Vickers noted the previously reached agreement includes a provision that salary negotiations will not be part of the initial talks between the board and Local 965. This aspect of the new contract will be deferred until after Oct. 1, 1981.

The board confirmed an administrative regulation which requires non-teaching personnel to take a vacation day or leave without pay in the event a snow day or a similar emergency closing of school is declared.

Permission was granted the Eagle Park softball team to use the "old" gymnasium at the Venice Grade School from 6 p.m. until 9 p.m. on Tuesday and Thursday through April 10.

Father, son

Ropac Jr., in addition to the son Jerome Ropac who died with him.

The son, Jerome J. Ropac Sr., 47, resided at 109 Riviera Drive. He was born in Madison and had lived in Granite City for 25 years.

Mr. Ropac had worked as a millwright in the Blast Furnace Department at Granite City Steel for 20 years.

He was a member of St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and belonged to the International Chemical Workers, Local 50, and St. Joseph Slovak Society, 408. Survivors included his wife, Mrs. Lillian A. Ropac; four children, Brenda, Nanette, Jerome J. Jr., and Brian Ropac, all at home; one brother, Raymond Ropac, Granite City; two sisters, Miss Geraldine Ropac, Madison and Mrs. Raymond (Loretta) Stephens, Lillian, Ark.; and his mother, Mrs. Anna C. Ropac of Madison.

Funeral arrangements are given in the obituary column.

Girl, 16, reports rape

A 16-year-old Granite City girl, who appeared to be intoxicated and was taken into custody by officers in the 2900 Edgewood Avenue at 8:15 p.m. Monday; later told police and hospital authorities she had been raped.

Officers were called to Edgewood Avenue and saw the girl being helped to walk by other women. The girl allegedly was screaming and cursing in a loud voice and became violent when officers attempted to place her into a squad car.

The girl's mother came to the Granite City police station a short time later and asked to have the girl taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center for an examination.

Police noted that while the girl was in a holding cell and also was being placed in an ambulance, she repeatedly hit and kicked the walls and doors.

In the hospital emergency room, the girl said she had been raped and named an individual. She was unable to say where the offense had occurred, but believed it to have happened in a car.

Possible evidence was taken by medical authorities.

Officers talked with other teenagers who knew the girl and one youth came into police headquarters and made a voluntary statement.

An investigation is continuing.

Adequate funds for heat bills

Income-eligible renters may qualify for a grant under the state's Low Income Energy Assistance Program (LIEAP) even if they don't pay their own heating bills directly, according to the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs (DCCA).

Wayne Curtis, manager of LIEAP for DCCA, said, "Renters are eligible for assistance under the program even if they don't pay their heating bills directly. Some landlords include the cost of heating a tenant's apartment in the monthly rental fee," Curtis said, "and income-eligible tenants may, therefore, be eligible for a grant under the LIEAP program. Income-eligible renters who do pay their own heating bills may, of course, also qualify for a grant."

Curtis urged all low-income renters—those paying their heating bills and those whose heating costs are included in their rental payments—to check with their local LIEAP administering agency.

The local LIEAP administering agency for this area is the Madison Economic Opportunity Commission at Godfrey, phone (618) 466-0900.

More than 111,000 LIEAP applications have been processed to date, according to Curtis. "Less than two months into the program," Curtis said, "we have received and processed an enormous number of applications statewide and have issued grants averaging approximately $175 per applicant. However," Curtis said, "most local LIEAP administering agencies have adequate funds remaining to handle many more applications."

LIEAP grants range from $60 to $430 depending on an application's location in the state, income and type of heating fuel used. Total funding for the program is $35 million, up 75 percent from last year.

Nameoki will not have to repay sewer planning funds

Nameoki Township will not have to repay $18,858 in advance sewer planning grant money to the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development, the town board of trustees was informed Monday night.

A letter from HUD indicated that the township has proven to HUD's satisfaction that the plans prepared with those funds, sent to the township July 4, 1964, were for a sewer system which was never installed.

Had that system subsequently qualified for a federal grant and been constructed, the township would have been responsible for repaying the $18,858 to HUD.

Documents sent by the engineer and township attorney to HUD proved that the Four Township Sewers just completed through Nameoki, Chouteau and Venice townships were not related to the system for which the 1964 planning grant was given, so the township does not have to repay them.

In other business: Tax Assessor Carl Macios reminded those present that the last day to file for a home assessment reduction under Semarion 1790 is April 1. Homeowners who reside in their homes can obtain an automatic $1,500 reduction in the assessments of the homes by filing the form with their township tax assessor each year.

A letter from the Madison County Economic Opportunities Commission was read warning that someone is going to homes about to be weatherized under the EOC weatherization program and is demanding funds for the work. The letter said EOC does not charge for the work and anyone who represents himself as an EOC worker should be asked to show an EOC identification card.

Letters were read from State Representatives Sam Wolf (D-Granite City) and Everett Steele (R-Glen Carbon) in which they explain the efforts underway to find some form of relief for persons who have been forced to pay unfair taxes, such as those in the taxing district for the new sanitary sewers whose homes will not be served by the sewers.

Both said they are looking into possible solutions to the problem.

A tax anticipation warrant for $45,000 for the road and bridge fund was approved by the board at the request of Township Highway Commissioner Frank Mehelic. Mehelic said the fund is depleted.

Madison County Clerk Evelyn Bowles reminded the town trustees that the 12½-cent tax rate for the special hard road fund will expire this year. Each five years, the electors (all eligible township voters) must approve continuing the extra rate for the roads, or it is discontinued. The electors will vote by secret ballot at the annual meeting in April.

Letters sent by Supervisor Harold Davis to Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagauer and other county officials were read seeking a solution to alleged zoning violations at commercial property on Dawn Place. Davis alleges that trash and debris violates the county's zoning provisions.

It was announced that the Nameoki Township Citizens' Advisory Board will meet at 7 tonight in the town hall.

A letter also was read reminding residents that the St. Louis Metro Area Rail Gateway Enterprise (MARGE) will hold an informational meeting in the Granite City Township building, 2060 Delmar Ave., at 7 p.m. Thursday, March 26. The MARGE program is seeking to find the most effective way to move rail tracks and yards to clear the East St. Louis riverfront and to expedite the flow of rail traffic through the St. Louis metropolitan area.

Citizens also were reminded that a public budget hearing on the township's road and bridge budgets will be held Tuesday evening, March 31, followed by a hearing on possible uses for the township's revenue sharing funds in the new fiscal year.

Easter egg creativity class

A workshop on Easter Egg creativity, originally scheduled Feb. 12 at Edwardsville Immanuel Methodist Church, has been rescheduled for March 25. The workshop was cancelled because of inclement weather.

Sponsored by the River Bluffs Girl Scouts Council and the Office of Continuing Education at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, the workshop sessions will meet at the church from 9 a.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Registration is $3, which partially covers the cost of course materials. Participants are also asked to bring along a towel, washcloth, measuring tape, tiny scissors, two raw eggs, a bag of onion skins and scraps of wrapping paper. They are also expected to bring along their own sack lunches.

The workshop on Easter egg creativity is one of a series of workshops designed to update and expand the knowledge of Girl Scout leaders and trainers in the field and to develop the leadership qualities of those interested in working with young people. Continuing education units are available.

Many license plates will expire March 31

Passenger car owners with license plate registrations expiring in March have until midnight Tuesday, March 31, to display brown 1982 stickers in the upper right corners of their rear plates.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar said approximately 570,000 renewal applications have been mailed to registered owners who currently display green 1981 stickers expiring in March.

Applications made by mail should be in the secretary's office no later than tomorrow to guarantee delivery by the March 31 deadline.

Stickers also may be purchased over-the-counter at the secretary of state's Springfield and Chicago facilities or many financial institutions participating in the license renewal program.

Effective Wednesday, April 1, anyone driving a car with an expired green, March 1981, sticker will be subject to a fine for improper registration.

Haynes unopposed in Venice Ward 4

Incumbent Venice Fourth Ward Alderman Charles Haynes, 57, is unopposed in his bid for re-election in the April 7 balloting.

Haynes is a lifelong resident of the Quad-City area. He graduated from Dunbar High School in Madison, and was formerly employed at A.O. Smith as a welder.

Haynes is a member of Southern Baptist Church and is in the chorus there. He is also a member of American Legion Post 799.

He resides at 164 Lee Wright Homes with his wife and seven children.

Haynes said he is seeking re-election to attract industry to the area, to work towards rebuilding a tax base for the city and to help implement plans already begun.

CHARLES HAYNES

WARRANTS SERVED

Ricard Jose Long, 21, of 54 Grenier Homes, Madison, was arrested at Third and Bissell streets in Madison early this week and was served warrants alleging battery and failure to appear in court on charges of reckless conduct and failure to have a firearm owner's identification card. Associate Judge Clayton Williams ordered Long released on his own recognizance Monday.

MAN PLEADS GUILTY
Donald Delmo Cunningham, 23, Alton, pleaded guilty to public indecency and battery in connection with Madison warrants and was released on his own recognizance by Associate Judge Clayton Williams at 12:30 p.m. Monday, pending sentencing April 24. He had been arrested in Alton on the warrants and was brought to Madison to face the charges.

A spring carnival will be held at Blair School in Madison from 8 to 8 p.m. on Friday, March 20, and is open to the public, the chairman announces. Admission is set at twenty-five cents and each game is available for a 10-cent ticket, it was noted.

3 candidates for 4th Ward alderman

GLEN SPRANKLE

SHARON PERJAK

JOHN ZIKOVITCH

Glen E. Sprankle, 40, of 1520 Roy Ave., incumbent alderman in Granite City's Fourth Ward, is seeking re-election in a three-way race. Sprankle has served as an alderman since 1975, having first been appointed to serve following the death of the late alderman R.E. Robertson. He was elected to his first full term as alderman in 1977, replacing Alderman Claude Green, who had retired.

Sprankle serves on several council committees and chairs the pollution plant committee, which oversees the operation of the city's giant primary and secondary sewage treatment plant.

He is employed by the Local Records Unit of the Secretary of State's office and formerly was a patternmaker with American Steel Foundries. He is a member of St. Bartholomew's Church, the Patternmaker's Union, the Madison County Police Association and numerous other clubs and organizations. He has served as chairman of the Heart Fund locally and has been active in several civic and park activities.

He also served many years as the Democratic precinct committeeman for Precinct 20. He has a son, Glen James, 12.

He said he is seeking re-election "to represent the residents of the ward as a hard-working alderman and to obtain for the Fourth Ward residents and the city the monies they deserve for areas of greatest desire."

"I will continue to support the city administration and will continue my efforts my efforts to solve the ward's drainage problem, support street resurfacing and construction programs, the public health programs and my strongest endeavor will be to see the Jill Avenue and Nameoki Road crossing signal for students and the handicapped become a reality."

"I also want to see further use of township revenue monies in the area's athletic and recreational activities and programs," Sprankle said.

Sharon S. Perjak, 3228 Curston Ave., is a candidate for alderman of the Fourth Ward in Granite City.

She has lived in this area all of her life, and graduated from Granite City High School. She also attended Belleville Area College.

Mrs. Perjak is employed as an administrative assistant at Peckham Guyton Albers and Viets, Inc., attorneys. She formerly was employed as an executive secretary for Shipmates Sportswear and was secretary to the mayor of Cahokia.

She is a member of Niedringhaus United Methodist Church and the Architectural Secretaries' Association. Mrs. Perjak also is Democratic precinct committeeman in Precinct 20.

"If we are to accomplish a better community, it becomes increasingly important that the decisions that are made are the right decisions. We need to turn Granite City into a new business and industry and bring downtown back to life and we are in dire need of better planning," she said.

John Zikovitch, 66, is one of three candidates in the race for Fourth Ward Alderman of Granite City.

Zikovitch was born in St. Louis and has resided in Granite City most of his life. He attended local schools and graduated from Granite City High School.

He is retired from American Steel Foundries, where he worked as a supervisor. Presently, Zikovitch is a precinct committeeman.

He and his wife, Sarah, live at 2433 Center St. Zikovitch is running for alderman "to work for better drainage, cleaner alleys and streets, to revitalize existing neighborhoods, and for better police and fire protection."

He said, "Since I am retired, I will provide the residents of the Fourth Ward with the best possible service by always being available to answer all complaints."

GAS PLAN

President Carter asked Congress on Feb. 26, 1979, to grant him the power to order gasoline rationing.

Gordon, George in Madison ward race

THOMAS GORDON

THOMAS GEORGE

Third Ward Alderman Thomas Gordon of Madison is seeking a second term in the April 7 election.

Gordon has been a resident of the Quad-Cities most of his life and is a graduate of Granite City High School.

He is employed as vice-president of internal operations at the City Bank in St. Louis.

Gordon is a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church, St. Stanislaus Lodge 1004, St. Mary's Holy Name Boosters and the Madison Lion's Club.

He served on the board of directors of Specialized Services and he was formerly chairman of its building committee. Gordon also is chairman of the credit committee at St. Mary's.

Madison Federal Credit Union.

He and his wife have four children, and they live at 1717 Rhodes St., Madison.

"My past four years as alderman have given me valuable insight to our city government, various federal agencies and other governing bodies. This is invaluable experience which will help me to better serve our community in the coming four years," said Gordon.

He continued, "Because of the uncertainties in our economy, we must strive more than ever to keep taxes at a minimum and still provide the services vital to our community."

UNDERCOATING—RALPH'S TEXACO, 22nd & MADISON AVE.

The independent candidate for Third Ward alderman in Madison is Thomas R. George, 54.

A lifelong area resident, George graduated from Madison High School and attended Lewis and Clark Community College and Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is employed as an operating engineer at Shell Oil Co. in Wood River and is a member of St. Mary's Catholic Church.

George and his wife, Debbie, and two sons live at 1703 Elizabeth St., Madison.

"The main reason I am a candidate for the office of alderman is to be a spokesman for the people of the Third Ward, both young and old," he said.

"It is time for all of us to become active participants in our city's affairs. In order to accomplish this we need open communication between both citizens and elected officials," George concluded.

WALTER KLEIN

Walter Klein was accorded honors and presented with a certificate of commendation by Travlers Abroad at its February meeting held at Prather Junior High School.

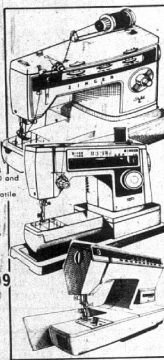

He served as special arrangements chairman for 16 years, one year as president and two years as vice-president in charge of programs. In all the 16 years, Mr. Klein missed only one meeting, it was noted.

A decision whether or not to present a final report to the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency and apply for a final release of grant funds was a point of discussion at last night's meeting of the Madison County Special Sewer Committee.

The committee decided not to release the final report at this time, but will ask the IEPA to retain only one percent of the grant for building the sewers, rather than the five percent called for in the original agreement.

The committee was informed by Charles Jeneau of Jeneau Associates that once the final report is submitted for a final payoff on the grant, there can be no further change orders. There still are some unsettled land easement disputes pending in court and more change orders may be needed when these disputes are settled, he said.

Since federal matching grant funds may be needed to settle these, submitting the final report at this time would be unwise, it was indicated. The committee's attorney, H. Carl Runge, stated, "It's clear that we need the money, but they (persons not yet using the sewer or having easement disputes) are not to be left hanging. They pay taxes too."

A motion to retain the final report until the easements and other disputes are settled was approved unanimously.

Committee Chairman Louis Whitsell read a report from S.M. Wilson, general contractor for the sewers, which indicated that Wilson has no further interest in any contracts with the county for sewer construction or in extending their current contract.

S.M. Wilson has a two-year contract with the county, but the work is not yet complete and the firm is responsible for returning property disturbed by sewer construction to its original state. Several citizens at the meeting expressed their dissatisfaction with the restoration of their properties and Runge said he has about 12 to 14 complaints on file.

Sewer Superintendent

without pay, in portions of the Quad-City area, the sheriff confirmed. He said he also has written "a couple of letters of reprimand," and made some transfers as a result of conduct brought to light, thus far in the investigation.

Final report on sewers will be withheld until property restored

Gene Futch told the Press-Record that the monthly treatment fee will begin when the final inspection has been made. Those still needing to obtain tap permits may go to the office at 4120 Highway 111 to apply.

According to county ordinance, all homes are required to tap onto the sewers within 90 days of the opening of the sewers in their area. However, an additional 90 days will be given to those who need it, it was indicated.

Seek eye doner pledges

The month of March, designated National Eye Bank Month by the Eye Bank Association of America, has been selected by the state's 678 Lions Clubs for an intensive campaign to secure eye donor pledges from Illinois citizens.

"Signing an eye donor pledge card can lead to a miracle," said Louis Aebischer, vice president and cashier of the State Bank of St. Jacob, Madison County, and state chairman of the Lions of Illinois Foundation Eye Donor Registry program. "That miracle is sight for those who have been waiting in total darkness."

There are at least 300 people in Illinois alone who are on waiting lists for corneal transplants.

"There is a critical shortage of eye tissue for those transplants," said the Lions, who have been involved in services to the blind and visually handicapped, "and everything they can do to help others," he said.

The Lions, through their charitable arm, the Lions of Illinois Foundation, began the Eye Donor Registry program in the winter of 1975. Since that time, almost 15,500 persons have signed eye donor pledges and approximately 500 pairs of eyes have been delivered to the cooperating eye banks. Lions throughout the state accept pledges, establish eye donor collection centers for removal of eye tissue, and help transport the tissue to three eye banks.

"All you have to do is meet one person who was blind and who can now see because of a transplant and you realize the profound importance of the Eye Donor Registry program," Aebischer said. Lions Clubs in Illinois are divided into 12 districts and the districts are engaged in some friendly competition to see which will obtain the most pledges.

"We have an overall goal set," he said. "We just want to get as many people as possible to join us in the fight against blindness. As in their other programs, the Lions do not charge any fees for the Eye Donor Registry. It is a non-profit humanitarian service funded by voluntary contributions from individuals and others and from proceeds from Candy Day, Candy Day is a state-wide fund-raiser held annually the second Friday in October. Proceeds are used to benefit the blind, visually handicapped, deaf, and hearing impaired through both local and statewide services. Statewide, the Lions put the proceeds to work through their Foundation with such programs as the Registry; Camp Lions; a Mobile Glaucoma Screening Unit that offers free glaucoma and visual acuity screenings to more than 30,000 adults annually; a Mobile Hearing Services Unit for free hearing screenings for adults; a Good Hearing Aid Bank to help persons who can't afford to purchase a new one; Used Eyeglasses Collectible, responsible for the distribution of 250,000 pairs of eyeglasses to poverty areas worldwide annually; and a Department of Social Services and Referral to help cut red tape and arrange direct services for individuals.

Cheryl Swift has been selected for one of the 40 participants for the "Cadettes on Parade" event at the National Center West, a 15,000 acre site bordered by the Big Horn National Forest near Ten Sleep, Wyo. The two-week event, from Aug. 4-18, will include horserback riding, living in tents, doing their own cooking, exploring the old west around them, and making new friends from faraway places. They will pack their horses and go on a 5-day primitive camping adventure during the event.

Christine Loyet has been selected as one of the 80 participants for "Recreation Roundup," sponsored by the Kentuckiana Girl Scout Council from July 31 to Aug. 16. She will spend part of her time in the Land Between the Lakes learning about outdoor recreation careers. She will visit the TVA's 170,000-acre recreation area, sail Kentucky Lake, backpack along Civil War trails, and go rappelling. She will also help staff an interpretive museum like the 1850's Homeplace, a working farm.

Girl Scouts selected for national projects

Cadette Girl Scout Troop 328 has three of its members selected to participate in 1981 Wider Opportunities, sponsored by Girl Scouts of the USA. The girls are Cheryl Swift and Jill Kinder, both 7th-graders at Coolidge Junior High School, and Christine Loyet, an 8th-grader at St. Margaret Mary.

Cheryl Swift has been selected for one of the 40 participants for the "Cadettes on Parade" event at the National Center West, a 15,000 acre site bordered by the Big Horn National Forest near Ten Sleep, Wyo. They will pack their horses and go on a 5-day primitive camping adventure during the event.

Christine Loyet has been selected as one of the 80 participants for "Recreation Roundup," sponsored by the Kentuckiana Girl Scout Council from July 31 to Aug. 16. She will spend part of her time in the Land Between the Lakes learning about outdoor recreation careers. She will visit the TVA's 170,000-acre recreation area, sail Kentucky Lake, backpack along Civil War trails, and go rappelling. She will also help staff an interpretive museum like the 1850's Homeplace, a working farm.

Jill Kinder has been selected as one of the 126 participants for the "Try It Now" event sponsored by the Buckeye Trails Girl Scout Council in Ohio from July 19-30. "Try It Now" is a rainbow of opportunities—camping, team and water sports, canoe trips, intercultural exchanges and co-edition. The girls will help develop an international trail.

The River Bluffs Girl Scout Council, which covers a 5-county area, has had 11 girls chosen for participants in different wider opportunities around our country and Canada. In addition to the opportunities mentioned above, other girls have been chosen to go to California for the "Pacific" event, to Canada for "Canadian Canoe Trails," to New York for "Upstate Onstage," to South Dakota for "Do It in Dakota," and to other events at National Center West in Wyoming.

NOW IS THE TIME TO VOTE NO AGAINST PARTNEY

WHY DID PARTNEY JOIN MORRIS CHAPMAN AND OTHERS IN A CAMPAIGN TO DEFEAT AN ESTEEMED JUDGE WITH THE USE OF DISTORTED INFORMATION? IS THIS THE KIND OF MAN YOU WANT FOR MAYOR? Here are the facts:

In the November election 1980, a campaign was waged by a group called the "Committee for an Improved Judiciary." The members on their letterhead included: David Partney, Lloyd Bailey, Margaret Nonn, however, as the Alton Telegraph stated, "the committee really is speaking for a couple of attorneys, notably the powerful Morris Chapman, who apparently do not like the judges." (Alton Telegraph, October 30, 1980.) Their main purpose was to defeat two respected judges for their own purposes — Judges Mosele and Delaurentis. The Granite City Journal reported in November 2, 1980, that: "the Committee for an Improved Judiciary's campaign contributions report lists $10,000 in donations from William Schoolee, Granite City attorney; $1,000 from L. Thomas Lakin, an East Alton attorney; $5,000 from Morris Chapman and $3,780 from Jon Carlson. The latter two are partners in the Granite City law firm, Chapman and Carlson, who also donated $1,200, the report shows." As the Alton Telegraph reported it was an "overt effort to dump two experienced circuit judges seeking reelection . . . We urge 'YES' votes . . . that vote will be a clear message to a group of attorneys who are trying to get two seats vacated presumably so they can manipulate choice of successors who are not as independent." (Alton Telegraph, October 30, 1980.) The Collinsville Herald dated October 27, 1980, stated that the "Victor J. Mosele . . . ouster is sought by a clique of lawyers." After the election was over, The Greenville Advocate in an editorial dated November 13, 1980, related:

There is little doubt but that both judges were the victims of a well planned "cheap shot" smear campaign supported by a Madison county clique of personal injury lawyers. It was well financed and planned, designed to take advantage of public's general ignorance of our judicial system.

A consultant employed to put together the advertising and letters attacking the two judges, admitted just before the election that the information was based on half-truths and distortions. Unfortunately the admission came too late to blunt the mass media attack. The campaign accomplished its goal of raising questions in the minds of the voters at the last minute.

The consultant employed was Michael P. Manning who stated to the Edwardsville Intelligencer, November 1, 1980: "Our campaign was built on half-truths and distortions and I regret this. What it really boils down to is that using that information paints a very distorted image of Judge Mosele. Everybody involved in this thing should be ashamed, including me." A lawyer quoted in the November 10, 1980, Alton Telegraph stated their motive in one word: "Greedy."

The seven cases primarily used by the Committee for an Improved Judiciary were used by Daniel J. Partney in his efforts to discredit Judge Mosele. His letter distributed to the people in his county district is reproduced below:

DEAR VOTERS OF 21st DISTRICT:

Periodically, I have sought your help to elect those public officials I felt most represented this district. This time, I need your help to defeat an ineffective judge. His record is as follows:

Case No.	Charge	Punishment
CF-114	Armed Robbery	2 yr. Probation
CF-225	Indecent Liberties with a Child	2 yr. Probation
CF-147	Armed Robbery	1 yr. Probation
CF-294	Deviate Sexual Assault	1 yr. of Weekends in Jail
CF-119	Robbery	2 yr. Probation
CF-266	Indecent Liberties with a Child	1 yr. Probation
CF-234	Murder and Manslaughter	30 mo. Probation plus $2000 Fine

I know this record does not reflect your views. You should let your voice be heard in the courthouse in Edwardsville to stop crime.

VOTE NO VICTOR J. MOSELE PAGE 10 ON YOUR BALLOT NOVEMBER 4, 1980

Sincerely yours,
DANIEL J. PARTNEY
County Board Member — District No. 21

Out of the thousands of cases handled by Mosele, only 7 were cited and the information provided has been admitted and proven to be gross distortion and half truths. Partney never mentions that a judge is required to grant probation in cases involving first offenders under Illinois law other than murder and Class X cases, and that all the cases were negotiated pleas and recommendations of the state attorney. Neither is it mentioned that Case CF-225 labelled "Indecent Liberties with a Child" involved a 16 year old girl and a 17 year old boy, nor that the man murdered in Case CF-234 had attacked the woman twice before and was coming after her a third time.

Cash taken in tavern break-in

A burglar kicked in the lower panel on a rear door and crawled through to gain entry to the Sports Tap Tavern, 616 Niedringhaus Ave. It was reported Monday.

Two additional doors inside the building were kicked down or forced to get into the main part of the tavern, where a cigarette machine and a pinball machine were pried open and the coin boxes were taken.

A drawer to the cash register was removed and about $250 was stolen, along with a bag containing about $130 in change.

Damage to the premises amounted to more than $250, the owner said.

PAID FOR BY A. O. SMITH EMPLOYEES COMMITTEE TO ELECT DAN PARTNEY
Harry Chism, Chairman

Paul Ray Bowler Doesn't Just Make Promises
... He Keeps Them
PROMISES 4 YEARS AGO:

1. Stop spot zoning—update zoning ordinance
2. Be fiscally responsible.
3. Improve street conditions.
4. Improve ground water problem in Dobrey Slough
5. Help attract new industries to our city.
6. Hold ward meetings to inform 7th ward residents.

ACCOMPLISHMENTS:

1. As Chairman of Planning & Zoning the following recommendations from my committee were approved by the City Council.
 - (a) Stopped all spot zoning and special use permits.
 - (b) Instituted a comprehensive updated zoning ordinance that will protect the residential areas, but also stimulate commercial growth in designated areas.
 - (c) Fought against the commercialization of Pontoon Rd., Maryville Rd. and Johnson Rd.; also any further commercialization on Nameoki Rd.
2. As Chairman of the Finance Committee the following recommendations from my committee were approved by the City Council.
 - (a) Centralized inventory which allowed us to buy at discount prices, saving approximately 25%.
 - (b) Instituted a self-insured Workmen's Compensation Program, saving over $34,000.
 - (c) New major medical program that immediately saved the city $140,000 plus we get the interest on the money we levy to fund the program.
3. A 6 year comprehensive street improvement program taking whole sections of the 7th Ward, thereby eventually paving ALL our streets.
4. In the past 3 years the ground water problem of Dobrey Slough has not existed.
5. New Industries in our area — Michigan Metals, Ferallay, Glennon Steel, Steelbreds — just to name a few.
6. Held at least 4 ward meetings a year.

IN ADDITION:

7. Fought against a Utility Tax that would have charged us for having to heat our homes in the winter and cool them in the summer.
8. Informed you on your tax assessment and provided you with the needed forms to lower your assessments and to protest your taxes.

Decatur alleges Portell among those asking him to withdraw Involvement of Granite City Superintendent of Streets Lionel Portell and others in attempting to convince mayor candidate Duane Skinner to withdraw from the mayor's race was alleged by the candidate who "named names" during last night's meeting of the Granite City Democratic Club.

Before a crowd of about 150 persons, Decatur said the allegations made in a March 5 Press-Record article about offers made to him and threats that the campaign would be 60 dirty that Decatur's wife would leave him were accurate, but said he was disappointed that the article did not use the names of those involved.

"It puzzled people and I have been accused of not calling a spade a spade," Decatur told the Democrats as he named accountant Duane Skinner, Thomas Brimberry and David and Avery Schermer, alleging that they had been involved in the "offers" made to him. Brimberry and Skinner deny any involvement and say they have proof that Brimberry was not in town on that date.

Both Avery and David Schermer support the story and Avery commented this morning about Brimberry's and Skinner's denial, "David knows Mr. Brimberry and Mr. Skinner. They can deny all they want," he said.

Portell, an avowed supporter of Dan Partney for mayor, has told the Press-Record he did talk to Decatur on several occasions "as a friend," and warned him that "campaigns can get dirty."

Portell said he told Decatur, "When I ran, I was accused of running around with blondes and brunettes and everything, although there was nothing there."

Decatur alleged Portell told him that if he would withdraw from the mayor's race and would run, instead, against City Clerk Robert W. Stevens, there would be no cost to Decatur involved in the campaign and "they would pay me a salary during the campaign equal to my pay at my place of employment."

Portell responded, "I told him we had a group ready to work for him. I don't recall any salary or money, but I'm not sure about that."

In the news conference which led to the March 5 article, Decatur did "name names," but for potential libel reasons, the names were not used in the article. Decatur said he was disappointed.

The names were revealed by the candidate in public during a question and answer session which followed talks by the three mayor candidates last night. Alderman Paul Fisk asked Decatur about the article and if he would name those involved and Decatur then did.

He said he was told by Avery Schermer that Tom Brimberry and accountant Duane Skinner, a member of the Pontoon Beach Village Board, went to Schermer's Market in Madison Jan. 24 and told David Schermer to call his father, Avery, who was vacationing in Hot Springs, Ark., and ask him to call Decatur and give him a message.

The message Decatur received on a long-distance telephone call from Avery Schermer was that the campaign would be "very dirty," that Mrs. Decatur would be unable to take the allegations about Decatur, that Decatur's work record would be brought out (Decatur says he has a good work record) and that it would be brought out that Decatur consistently votes with Mayor Paul Schuler.

Also, Decatur contends,

Schermer told him "there was $10,000 for me if I agreed to run for clerk. I don't know if the money was for a campaign treasury, for me, or what the purpose was."

Decatur also alleges that Avery Schermer told him he would be fired from his job if he ran for mayor, but could remain at work if he would run instead for city clerk. He said he declined the offer.

Skinner told the Press-Record this morning, "Simply stated, it didn't happen." Skinner said Brimberry was vacationing in Scottsdale, Ariz., Jan. 24 with a judge from California and can show adequate proof.

Skinner said no such conversation with David Schermer took place and Skinner also stated he never talked with Warren Decatur. I have never met nor talked with Avery Schermer."

Skinner also stated he has never attempted to arrange a meeting between Decatur and Brimberry. He admitted that he and Dan Partney are friends and he is helping Partney. "As much as I can in my role as a non-resident."

Skinner said he talked to Brimberry by telephone this morning and said that Brimberry denies any involvement in attempts to get Decatur to withdraw.

"He said his only involvement is that he knows Dan Partney and has given $500 to Partney's campaign. He said he is more interested in Tom Nesbit (candidate for supervisor), since Tom Nesbit is a member of his parish, but that is the extent of his political involvement."

Skinner said as official spokesman for Brimberry. After last night's meeting, Partney denied any knowledge of the alleged offers made to Decatur and he would have a response later today.

Nameoki Church Lenten project

The congregation of Nameoki United Presbyterian Church, 1700 Pontoon Road, will participate in its fourth annual "Love Leaf" project in response to global famine, according to the Rev. Don F. Pierson, pastor.

Rev. Pierson said the Lenten season event is combined with the Easter offering for world-wide relief for disaster. The congregation also provided funds for the Granite City Mobile Meals program and operates a "Crisis Food Center" for local emergency cases.

The Love Leaf is a small coin container shaped like a leaf of bread and is distributed to each church family who are to place the container on their dinner table as a reminder of world wide starvation.

The program will conclude the Sunday following Easter when the "loaves" will be returned to the church. A Wednesday evening sacrificial soup supper is focusing on Expanding Horizons and is held each Wednesday during Lent at 6:15 p.m., the minister noted.

Burglar gets coins, pistol

Six coin collections, a pistol and a variety of foreign coins with an estimated value of more than $3,000 were taken in a burglary at the home of Roy Hogan, 4105 Braden Ave., it was reported at 10:30 p.m. Wednesday.

The coins included silver dollar, half-dollar, quarter, dime and nickel sets, a U.S. coin collection, a bag of foreign coins and a Federal Reserve bag of silver coins, which were removed from a filing cabinet in a bedroom. The 7.65mm German Duesche-Werke pistol in a plaid holster was taken from a gun cabinet. The owner noticed the items were missing after seeing a nickel book collection laying on a bed, he said.

As the last day of filing for the (Granite City) city election on April 21 nears, seven different tickets bearing the names of candidates for various offices have been placed in the hands of City Clerk Edwin Rigg. Only one ticket, filed by Orville E. Hodge, is complete although another ticket, the Independent Labor party ticket filed by Mayor M.E. Kirkpatrick, has all but two vacancies filled.

Three tickets have but one candidate each while a fourth has three and a fifth has seven.

The first public presentation of a plan of future growth and development of Granite City will be given Thursday evening by Harry V. Alexander, a partner in the firm of Harland Bartholomew & Associates, city planners, during a general membership meeting of the Tri-Cities Chamber of Commerce to be held at 6:15 p.m. Thursday in the Granite City high school cafeteria.

The firm of Harland Bartholomew & Associates has been hired by the city, school district, park district and housing authority to prepare a comprehensive plan for Granite City, which will be the topic of Alexander's talk. He will highlight his discussion with diagrams and maps depicting the future growth of the city, proposed zoning and present land use.

During a meeting last year with officials of the sponsoring tax agencies, Alexander predicted that if present economic conditions continue, Granite City could grow all the way to Mitchell by 1980.

Just as Granite City has been blessed by good fortune during most of its 75-year history, its diamond jubilee kickoff program Tuesday at Civic Park took place in warm, sunny weather. Several hundred persons gathered to witness the half-hour ceremony, which began at 12:30 p.m.

No one could recall the entire 75 years since Granite City was incorporated as a city on March 9, 1896, but Mrs. Mae Pitchford, 81, told of her 71-year residence here.

Concluding ceremony was the simulated cutting of a "cake" which had been created by Granite City High School art students led by Eugene Alassi, art director.

County, unions to meet

Madison County Board Chairman Nelson Hagmann yesterday asked the county's attorney's office to set up a meeting between the county board's negotiating committee and the unions representing employees of Madison County in an attempt to resolve a jurisdictional matter.

The use of a strike has not been considered as a means of resolving the matter, according to a joint statement issued Sunday by the two unions, Local 799 of the American Federation of State, County and Municipal Employees and Local 525 of the Teamsters.

The unions want to meet with an appropriate committee of the county board.

The county board in a special closed meeting last week decided it wanted to negotiate with only one union. AFSCME and Teamsters two months ago had signed an agreement which they say resolved the question of which union would represent which employees.

"The unions ask only that the Madison County board rationally and calmly examine all of the factors leading up to its present position and consider sitting at the bargaining table through its proper representatives and resolving any differences between the unions and the county in a statesman-like fashion," the unions stated.

While the county states it wants to deal only with one union, it has been dealing with three unions since the 1950's, according to AFSCME and the Teamsters. Fain Dymas, president of Local 799, said she expects to call a meeting in the next few days to inform union members of the status of the dispute. Her union has represented approximately 400 county employees.

While there has supposedly been no talk by the unions of a strike, county officials have been preparing for the possibility of one.

The county board last week stated it would offer an election to determine who county employees wanted as their bargaining agent. The Teamsters in December had won a court ruling ordering the county board to ask for such an election.

Before the county could decide whether to make such a request, the two unions came to an agreement. They stated the agreement would help avoid lengthy delays in determining jurisdiction.

The unions agreed the Teamsters would be bargaining agent for probation, detention and court services employees; park and recreation employees and Manpower and Community Development workers.

The teamsters were already bargaining agent for highway department and animal control workers. AFSCME bargains primarily for employees of elected officials, other courthouse workers and nursing home and sheltered care employees.

Steve Kusmierczak Jr. presented Eagle rank

Steve Kusmierczak Jr., an eighth-grade student at Sacred Heart St. Joseph's School, son of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Kusmierczak Sr., Granite City, has been promoted to Eagle Scout. Father Victor Chateauvert, MSF, pastor of St. Joseph's Church and executive officer of Troop 7, made the presentation.

Along with being senior patrol leader of Troop 7 and a member of the Order of the Arrow, Steve is president of the Altar Boys' Society of St. Joseph's Church and serves as an altar boy at both St. Joseph's and Sacred Heart Churches.

He belonged to Sacred Heart Falcons' basketball team this past season and also enjoys playing soccer in his spare time.

Steve began his journey on the road to Eagle Scout on February 9, 1979 and advanced to the following ranks: Tenderfoot, April 10, 1979; Second Class, July 11, 1979; First Class, September 12, 1979; Star, January 14, 1980; Life, July 14, 1980; and Eagle, January 21, 1981. All requirements for the Eagle Badge were completed within less than two years. The average length of completion is three years.

Since becoming a Scout in February of 1979, Steve has served Troop 7 in three Troop Staff positions: scribe, den chief of Cub Den of Pack 7 and quartermaster. He was also the first member appointed to the Troop's Leadership Corps. He was elected senior patrol leader of Troop 7 by his fellow Scouts in October and re-elected in September of 1980. He is now serving in that position.

In addition to Steve's record of hiking over 500 miles and participating in 46 nights of camping, he has earned all 12 skill awards in Scouting and 21 merit badges.

Merit badges earned are: Citizenship in the community, first aid, citizenship in the nation, citizenship in the world, environmental, science, public service, management, safety, emergency preparedness, swimming, sports, archery, architecture, basketball, camping, fingerprinting, Indian lore, reading, scholarship, wilderness survival and wood carving.

He received the Ad Altare Dei Religious Award in April, 1979, from Bishop McNicholas, pastor of the Cathedral in Springfield.

He was the only Scout from the District and Chokila Mound Council to receive that award in three years.

The Eagle Court of Honor consisted of three parts: celebration of the mass, the program and the Eagle Presentation.

Mass was celebrated at 3:30 p.m., Friday, March 6, at St. Joseph's Church. Fr. Victor Chateauvert, MSF, was mass celebrant.

Scouts Mike Mainridge of Cobra Patrol, Tony Jordan of Flaming Arrow Patrol and Frank Scaturro of Panther Patrol, were awarded.

Steve Kusmierczak Jr., Eagle Scout candidate and Joe Kismieczak, Steve's brother, were gifts bearers. Kevin Williamson of Flaming Arrow Patrol served as lector.

Leadership Corps Member, Reuben Garcia, read the mass introduction, "I Am an American Boy Scout, I Am a Catholic." Assistant Senior Patrol Leader-Leadership Corps, Richard Schierling, read the Scout Law at the Scout Law Candle ceremony as senior patrol leader, Kusmierczak lighted the 12th candle. After Communion, Steve read "The Catholic Scout Creed."

After mass, the Eagle Court of Honor continued in the church basement with the second part of the Court, "The Program."

Program highlights consisted of Father Joe Lawless, MSF, presenting the Par P.D. Catholic Religious Award to Joe Kusmierczak, brother of Eagle Candidate. The Par P.D. is the highest Catholic Religious Award a Scout can earn in Cub Scouting.

Assistant senior patrol leader, Phil Kimbrel, spoke on "An Ending-A Beginning," accepting, "Joe Kusmierczak into Troop 7; thus, signifying the completion of Steve's journey to Eagle and the beginning of Joe's journey."

Other Scout speakers included: Junior Assistant Scoutmaster, Mark Mainridge, "The Scout

STEVE KUSMIERCZAK JR.

Oath—"A Meaning," in which he read the forty words of the Scout Oath and the personal meaning they held for him, Jimmy Stewart, Jeff Kittle, Cobra Patrol Leader, "The Scout Law—A Meaning," in which he expressed the 12 points of the Scout Law in 12 single words—trustworthy, loyal, helpful, friendly, courteous, kind, obedient, cheerful, thrifty, brave, clean, reverent—and explained the personal meaning they held for the late actor, John Wayne, Scout Jim Whitsell, "Steve Kusmierczak Jr., Boy Scout," in which he recalled Steve's journey on the road to Eagle Scout, presenting highlights of that two-year journey.

Special speakers at the Eagle Court of Honor were: William Monical, scout executive of Chokila Mound Council, BSA; Dr. John Vasiloff, scouting coordinator of Troop 7 and LeRoy Stark, Uniway's District training officer and head of the Scouts of Troop 7.

The third part of the court continued with the "Eagle Presentation." Fr. Victor Chateauvert, MSF, called the candidate and his parents forth for the presentation. He then made the "Eagle Charge," explaining the added responsibilities a Scout receives when he earns his Eagle Badge; namely, the responsibility of good, personal self-conduct and the responsibility to train and guide younger Scouts for the Eagle Badge. Father Victor then gave the Eagle Badge to Steve's mother, Mrs. Ann Kusmierczak, to pin on her son's uniform.

In turn, Steve pinned an Eagle miniature on his mother. Father then gave the Eagle Certificate to Steve's father, Steve Kusmierczak Sr., to present to his son. In turn, Steve presented his father an Eagle Scout tie-tac. Brother Robert Manzor, MSF, Scoutmaster of Troop 7, pinned an Eagle Medal on Steve's uniform as a memento of the Eagle Award.

After the presentation, Fr. Victor read to Steve the chief scout executive's letter. William Monical, Scoutmaster of Troop 7, addressed to Steve, Clyde Mertz of the Granite City Elks, Lodge 1063, presented Steve with an American Flag, for the demonstration he has shown of his daily practice of the teachings of democracy.

Lynetta Heggs, chairman of the Eagle Court of Honor, declared the court officially closed. Refreshments were then served.

Scout in charge of the Eagle Court of Honor, was Assistant Scoutmaster Mark Mainridge.

Partney pledges to continue ambulances

A sign posted by an obvious supporter of Paul Schuler for mayor on the window of the Hill & Run Quick Shop on Maryville Road has incurred the ire of mayor candidate Dan Partney.

The hand-printed sign asks, "Has GC ambulance ever helped you?" It would like to see their (sic) continued, help vote for Schuler. Partney wants to see that private services take over there (sic) excellent work. It's your LIFE choice."

Partney called the sign, "ridiculous. It's trying to tell people this is a life choice; if you vote for Schuler, ambulance service will remain."

Partney said he also supports continuing the service. "Granite City has to maintain an ambulance service for the people," he said, but warned, "if it continues in its present financial condition, it will be totally bankrupt."

"I would like to see out-of-the-city calls charge in like we do here," he said. "We are losing about $50 for every call we make to Madison, Venice, Pontoon Beach and other places," the candidate contended.

He said firemen say that the city's four ambulances are almost worn out and will have to be replaced with better equipment. He also contended that some EMTs (Emergency Medical Technicians) have allowed their certification to expire and will have to retrain as EMTs, yet they continue working.

He contends staffing the ambulance service has been used as a political ploy, including the hiring of non-city residents, young men just beginning EMT training and sons of friends of the present administration. Many stay only a short time and then get higher-paid city jobs, he contended.

Partney said that if he were elected, he would "come up with a total paramedic program—all paramedics. People over there today will not be fired, like they are being told they will if Dan Partney is elected mayor. Granite is left without fire protection. That should not happen," he concluded.

He added, "I am looking at a number of different programs to best provide the maximum and best service for the residents of Granite City. I also would like to reduce the absentee rate and see that West Granite does not have to suffer. Many times, if the ambulance there goes out, two firemen are manning it and West Granite is left without fire protection. That should not happen," he concluded.

Pontoon parking ban

Applications for low interest home loans, available through Madison County Community Development, will be taken through March 31, it was announced at a meeting of the Board of Trustees of the Village of Pontoon Beach, held Tuesday night.

In other business the board of trustees approved Ordinance 304 that prohibits parking along Highway 111 within the corporate limits of the Village as of March 10, 1981.

The trustees also approved an application for Fred Reecer to place a mobile home at 4125 South Drive to be used as a residence by Todd Reecer, following the Zoning Board's review and approval.

A maintenance agreement from Comfort Air Conditioning and Heating to provide service for the furnace and air conditioning system at the village hall in the amount of $149 a year was also approved by the trustees.

President Paul Bennett explained the agreement to for parts only and does not include labor, but will provide a check of 15 points at the end of the heating season and air conditioning season.

Trustee Don Rea requested a meeting be arranged for 9 a.m. Saturday, March 14, in the Village Hall with an insurance agent and other members of the board to clarify a medical insurance policy for the village employees.

Mary E. Warren, village clerk, reported the deadline for police car bids is 4 p.m. on March 24, and none have been received as Tuesday's meeting.

Board of Appeals endorses garage

At a special meeting of the Madison County Board of Appeals yesterday, the four members present voted to endorse a request by Charles F. Kennerly, 2508 Madison Ave., to construct a 15 by 30-foot garage three feet from his side property line.

There were no objections at the meeting and a letter was presented from the adjacent neighbor agreeing to the construction. The endorsement will be presented to the Granite City Council at its March 17 meeting for approval.

Williamson, James Barron, Byron Dilko, Greg Haggard, Joe Kusmierczak, Charlie Alexander, Steve Fale, Raymond Guenther, Karl Markovits, Frank Scaturro, Mike Brazel and Norman Fulkerson.

Concert at North Monday

"The Steel City Six" Dixieland combo will be featured in the North High School Concert Band's third concert of the current season, scheduled at 8 p.m. Monday, March 16, in the cafeteria at Granite City High School North.

For the event, the student musicians will be attired in their tuxedo-style concert band uniforms, according to Robert D. Todoroff, band director.

The Dixieland combo will perform the "Original Dixieland Concerto" by John Warrington in the feature presentation.

Members of "The Steel City Six" are: Lauren Jarrard, clarinet; Kevin Knipping, trumpet; Reginald Rodgers, tenor saxophone; David Fulkens, trombone; Allen Jorgensen, bass; and Suzanne Norris, drums.

The remainder of the hour long concert will include: "Allister Brilliante" Concert March by George Kinney; "Oleello" by Alfred Reed; a symphonic portrait in five scenes after Shakespeare.

"Star Spangled Spectacular," based upon the music of George M. Cohen; "Prerogatives of Band," a rhythmic medley in composition by Leland Forblad.

"The Lancers" by Kenneth Henderson, which depicts a medieval knight; "The Mischief Makers," a fun piece by Nelson Riddle; "Fiesta" by Harry Hufnagle.

"Broadway Show Stoppers" arranged by Bob Lowden; and the widely known "Stars and Stripes Forever" March by John Philip Sousa.

Admission to the concert series is by season ticket, or single admission tickets available at the door, costing 50 cents for students and $1 for adults.

Arrangements for the concert series are under the auspices of the North Band Parents Association, headed by Donald Wilson, president.

To place on the Greenville College scholastic honor roll, juniors and seniors are required a grade point average of 3.50 out of a possible 4.00. A 3.25 average is necessary for freshman and sophomore honors.

The 69-year-old institution is located in Greenville, Ill.

4 compete for Sixth Ward seat

WOODROW MOAD

A candidate for alderman in the Sixth Ward of Granite City is Woodrow W. Moad, 39, of 3012 Forest St. He is one of four candidates vying for the seat from which Alderman Earl Baker is retiring.

A Quad-City area, all of his life, Moad is employed as a traffic manager for Cherreco Distributors and is a member of Carpenter's Local 633.

Moad graduated from Venice High School and he attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and the University of Maryland.

He is a member of Moose Lodge 272, the Wilson School PTA and is a veteran of the U.S. Air Force.

Moad is serving his second term as Democratic committee member in Precinct 36.

Moad is seeking public office "to work to establish a committee to bring new businesses to our city, to work for better police protection through increased visibility, and to stop commercial zoning in our residential areas."

He is married and has a son and a daughter.

STEPHEN SALTICH

Stephen C. Saltich, currently president of the Granite City School Board, is a candidate for alderman of the Sixth Ward in Granite City in the April 7 election.

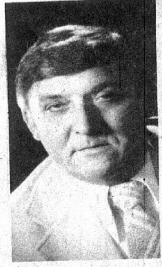

Saltich, a lifetime resident of the Quad-City area, is a graduate of Granite City High School. He is employed at American Steel Foundries as a patternmaker, and is a member of St. Margaret-Mary Catholic Church and the Knights of Columbus.

Saltich previously served for two years as treasurer of the Granite City School Board. He has agreed to resign from the board of education, if he is elected an alderman.

He and his wife and two daughters live at 2820 Wayne Ave.

"It is my desire to continue my public service by serving as alderman of the Sixth Ward. I would like to work for our neighborhoods and the people who live there," said Saltich.

"Our city government needs fresh ideas to keep our community strong and vibrant. I intend to stay active in government and serve as Sixth Ward spokesman at City Council meetings," he added.

WALTER MILTON

Another candidate for Sixth Ward Alderman in Granite City is Walter C. Milton, 47.

Milton, vice-president of marketing for Pepsi-Cola Alton Bottling Co., was born in Stewart County, Tenn., and attended schools there. He has resided in Granite City for 18 years.

Milton graduated from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in the industrial management program and he earned a degree in marketing from the Pepsi-Cola Management Institute.

Milton is a past president of the Granite City Rotary Club and is a member of the Granite City Jaycees and the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

He was appointed by the governor to serve on the Illinois Recreation Council and is a committee member in Granite City Precinct 32.

Milton and his wife, Peggy, live at 3214 Wabash Ave. They have three daughters and two sons.

"I believe I can offer a trained managerial mind and a wealth of business and civic experience to make decisions which will affect the welfare of the Sixth Ward and the city as a whole," said Milton.

"I will obtain the best possible return on citizens' tax dollars in terms of service, education and commercial industrial development with the highest degree of efficiency and fairness," he concluded.

BILL SMITHSON

Leslie "Bill" Smithson, 46, is a candidate in a four-way race for Sixth Ward alderman in Granite City.

He was born in Flagstaff, Ariz., and attended schools in New Mexico. Smithson also attended St. Louis University.

He is employed at Thompson Hayward Chemical Co. in St. Louis, and is a member of St. Margaret-Mary Catholic Church, where he teaches fifth grade religion classes.

Smithson is a member of the Wilson School PTA and is affiliated with Teamsters Local 618. In the past, he has been active in the lead poison testing programs conducted in Granite City.

Smithson says, "I believe that my past activities make me qualified as a candidate and show my sincerity in acting for the best interests of the community. I feel I can be representative of the feelings and concerns of all the residents in the Sixth Ward," he continued.

He resides with his wife and daughter at 8 Charlestown Circle.

H&R BLOCK TAX TEST

Question No. 5

You should always file the same tax form the IRS sends you in the mail.

☐ True ☐ False

Your financial circumstances change from year to year. The form you used last year might not be the right form this year. H&R Block can help you determine which is the best form to use. The answer is FALSE, since the IRS can't know of the relevant changes which might have occurred in your situation last year.

CREWS LIQUOR IT'S STILL QUICKER!

Isaiah 48:18 ... "O that thou hadst hearkened to my commandments! then had thy peace been as a river ..."

Once we have experienced the peace of God we are never the same again. Trying to explain it is next to impossible. It's knowing God loves you, that He cares and understands you. It is contentment in your inmost being. It is peace, that passes understanding.

One thing is certain we know when we have it and we know when we don't. No, our circumstances may not change, the storms of life will rage against us, but the peace of God can still be there.

It is in our power to increase that peace. Just by living in obedience to God's commandments. That's right! When we hear from God and His word, our peace becomes a river within us. Obedience is better than sacrifice.

Listen to God. Obey God. And He will give you peace. Today.

4 bid for First Ward alderman

CHARLES DOUGLAS

Charles Raymond Douglas, 30, is seeking re-election as First Ward alderman in Granite City. He has held that position since 1977.

Douglas graduated from Granite City High School and received a bachelor of science in mechanical engineering from the University of Illinois. He also holds a degree in law from St. Louis University.

He is employed as an attorney in Granite City and is a member of the Church of Christ. He is also a member of Masonic Lodge 835, Scottish Rite, Shriners and the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

Douglas, his wife and son live at 2252 Lee Ave.

Douglas said "I am seeking re-election to the First Ward due to my previous personal commitment to be a public servant and because I feel it is my duty as an attorney to serve my government and its people." He hopes to work for a larger return of tax dollars to repair sidewalks and streets, provide better drainage and construct facilities for area youth.

Cub Scouts tour local hospital

Den Three of Pack 24, of Johnson School, toured St. Elizabeth's Medical Center in Granite City.

The Cub Scouts were shown many points of interest in the hospital, including the laundry facilities, physical therapy area, the x-ray department and the laboratory.

Of special interest was the emergency room where the EKG equipment was demonstrated on Timmy Grubbs in the Trauma Room.

The tour concluded in the Weisman Room where the scouts were given snacks and shown slides on being hospitalized.

Transportation was provided by Michael Glendinning.

AT FORT BENNING

Pfc. David W. Cooper Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. David W. Cooper Sr. of Rural Route Two, Granite City, has arrived for duty at Fort Benning, Ga. Cooper, a military police specialist, was previously assigned at Fort McClellan, Ala.

LEROY MANGIARACINO

Leroy J. Mangiaracino, 59, is one of four candidates for alderman of the First Ward in Granite City. He has been resident of the ward since 1970, living at 2345 Lee Ave.

Mangiaracino is employed as a switchman at Luria Brothers, Inc. He attended schools in Venice and is of the Catholic faith. He previously served as precinct committeeman for 14 years.

Mangiaracino and his wife have five children.

According to Mangiaracino, "Ward One is the oldest and in need of more attention towards crime, street repair, alderman maintenance, updated sewers and lighting and it requires someone who recognizes these needs."

Pack blue and gold banquet

Cub Scout Pack 24 of Johnson School, held its annual blue and gold banquet with each family providing a dish for dinner.

Special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Ron Luebben.

The opening was presented by Den 8.

Following the opening, dinner was served and awards were presented.

Boys receiving awards from Den 8 were Steve Burris, a Bobcat badge and Timmy Grubbs, a Wolf badge, one gold arrow and two silver arrows.

Boys from Den 3 were Aron Goble, a Wolf badge, one gold arrow and four instant recognition beads; Glenn Kelley, a Wolf badge and four beads; Danny Glendinning, a recruiter's patch, a Wolf badge, one gold arrow and three silver arrows; Michael Ahlers, a Wolf badge and four beads; Brook Marion, a Wolf badge, one gold arrow and three silver arrows; Kevin Teller, two Bear beads; Todd Utz a Wolf badge and four beads and Danny White, a Bobcat badge, a Wolf badge, four beads and one gold arrow.

A special gift was presented to Mrs. Tawny Glendinning, Den 3 leader by the boys in her den.

A movie from the scout office about cub scouting was shown for entertainment.

OIL EXPORTS

Iran's new revolutionary government announced on Feb. 27, 1979, that it would resume oil exports on Mar. 5.

WILLIAM DALLAS SR.

William "Bill" Dallas Sr., 63, of 2001 E. 20th St., a former Granite City First Ward alderman and a lifelong city resident, is seeking election as alderman of that ward in a four-way race.

Dallas is employed as a chairman in the shipping department of Granite City Steel. He was educated in the local schools and attended Granite City High School.

He is a member of St. Joseph's Church and the Knights of Columbus. He also holds memberships in the American Legion, Veterans of Foreign Wars and in the 27th Division Organization of World War II.

He served as Ward One alderman from 1963 to 1971.

He is married and is the father of three boys.

Dallas said he would try to establish a committee of aldermen and citizens to study ways to attract business and industry to Granite City; would enforce greater efficiency and management to save money; and would work with senior citizens on health, safety, transportation, recreation and security needs.

DAVID L. SCHRIEBER JOINS AIR FORCE

David Lynn Schriever, son of Mr. and Mrs. Max Schriever, of 2109 Missouri Ave., has enlisted in the U.S. Air Force according to Sgt. Clark Jarrett, Air Force representative at 3675 Nameoki Rd., here.

Upon graduation from the Air Force's six weeks basic military training, he will receive training in the Tactical Aircraft Maintenance Specialist. He is a 1980 graduate of Granite City High School South.

CASMER SKUBISH

Casmer Skubish, 68, a Sixth Ward Granite City alderman from 1953 to 1965, is a candidate for alderman of the First Ward in Granite City in the April 7 election.

Born in Neodasha, Kan., Skubish has resided in the Quad-City area most of his life. He attended local schools and has studied accounting and air pollution control.

Now retired, Skubish formerly worked for Granite City Steel, the Illinois Department of Revenue and the Air Pollution Department of the city of Granite City.

He has held memberships in local and national fraternal organizations and he is a member of Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Skubish feels he will be able to devote full time to the duties of an alderman and he says he will be free to represent all people of the first ward because he is retired.

Skubish and his wife have three children. They live at 2701 Lincoln Ave.

Cement masons take applications

The Cement Masons Local 90 and the Southern Illinois Builders Association Joint Apprenticeship Committee has announced that applications will be accepted between April 1 and April 15, for cement mason apprentices.

This is a three-year program. Any person meeting the qualifications may make application with the Cement Masons Local 90 Joint Apprenticeship Committee at 7623 West Main Street, Belleville, Monday through Friday, between the hours of 9 a.m. and 2 p.m.

Offer course in treatment

A second course for wastewater treatment operators who need to know the basics of process control and troubleshooting for activated sludge and fixed media systems will begin March 16 at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The three-day session, "Secondary Treatment II," offers lab exercises, field trips, and classroom problem solving in monitoring and controlling contact stabilization, conventional complete mix and step-feed activated sludge systems.

Ken D. Reid, program director of operations, said students will also study normal operation and process control of trickling filters and RBC units.

The workshop will meet daily from 9 a.m. until 5 p.m. for 2.1 continuing education units of credit or 4.2 points under the Illinois Environmental Protection Association credit system. Tuition is $60.

For additional information or to complete the required preregistration, interested persons may contact ERTIC, Campus Box 75, SIUE, Edwardsville, Ill. 62206, or call 1-692-2030.

Dinner theater in final show

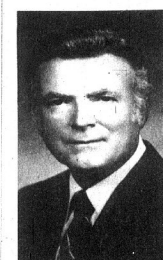

The Shrine Dinner Theater, located at the National Shrine of Our Lady of the Snows, is now taking reservations for the last show of their 1981 season. Beginning March 13 will be "The Roar of the Greaseland." The Smell of the Crowd," a hit Broadway musical written by Anthony Newley and Leslie Bricusse.

Performances will run Friday, Saturday and Sunday night, March 13 through April 5. Many popular songs were written for this Laurel and Hardy-type musical-comedy, including "Who Can I Turn To" and "The Joker."

Shows on Friday and Saturday begin with a 6:30 p.m. hospitality time, 7 p.m. buffet dinner and 8 p.m. performance. Sunday's shows one hour earlier, 5:30 p.m. hospitality, 6 p.m. dinner and 7 p.m. performance. Tickets are $11.50 Friday and Sunday nights, $12.50 Saturday night. Discounts for groups of 10 or more are also available.

For reservations and a complete schedule of future shows, call the Shrine Dinner Theater, 397-6700, or from St. Louis, 241-3400.

VON DEE CRUSE

Von Dee Cruse is running for re-election as Granite City Township assessor in the April 7 balloting.

Cruse, a lifelong resident of Granite City, studied at Washington University, Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville and Illinois State University. He is a certified Illinois Assessing Officer and a licensed real estate salesman.

Cruse served in Italy during World War II and was honored with the Bronze Star for heroic achievement in action.

He is a member of the Madison County Assessors' Association, the International Association of Assessing Officers, VFW, American Legion, the Elks Club, Eagles, Masonic Lodge 835, Ainal Temple Shrine and Scottish Rite Bodies.

"In asking your support in my bid for re-election as assessor of Granite City Township, I pledge that I will continue to serve the people in a fair and impartial manner, always bearing uppermost in my mind that first and foremost the tax burden must be distributed equally," said Cruse.

He and his wife reside at 2328 Edwards St., and they have two children.

SHIRLEY VOEGELE

Shirley Voegelé, 47, is a candidate for Granite City Township Assessor.

Mrs. Voegelé was born in St. Louis and has lived in the Quad-Cities for 25 years. She attended schools in Venice and Madison and is a certified Illinois Assessing Officer.

She formerly worked as chief administrator in the Granite City Township Assessor's office.

In seeking election, Mrs. Voegelé hopes to complete reappraisals annually for Granite City Township.

She and her husband reside at 3188 Aubrey Ave. They have five children.

Grow your own transplants

Area Garden Adviser
Gardeners must decide whether to raise or buy vegetable transplants. The advantages of growing your own plants are that they are often less expensive, they are available when you need them, and you can grow varieties you want without accepting substitutes.

Success in starting vegetable plants at home depends on viable seeds, a sterile plant-growing medium, proper germinating and growing temperatures, adequate light, proper spacing, and necessary watering and fertilizing.

Seeds packaged and sold for 1981 planting should be viable. Seeds left over from last year may grow, but a germination test should be made ahead of sowing. Don't gamble on seeds that are three years old or older.

Sterile plant-growing medium can be peat cubes, germinating mixes, potting soil, or a pasteurized soil mix. The first three can be purchased; the latter can be a mixture of one-third garden soil, one-third peat or compost, and one-third vermiculite, perlite, or sand.

Mix these three ingredients thoroughly, place in a shallow (3-4 inches) dish or pan, cover with aluminum foil, and heat in a 250 degree F. oven until the internal soil temperature is 180 degrees F. Then lower the oven temperature to 160 degrees F. for an additional 30 minutes of heating. When cooled, this mix is ready for use.

Seeds can be sown directly into growing containers, but this requires more space. Sow two or three seeds per container and thin to one seedling after emergence.

For seedlings that will be transplanted, sow seeds shallowly in rows two inches apart. Cover with vermiculite and transplant to other containers soon after emergence.

Moisture control during the germinating period can be maintained by covering the containers with glass or plastic. Be prepared to remove the cover as soon as seedlings emerge.

Temperature control is important for both germination and growing periods. Cool weather crops such as cold crops and onions need germinating temperatures of 70 degrees - 80 degrees F. and growing temperatures of 60 - 70 degrees F. Warm-season crops such as tomatoes, melons, etc. require germinating temperatures of 70 - 85 degrees F. and growing temperatures about 10 degrees F. cooler. These are soil temperatures, and may be different from air temperatures. Heat mats or heat cables provide constant heat for good germination. Better results may result from maintaining temperatures about 10 degrees F. cooler at night than during the day.

Vegetable plants need direct light. At this time of the year, there aren't enough hours of sunlight to grow good plants. All plants, except onions, can use 12 to 16 hours of light a day; onions should not exceed 12 hours. Supplementary light can be added by using a combination of fluorescent and incandescent bulbs. This light source should be close (6 - 12 inches) to the growing plants.

In addition to all of the above practices, it's best to avoid overcrowding of the plants. This will foster stocky rather than spindly plants. And watering and fertilizing should be on a regular basis and in proper amount for good growth.

Tall spindly seedlings result from high temperatures after emergence, too little light, too short of light periods, excess moisture, or combinations of these.

The decision of when to start these plants should be based on the crop, the time to grow a good transplant, and the proper planting season. It takes 3 - 4 weeks to grow transplants of cucumbers and muskmelons; 4 - 6 weeks for herbs, tomatoes, and watermelons; 5 - 7 weeks for broccoli, cabbage, cauliflower, and lettuce; and 6 - 8 weeks for eggplant and peppers. Using these specifications and the proper time for planting, you can determine the best time to start.

Seminar on word processing

A seminar on word processing has been scheduled March 17-19 by the Center for Management Studies at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. James F. Miller Jr., Center director, said the course offers several instructional techniques that permit participants to use actual word processing installations. The seminar is designed for secretaries, managers, administrative assistants, supervisors and anyone who wants an introduction to word processing.

The program will be led by Robert A. Schultheis, professor of business education and administrative services at SIUE. He has written several articles and co-authored 10 books on office work and management.

The session will meet from 9 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. each day in Classroom Building III, Room 3335 at SIUE. The tax deductible fee, including luncheon and meeting materials, is $225, payable to SIUE. To obtain additional information, interested persons may contact Barbara Woods at 618-692-2668.

Marshall-McGinnis

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Marshall

The wedding of Miss Constance Marie McGinnis and Robert William Marshall was solemnized on Feb. 28 at the Kingdom Hall of Jehovah's Witnesses in Taylorville, Ill.

Officiating at the double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon was Jan Fouke. The church pianist played Kingdom Melody of Jehovah's Witnesses prior to the service.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Donald O. McGinnis, 512 Columbus Drive, Decatur, Ill. Parents of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Chester A. Marshall, reside at 496 Highway 162, Granite City.

For her wedding, the former Miss McGinnis designed her bridal gown fashioned of ivory satin in an old fashioned style.

The fitted bodice featured a high satin collar sheer yoke and long sheer sleeves cuffed with a satin band, accented with lace trim.

A tiny row of lace encircled the full skirt and trimmed her melody length veil of bridal illusion. She carried an arrangement of pink roses and baby's breath tied with lace streamers.

Brenda Miller and Bradley Kelm served as the flower girl and ringbearer.

Matron of honor Sandra Reed and bridesmaids, Stacey Steffen, Kelly Hite, a sister of the bride, Judy Portag and Ruth Reed wore pink gowns designed with ruffled collars, trimmed with a burgundy bow and A-line skirts.

Each attendant held a white Bible with markers embroidered with their names.

The groom chose Lee N. Machuga as best man. Bill, Chris, Steve Wander, Jack Miller, Matthew McGinnis, a brother of the bride, Steve Miller, Troy Meak and Rick Shilley completed the corps of groomsmen and ushers.

Guests were received at a reception held in the Owanecco Hall in Owanecco, Ill., immediately following the ceremony.

The bride is a graduate of Stephen Decatur High School and works at the Kroger Store there. Her husband attended North High School and is self employed with Marshall Cleaning Systems of Decatur.

They are residing in Decatur following a wedding trip to St. Louis.

Mrs. Delaloye club hostess

Mrs. Leona Delaloye entertained the Bunko-Ettes Club, last week, in her home. Those winning prizes in the evening games were Mesdames Ruth Partney, Julia Portell, Angie Buehler, Rose Druhe and the hostess. The hostess served a dessert course to those named and to Mesdames Helen Lipchik, May Ebling, Florida Batson and Wanda Pulise.

Mr. and Mrs. Wes Pourchot

Pourchot-Ferguson

Miss Sandra Jean Ferguson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Ferguson of Granite City, and Wes Pourchot, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Pourchot of Greenville, exchanged wedding vows on Feb. 14 at the First United Presbyterian Church, Greenville.

The Rev. Vais performed a double ring ceremony at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. Nuptial selections were played by organist, Linda Plant.

Given in marriage by her parents, the bride chose a full length white silk organza gown accented with a lace and pearl trim at the round neckline and on the empire bodice. The decorative trim was repeated on the long full sleeves and created the cuffs.

A full sweep train fell from the waistline and was edged with a matching floral lace. Wide lace bordered the mantilla veil of bridal illusion and she carried a silk cascade bouquet of white and pink roses with trailing pink streamers.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Jeannie Ferguson, a sister-in-law of the bride. Bridesmaids included Mrs. Wanda Pourchot and Sarah Pourchot, a niece of the groom.

Susan Anthony, another niece of the groom, was the flower girl.

They were dressed in floor length burgundy gowns enhanced with pink lace and velvet ribbon. Each attendant wore baby's breath in their hair and carried a spray of burgundy tiger lilies tied with pink ribbons.

The flower girl held a white basket filled with silk pink and white roses.

Tom Zbinden served as best man. Joe Pourchot, a brother of the groom, and Joe Pourchot, the groom's son, were groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Don Ferguson, and Rex Pourchot, brothers of the bride and groom. Another son of the groom, Jeff Pourchot, was the ringbearer.

Joellen Owen, the groom's niece, attended the guest book at a reception held in the church fellowship hall.

The bride is a 1970 graduate of Granite City High School and is presently employed at Stolar, Heitzmann, Eder, Seigel and Harris of St. Louis.

A 1970 graduate of Greenville High School, the groom also graduated from Kaskaskia Junior College. He currently works as a sales representative for Moorman Manufacturing Co., and is also engaged in farming.

A rehearsal dinner hosted by the groom's father was given at Nickerson Farms in Pochontas, Ill.

Pinochle club seeks members

The Granite City Senior Citizen Pinochle Club, that meets at the Nameoki Recreation Center, 2165 Amos Ave., has an opening for 20 new members, according to Lester Thiele, president.

To join those interested must live in the Granite City Park District and submit their name and address to the membership committee for approval, the president added. For membership application call 876-4308. After approval is given, the club secretary will notify the new member. The club meets every Friday from 12:30 to 3:30 p.m., Thiele said.

ON DEAN'S LIST

Lisa A. Tripp, Granite City, has been named to the Dean's List for the 1980 fall semester at Ozark Bible Institute, Neosho, Mo. To be placed on the Dean's List, a student must be a full-time student and earn an "A" average on 12 semester hours or more.

BPW to elect March 18

The Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its annual election of officers and board of directors at a business meeting, scheduled at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday, March 18, at the Tri-Cities Area YMCA.

The meeting will be preceded with a tour of the recently renovated facilities at the YMCA, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Raele Stern, BPW president, said all members are being encouraged to attend the election meeting and noted that reservations are not required since dinner will not be served.

The business agenda also includes the election of a trustee to the Scholarship Committee and the selection of delegates to the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's state convention, set for April 23 through April 26, at the Marriott-O'Hare Hotel in Chicago.

At the convention, Annelen P. Smith of the Granite City BPW Club will be installed as state president-elect, Mrs. Stern said.

Commenting on the "long history of cooperation between the business women's groups of the YMCA," Mrs. Stern said a cash donation to assist the "Y" in the renovation program recently was presented by the club.

The BPW Community Relations Committee, under the direction of Emylee Alford, was in charge of the presentation.

Coffee and dessert will be served at Wednesday's election meeting.

Michael Blattner and Theresa McFalls

Blattner-McFalls

The engagement of Miss Theresa Kathryn McFalls and Michael Lee Blattner is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mrs. Kathleen Spizman of Granite City, and Raymond O. McFalls of Fairmont City. Parents of the prospective groom are Mrs. Freida Huether, Granite City, and Joseph J. Blattner of Dow, Ill.

Miss McFalls attended schools in Palm Springs, Calif., and graduated in 1980 from Granite City High School. She also was a gymnastics instructor at the YMCA before graduating from high school.

Her fiancé was graduated from Granite City High School and attended Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The betrothed couple are completing plans for a May 23 wedding to be solemnized at St. John Lutheran Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Calbreath

Calbreath-Bald

Miss Terri Lea Bald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bald, 1728 Pontoon Road, became the bride of Gordon Calbreath, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Calbreath, 15 Park Drive, Collinsville, on Jan. 3, at the First United Pentecostal Church.

The Rev. Kenneth V. Reeves performed the ceremony at 5:30 in the evening. Billy Hubbard played the piano and sang, "Colour My World," and Angel Reeves sang, "Protect Us As We Go."

Given in marriage by her father, the former Miss Bald wore a full length white gown of satin and chiffon appliqued with lace motifs.

Long sleeves were set into the molded bodice featuring a V-neckline traced with a lace ruffle. The semi full skirt extended into a cathedral train and she carried a bouquet of silk blue and white roses.

Her fingertip veil of bridal illusion was created with three tiers, bordered with lace.

Miss Paula Bald and Miss Dawn Bald, sisters of the bride, served as honor attendant and bridesmaid with Melanie Lowrey, a cousin of the bride, and Gina Talbert, the groom's sister.

They selected floor length gowns of French blue satin fashioned with empire waistlines, trimmed with dark blue sashes and softly flowing skirts.

Each attendant held an arrangement of silk blue and white flowers.

Brad Marcum attended the groom as best man. Steve Williams, Jim Heil and Harold Ferguson were groomsmen.

Seating the guests were Tom Calbreath and Ron Talbert, a brother and brother-in-law of the groom, respectively.

A reception was held in the Granite City Township Hall immediately following the service and the rehearsal dinner was served in the church hall.

The bride is employed at Walgreen's Drug Store and the groom works at Kraft Co. in St. Louis. They are residing in Granite City following a wedding trip to Indianapolis, Ind.

Robin Shearlock and Keith Branch

Branch-Shearlock

Announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Robin Jill Shearlock and Keith Branch by the bride-to-be's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David A. Shearlock, 2541 Cleveland Blvd.

The groom-elect is the son of Arthur A. Branch, 2300 W. 23rd St., and the late Mildred (Seebold) Branch.

Miss Shearlock graduated from South High School in 1978 and attends Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. She also is employed at the First Granite City National Bank as a teller.

Her fiancé was graduated in 1975 from South High School and works as a machinist at McDonnell-Douglas Corp., in Florissant, Mo.

The wedding ceremony will take place on April 4 at Sacred Heart Catholic Church.

Serving as judges for the talent division were Miss Twila Edmonds, president of the sponsoring chapter, Mrs. Helen Gieselmann, Madison FSA committee chairman, and Mrs. Charlie Lunovic.

The next event for the two local FSA chapters is scheduled for Wednesday, April 8, when they join with members of Madison FSA Chapter and spend a day in the offices of the First National Bank in St. Louis.

St. Louis Union Trust Co., and the First Union Bank-corporation. They will be accompanied by FSA committee chairman from the Tri-Cities Chapter of Professional Secretaries International, Mrs. Charlie Lunovic.

The final event of the year is the FSA Awards Banquet set for Thursday, May 7, when the winners of the FSA and Miss FSA Awards are announced.

Beta Sigma City Council meets

The Granite City City Council of Beta Sigma Phi Sorority met in the home of Mrs. Carol Moerlein, 2209 Washington Ave., last week, to discuss the forthcoming Founder's Day event.

Arrangements were made to hold the banquet on April 29 at Charlie's Restaurant. Cocktails will be served at 6:30 p.m. with dinner to follow at 7 o'clock, it was noted.

The hostess announced that scrapbooks will be judged by an Alton chapter and should be turned in to Judy Bartel or delivered to her at the Alton area meeting on April 5.

Tentative plans were made for an all chapter rush party in September. All members and new city council alternates are to attend the April 6 meeting in the home of Betty Beck, 3253 Wayne Ave., it was announced.

Alvin Brandes mark 35th year

Mr. and Mrs. Alvin J. Brandes, 2212 Edison Ave., were honored at a dinner party in observance of their 35th wedding anniversary Sunday. The event was hosted by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Brandes.

Becker, Mr. and Mrs. Jim Goodrich, Mike Hopke, Mr. and Mrs. Leo Kalips, Mr. and Mrs. John Markarian, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Meyer, Mrs. Virginia Parmley, Mr. and Mrs. Rich Smallwood and Mrs. Emma Steinberg.

Out of town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Bob Davis of Creve Coeur, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. George Moehner of Edwardsville.

U.N. FORCE The first United Nations Interim Force troops arrived in Lebanon on March 22, 1978.

They are the parents of one son, Edward Brandes and also have two grandchildren, Steve and John Brandes.

The decorated tier wedding cake was created by their daughter-in-law, Karen Brandes to complement the pastel blue and white decorations.

Mrs. Hershel Bailey greeted each woman guest and presented her with a rose, and she also attended the guest book.

Guests attending included Mr. and Mrs. Hershel Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Fred

Federal retirees luncheon meeting

The National Association of Retired Federal Employees, Chapter 1067, met for a luncheon meeting at Charlie's Restaurant, Monday with 67 present including guests Vivian Cherry and Glen Phillips, and new member Norb Sudolt.

Shamrocks were given to all members upon their arrival and decorations were in keeping with the St. Patrick's Day theme.

After the invocation, pledge of allegiance and luncheon, President Larry Hengehold conducted the regular business meeting and extended birthday wishes to those present having birthdays in March.

Harry McClintock gave the legislative report and spoke on many items of concern to retirees plus civil service annuities relating to the semi-annual adjustments.

Mayme Vallow gave the Sunshine Committee report and Tharah Erney gave a reading entitled "An Old Irish Blessing."

President Hengehold announced that Edward Erney will be the chapter delegate to attend the state convention to be held in Matteson, Ill. in May.

Louis Hodapp was awarded the special prize. After conclusion of the meeting, a white elephant sale was conducted by program committee members June Morgan, Mildred Butler, Bess Weiss and Dorothy Sheppard.

The next regular luncheon meeting will be held at 11:30 a.m. at Charlie's Restaurant on April 13, the president added.

Republican Women hear candidates

Granite City Republican Women's Club held a "Candidates Night" at the March dinner meeting, held last week at Burn's Restaurant. The meeting was opened with a prayer by President Vernice Walter and the pledge of allegiance by Bethel Davis.

Recognizing that the town meeting and the city council meeting was held on the same night, the incumbents were served first then were excused after being introduced so that they might go directly to the town meeting. Guests included Robert Stevens, city clerk; Charles Douglas, Ward 1; Warren Decatur, Ward 4; Paul Bowler, Ward 7; Pat Schuman, Ward 2 and Nick Petrillo, treasurer.

President Walter announced the following dates: March 10, registration closed; April 7, election day; April 20, Madison County Federation of Republican Women's Clubs meet at Alto; April 28, board meeting; May 5, next regular meeting at Burn's. She also announced that on March 30 and 31 the "50 Alive Program" of the American Association of Retired Persons will be held at the BAC Campus in West Granite.

Mrs. Walter introduced Sharon Parker, campaign chairman, responsible for the evenings meeting and Lillian Firmer, membership chairman.

The candidates were then introduced and each spoke. They were Michael Wertha, Ward 7; Walter Milton and Woodrow Moad, Ward 6; Leroy McGinnis, Ward 2; Joseph Mangaracino, Ward 1; William Hebert, treasurer; Shirley Voegel for township assessor and Dan Partney for mayor.

It was also noted that the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce has designated the cleanup week April 27 to May 1.

Baptist conference in Fairview Heights

Over 1,200 Southern Baptists from throughout Illinois are expected to attend a 2-day evangelism conference at the First Baptist Church in Fairview Heights on March 16-17.

Russell Richardson of Springfield, director of the 900 member churches in the Baptist State Association, said the purpose of the conference is to encourage the state to step up efforts to baptize new converts in 1981.

In 1980, Southern Baptists in Illinois baptized 7,656 converts, an average of 150 per Sunday.

Ladies Auxiliary set family picnic

The picnic committee of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department is planning a picnic for a family picnic and the arrangements were forwarded to the firemen for approval during a meeting of the group held last week.

Maribeth Karlechik, president, conducted the session held in the fire hall. Committee chairmen gave their reports and Bella Kreher submitted a financial report.

It was reported that jackets for the auxiliary are being prepared and should be ready for the next meeting.

Marvin Ribbing, liaison officer, for the fire department, announced that Long Lake Fire Department and the Mitchell Fire Department will have a benefit basketball game on Friday, April 3, at North High School gymnasium.

Entertainment will be featured at half time and tickets for the project may be obtained from either fire department.

The auxiliary will hold "ladies night out" evening in October and will also host a formal installation of officers on the same night, the president noted. She added the next meeting is set for April 9.

Hosesses Corinne Kreher and Marcia Ashford served refreshments and used a St. Patrick's Day motif for the table decorations.

Others attending were Mabel Kennerly, Karen Schaeffer, Nancy Bowles, Audrey Ribbing, Starletta Johnson and Cheryl Inazzo.

This year's conference, for the first time, will feature a workshop for women, led by Mrs. W. T. Branon of Granite City, on how to involve women in witnessing.

Three area churches were among the top 10 Baptist congregations last year in number of baptisms reported. They were the First Baptist Church in O'Fallon, which baptized 57; the Grace Baptist Church in Granite City, which baptized 93; and a black congregation, Morning Star Baptist Church in E. St. Louis, which baptized 57.

Speakers include Lewis A. Drummond, Billy Graham professor of evangelism at Southern Baptist Seminary in Louisville, Ky.

Drummond, a native of Illinois who grew up in Dixon, formerly taught evangelism at Spurgeon's College in London. His mother, a native of England, once served in the Women's Royal Air Force in Great Britain.

Keynote speaker for the meeting is Harper Shannon, pastor of the 3,000-member Huffman Baptist Church in Birmingham, Ala. Shannon, who will preach three times, has spoken at similar conferences in 20 states. His published books include "Trumpets in the Morning" and "Beliefs That Are Basic."

A choir and orchestra made up of Baptist musicians from the greater E. St. Louis area will sing at the Tuesday night session. There will be morning and afternoon sessions on Monday, March 16, followed by morning, afternoon and night sessions on Tuesday. Four Illinois radio stations will carry live segments of the conference. They are WIBI in Carlinville, WSMI in Litchfield, WCRA in Effingham, and WGGH in Marion.

Bad checks is topic of film

A film on bad checks, how to spot them and what to do if you are the victim, receives one will be shown at 2 p.m. Wednesday, March 18, at the YMCA.

The film's presentation is sponsored by the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce. The presentation will be free and open to the public and business community.

Women's Club enrolls one

Mrs. Birte Weiss was enrolled as a new member of the Venice Women's Club at a weekend meeting held in the Venice Recreation Center.

Officers submitted their reports during the business segment and final plans were discussed for an auction to be held on April 3.

Hostesses Mesdames Mamie Ponce, Grace Grimer, Sybil Robbs, Rose Scaturro and Evelyn Owens provided games and prizes for the social hour.

Members of the serving committee prepared a desert course and decorated the tables in a St. Patrick's Day motif. Each member received a shamrock lapel pin provided by a friend of the club.

Others present were Mesdames Bertha Pace, Maude Lewis, Naomi Boelling, Jane Harris, Elsie Canver, Linda Marcus, Mary Alexander, Allene Marston, Ruth Canver, Hazel Pogniak, Gertrude Carpenter, Alice Mitchell and Madonna Groshong.

Guild hears Ron Pennell

Ron Pennell spoke on the topic, "Inter-Personal Communication" at a monthly meeting of the Evening Guild of St. John United Church of Christ, held in the church fellowship hall.

The devotional theme of "Committing Yourself to Others During Lent" was presented by Mrs. Sandy Dawson.

Birthday members introduced and honored were Joan Schnyder, Delores Zeigler and Veronica Suesi.

During the meeting a towel shower was held to provide towels for the church kitchen.

Thirty-four members and five guests attended the session including Mrs. Georgia Engleke, Mari Willie, Mari Willard and Ethel Holtzinger. Mrs. Mary Baumberger was enrolled as a new member.

At the next meeting the members will participate in the Lenten Quiet Hour.

Women's Division meeting March 19

The Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce will host a general membership meeting on Thursday, March 19, in the Mississippi-Illinois Room at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Reservations must be made no later than noon on Monday, March 16, at the Chamber office, according to Mrs. Bonnie Goldenberg, president.

Dr. Theodore Frisbie, professor and chairman, SIUE Department of Anthropology, will be the guest speaker.

He will present a short introductory talk about the anthropology museum, its unique development from an idea to a reality in a few short years, and also conduct a tour of the museum, the president added.

HONOR FOR REID

Frank E. Reid, 3341 Johnson Road, has made the dean's list for scholastic achievement for the first semester of the 1980-81 academic year in the School of Engineering and Applied Science at Washington University, St. Louis, where he is a senior.

Also, Bruce Winfield, Kathy Chappell, David Baugh, Dorie McConney, Mae Ping Patrick, Diane Kalmeyer, Eddie Robertson, Canille Kite, Penny Newberry, Chris Finkle and Mary Causey.

LACE AWARD WINNER of the Tri-Cities Chapter of National Secretaries Association, Mrs. Kathy Smith, left, receives the Lace bracelet from the 1980 winner, Miss Nancy Bezan. Mrs. Smith and her husband, Paul, reside in Collinsville with their 11-year-old son, Paul. She has been an employee of Solv Realty for four and half years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Simurda of Granite City.

Pregnant teens urged to seek health care

Governor James R. Thompson has announced the first phase of a statewide campaign designed to encourage pregnant teenagers to seek health care early in pregnancy.

The initial phase of the campaign is a joint effort by the State of Illinois and the city of Chicago to inform people about this growing problem.

"It is a teenage pregnancy awareness campaign, utilizing billboard advertising, radio and television public service announcements and a medical referral brochure," he said. It was funded through a $50,000 grant awarded to the Chicago Health Department by the Illinois Department of Public Health from federal funds.

"This campaign," Thompson said, "is part of my determination to do everything possible to lower the rate of infant mortality in Illinois." Illinois has one of the highest infant mortality rates in the nation, and a leading cause of infant mortality is low birth weight. Adolescent girls are more likely to deliver low-birth-weight babies than are older, more mature women.

In 1979, the last year that data was available, the infant mortality rate in Illinois was 15.1 deaths per 1,000 births.

The campaign has three basic goals, the governor said:

1) To take teenagers and their parents aware of the high risk associated with adolescent pregnancy.

2) To let teenage girls know where they may obtain prenatal care.

3) To impress upon teenagers and their parents the importance of obtaining prenatal care during the first three months of pregnancy.

"We believe," Thompson said, "that through this campaign, we can achieve a significant reduction in the number of low-birth-weight infants born in Illinois. And, if we can do that, we can lower our infant mortality rate."

Mayor Jane Byrne of Chicago and I have both designated lowering the infant mortality rate as high priorities of our administrations and this project is an outstanding example of three levels of government—federal, state and city—working together to help solve an important health problem."

William L. Kempiners, Director of the Illinois Department of Public Health, said that the second phase of the campaign is to adapt the materials developed by the Chicago Health Department for use downstate. "Although infant mortality is a larger problem in Chicago than it is downstate, the rates in other parts of the state are alarmingly high," Kempiners said.

"Expanding this campaign to downstate areas is an important part of the Department of Public Health's broad-based efforts to reduce the state's infant mortality rate," he concluded.

Catholic Charities receives $1200

The Quad-Cities Catholic Charities board of directors met to discuss contributions and current projects, last week, in the office located at 2012 Delmar Ave.

Board president, Larry Dellamano presided at the meeting and was assisted by the Rev. M. J. Quilligan, director of Madison County Catholic Charities.

Minutes of previous meeting were read by Mrs. Corinne Kreher, secretary. Letters of support from Al Froemling, Tri-Cities Area United Way, Inc., was explained to the board regarding the agencies 1981 allocation.

The annual statistical report ending in 1980 noted that 94 of 94 active family (long term) cases, 65 unwed parents, 32 adoptive homes, 15 foster homes and 20 Catholic Charities.

President Dellamano reported that Catholic Charities received their request of $1200 from Old Newsday for purchasing infant supplies for layettes. The agency received many referrals for these items from many different resources in the community, he added.

It was announced that newsletter will be sent to the Board of Directors informing them of any legislation pertaining to services or necessary items needed for agency.

Catholic Charities annual dinner meeting will be held Tuesday, April 28th, it was announced.

A nominating committee was appointed to secure nominations for new board members and officers for the coming year.

Among those in attendance were Rev. M. J. Quilligan, Alex Schenckoff, Mrs. Janet Polach, Emanuel Valencia, Larry Bilbey, Mrs. Mary McKee, Mrs. Barbara Walker, Mrs. Joanne Arth, Carl Kittel, David Daly, Mrs. Mary Alice Beardslee and Mrs. Ann Pieper.

Early Childhood teachers to meet

The Association for Early Childhood Teachers will hold a meeting on March 17 at 7 p.m. at Logan School in Portable 001.

The Association is open to any teacher of kindergarten and first grade children and teachers in day-care and pre-school centers.

Purpose of the group is to help each child make a smooth transition between day-care and pre-school programs and elementary school.

All those involved with children from two years of age to seven years of age who are concerned about the needs of children whom they serve and those who wish to learn more about how best to serve these needs are invited to participate, the officers noted.

Dr. Suzi Nall from SIUE, who is the head of the Early Childhood Department, will be the guest speaker.

The chairman of the association are Mrs. Karen Kotter from the Humpty Dumpty Day-Care Center and Mrs. Helen Miller, a kindergarten teacher at Logan School.

Gala of Stars on channel 9

Artists scheduled to appear in Gala of Stars 1981 are (in alphabetical order) pianist-comedian Victor Borge, soprano Victoria de los Angeles, ballerina Cynthia Gregory, mezzo-soprano Marilyn Horne, ballerina Gelsey Kirkland, baritone Sherrill Milnes, entertainer Liza Minnelli, flutist Itzhak Perlman, violinist Jean-Pierre Rampal with jazz pianist Claude Bolling, violinist Isaac Stern and concert pianist Alexis Weissenberg.

File tax return early

Your Illinois income tax return will be one of nearly five million received by the Illinois Department of Revenue this year, and nearly half of those will be filed after the first week in April.

What difference does that make to you? Up to an extra month of waiting for your refund check if you're among the last-minute filers.

The earlier a return is filed, the less time it takes to get a refund check," according to Gary E. Y, manager of the income tax processing division. "Returns are handled on a first-received, first-served basis."

The income tax processing system is refund-oriented," E. Y explained. "Of the 4.8 million individual returns we expect to receive this year, about three million will have refunds coming, averaging $45 each."

The time between the arrival of a return in the department of Revenue mailroom and its entry into the data processing system that will result in a payment order being sent to the Office of the Comptroller (which issues the checks) can vary from 10 days at the beginning of the processing year up to 32 days for returns received on the April 15 deadline, E. Y said.

The two best times to get your return in, E. Y said, are during the month of January or the end of March and first of April. This is when the fewest returns are received, which means these refunds can be processed quicker. "Naturally, the April 15 deadline creates a sharp rise in the number of returns. "If a taxpayer is eager to receive his or her refund check, as most are, it is worthwhile to file the return well before April 15," E. Y pointed out. "It is also worthwhile to take time to follow the instructions in the tax booklet and check the return carefully," he said. The tax processing system has improved over the eleven years that the state has had a personal income tax, he said, and it is now considerably automated.

But a certain amount of manual work is inevitable — and much of it is caused by errors on returns, which can cause a return to be held up for an additional 30 days or more. Such errors include mathematical mistakes, incorrect social security numbers, a lack of W-2 forms or other supporting documents. The most common error was failure to sign the return.

Failure to use the preprinted name and address label or to use the preaddressed envelope in the tax booklet also can slow down the process.

But if your return is in early and doesn't require special handling because of errors or other reasons, you can expect to receive your refund in five to eight weeks.

"We try to keep the system as straightforward and simple as possible," said E. Y. "A certain amount of complexity is inevitable because of the large amounts of money and the need to constantly double-check numbers and information. But through it all, we try not to lose sight of the 4.8 million individual taxpayers. They are our priority."

IN BASIC TRAINING

Army Private Julia L. Harding, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cleve D. Gerlach, 267 Holiday Shores, is attending basic training at Fort Gordon, Ga. During the training, students receive instruction in drill and ceremonies, weapons, map reading, tactics, military courtesy, military justice, first aid, and Army history and traditions.

Compete in Venice 1st Ward

JOHN FLEIG

John T. Fleig, incumbent First Ward alderman in Venice, is seeking election in the April 7 balloting and faces opposition from two other candidates.

Born in St. Louis, Fleig has resided in Venice more than 25 years. Now retired, he was employed as chief of the motor pool at the Granite City Army Installation.

He received his education in Normandy, Mo., and Ferguson, Mo. "I have held the position of alderman since July, 1960. I feel I have done a good job, and would like to continue serving the people of our ward," said Fleig, who lives with his wife at 209 Weber St., Venice. They have four children.

GINNY HARGIS

Virginia "Ginny" Hargis, a lifelong area resident, is an independent candidate for First Ward Alderman in Venice.

She attended schools in Venice and was formerly employed by the Venice Park District. She is a member of Venice United Methodist Church and the women's group, as well as the Venice Crippled Children's Organization and the Venice Women's Democratic Club.

"For three years I have attended the council meetings and would like to see the people join together, attend meetings, support our police, fire and street departments and all help each other," she said. She also would like to see more federal and state assistance for low-income families and senior citizens. She resides at 710 Main St., Venice.

EARL HOGAN

Earl W. Hogan, 35, an independent candidate for First Ward alderman in Venice, has resided in the Quad-Cities for 27 years. He was born in Granite City.

Hogan attended St. Mark's School and Venice High School. He is employed at ACF Industries (American Car & Foundry) as a millwright. He served on the Venice School Board for three years.

Hogan, if elected, hopes to work toward resurfacing the streets and to introduce the Crime Blockers program to Venice.

He resides at 221 Kerr St., Venice.

Restrict licenses for illegal aliens

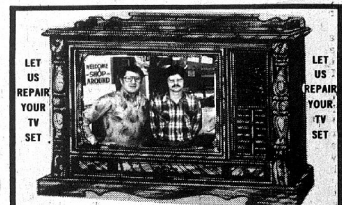

State Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) is co-sponsoring legislation recently introduced in the Illinois General Assembly to prohibit the issuance of a driver's license to an "illegal alien."

The proposed legislation would require Illinois drivers' licenses to state whether a motorist is a U.S. citizen and, if not, to require an applicant to provide proof of legal residence or entry into the United States, before such license is issued.

"At the present time," Steele stated, "all that is required for a driver's license to be issued to an illegal alien is an $8 fee, upon passing a driver's test. When vehicle accidents occur," Steele added, "illegal aliens more often than not do not have the resources to pay for damages or injuries inflicted, to the great disadvantage of our legal Illinois residents."

Steele added, "Driver's licenses are often used for identification, at job interviews, and to establish a person's credit. With the alarming increase of illegal aliens in our country and in Illinois," Steele concluded, "I feel it is important that in issuing a legal right to use our highways, we determine that a motorist legally and lawfully resides in our state."

NOW WE'RE FILLING NEED.

If you're like most people, you've had your checking account at a bank where you got nothing in return for it, except a service charge.

On the other hand, you may have had your savings account at a savings and loan because you got higher interest. And you may have been using another institution for your home, car, or personal loans.

Now you can put all your financial activities under one convenient roof. Your nearby Illini Federal Savings and Loan Office.

IT PAYS TO CHECK WITH US. After looking around, you may have discovered that many financial institutions in the area are going to pay interest on checking accounts. This may have misled you into thinking that all NOW Accounts are alike.

At Illini Federal, we offer

5 1/2% interest, compounded daily and paid monthly. But unlike some institutions, we're not trying to get the interest you earn back in service charges.

If you keep at least $200 in your NOW Account, you can write checks on it for free. If your balance does dip below $200, the charge is an easy-to-handle three dollars a month. At Illini, there are no transaction fees, no hidden charges, and no fooling.

NOW YOUR CHECKBOOK CAN KEEP UP WITH YOU. When You Know Who forgets to record a check, an emergency arises at the worst possible moment, or a once-in-a-lifetime banking is available when you can least afford it, you'll be glad you have Illini Federal's NOW Account Credit Reserve.

It's a special loan service that lets you borrow up to $1,000, if you qualify. To use your credit reserve you either overdraw your NOW Account, or arrange to borrow on it in advance.

With an Illini Federal NOW Account and Credit Reserve, your checkbook will keep up with you. Even if it gets slightly unbalanced.

MAKE US YOUR FAMILY FINANCIAL CENTER.

Whether it's checking, savings, or loans for homes, cars, college, or vacations, why go anywhere else? When Illini Federal's all you need. NOW Accounts and new consumer loans are available after December 31, 1980.

Two seek vacant Third Ward seat

NELSON DUNLAP

CARL KITTEL

Nelson R. Dunlap, 39, of 2200 State St., is in a two-way race for the Third Ward aldermanic seat being vacated by Alderman Roy Poulos.

Dunlap, who was born in Pittsburg, Pa., has been a resident of this area for 18 years. He is owner and manager of North American Stone Fireplace Center and is a system boiler operator at Granite City Steel.

Formerly he worked as a heavy equipment operator, truck driver and in the fields of refrigeration repair, aircraft maintenance and drafting.

He attended public schools through the junior high school level in Pittsburgh and obtained a General Equivalence Diploma in the U.S. Marine Corps, where he served four years. He has taken several courses affiliated with heating and cooling, mechanical engineering, manufacturing and truck driving.

He, his wife, Diane, and children, Joyce, 15, Tracy, 12, and Nelson, 10, are members of St. Joseph Catholic Church.

Dunlap is a past treasurer of the Granite City Democratic Club and of Cub Scout Pack 2 and served as the treasurer of the "Kennedy for President" Illinois Congressional District 22.

While in the Marine Corps, he was in engineering re-con and served in the Second and Third Divisions, including nine months in the Mediterranean and 18 months in the Pacific.

Dunlap says he is running for alderman to "rehabilitate and create a neighborhood organization for all generations in the third ward, financed by myself with the salary given to me as an alderman. Also, to once again make Granite City the 'All-American City' and to attract business and industry to create new jobs. I am an independent candidate capable of working with any mayor elected," he concluded.

Joins Air Force

Kenneth Ray Wallace, son of B. W. Wallace, of 2801 Warren Ave., has enlisted in the U.S. Air Force according to SSGT. Clark Jarrett, Air Force representative at 3675 Nameoki Rd.

Upon graduation from the Air Force's six weeks basic military training, he will receive training in the Mechanics Career Area. He is a 1980 graduate of Granite City High School South.

Kidney drive seeks donors

The National Kidney Foundation of Eastern Missouri and Metro-East is holding its annual public education campaign. This year, individuals are once again urged to consider organ donation in order to ultimately benefit kidney patients whose lives depend upon receiving a donated organ for transplantation.

In this area alone, there are currently more than 7000 persons on artificial kidney (dialysis) machines. Many of these lives could be saved or dramatically improved if a suitable donor kidney were available.

Anyone of legal age can become an organ donor and organs under 21 can donate organs as long as parents or guardians serve as witnesses.

Donors may obtain a wallet-sized uniform donor card from the National Kidney Foundation office. Space on the back of the Illinois license allows for an organ donor dot, also available from the Foundation office.

As a next step, individuals are encouraged to register their organ donor wishes in the Lifeline Registry, a computerized listing of potential organ donors.

Attend meeting

Representing Tri Spec Systems, Inc., at the 84th convention of the National Roofing Contractors Association in Phoenix, Ariz., was William Joseph Zinn of Granite City, president.

The convention, the largest in the industry, attracted over 5,000 contractors, manufacturers, distributors, and suppliers. Representatives of 175 firms staffed the 347 available booths at the Phoenix Civic Plaza.

Airman in SAC exercise

Air Force Airman 1st Class Raymond P. Kidwell Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond P. Kidwell Sr. of 2203 Illinois Ave., Granite City, has participated in Global Shield 81, the Strategic Air Command's

(SAC) response to a simulated attack on the United States. The service member is among the more than 100,000 U.S. Air Force, Navy, Marine Corps and Canadian personnel taking part in SAC's largest, no-notice, 20-day training exercise. During one portion of Global Shield 81 is designed to test the command's capability to carry out emergency war orders to support U.S. policy if deterrence fails. This exercise has been connot related in any way to real world situations, according to a SAC spokesman. Global Shield 81 is designed to test the command's capability to carry out emergency war orders to support U.S. policy if deterrence fails. This exercise has been con-

The secretary to the board of trustees of Belleville Area College has resigned, saying that she could not "in good conscience, serve under the leadership of the board's apparent choice of (acting college president) Dr. (Bruce) Wissore as permanent president." Ruben M. Kombrink left her $20,000-a-year job Friday, but will be on vacation until her contract expires April 14.

Nameoki Township officials will hold a public meeting at 7 tonight in the township hall, 4250 Highway 162, to discuss the township's application for housing funds from the community development block grant program of the county. + + +

The Illinois Arts Council is accepting applications from state residents wishing to apply for the artists-in-residence program during the 1981-82 school year. Approximately 60 students will be accepted to spend half time in school and the other half on professional work in architecture, arts, crafts, dance, film, music, theater, video or creative writing. Applications may be sent to Suzanne Swanson, coordinator, at the Illinois Arts Council, 111 N. Washburn, Chicago, Ill., 60602. + + +

During Poison Prevention Week, which begins Sunday, parents are being urged to look through their homes and remove all chemicals from the reach of children who could poison them. Theme of the drive is, "Children Act Fast." In addition to removing poisons from the reach of children, parents are urged to keep hazardous products away from food and medicines, to buy products with child-proof closures, when possible, to keep children from exploring purses where they can find cosmetics and medicines and to store flammable liquids in approved containers in their garage, never in the house. + + +

Urges Partney election

To the Editor: I have personally known Dan Partney for quite a number of years. Dan Partney's father was the former mayor of Granite City and he and I have worked together as craftsmen years ago. His family and I have been through many trying times. I feel that Dan Partney is capable to administer the responsibility of mayor of Granite City with honesty and integrity for the betterment of the people. It is with respect to all concerned in recommending Dan Partney to this high office of the mayor. With best wishes and good luck. ANTHONY R. MOCCERI, Business Manager, Bollermakers Local 383

A MILESTONE was marked last week by Earl's Discount Store, 19th Street and Cleveland Boulevard, which celebrated its 10th anniversary in the present store. A giant cake, decorated with a fishing theme, was the centerpiece of the celebration. Moving into the current location was just one of many advances for Earl's which had been operating in other downtown quarters for many years. Subsequent growth has included the opening of a second store the mini-mall on Nameoki Road. (Press-Record Photo)

Push for affordable and available homes, apartments

National Association of Realtors — Housing is at a turning point. The choices: restore affordability and availability of adequate housing to all Americans, or see the dream of home ownership become a luxury available only to the very wealthy. Realtors, whose more than 700,000 members are working for America's property owners, strongly support choice No. 1.

Our association consistently has worked for fair and affordable housing for all Americans — goals that are often forgotten by politicians after elections, and particularly in an inflationary economic environment.

The nation today is facing the worst housing crisis since World War II. Fewer Americans can afford to purchase their first home, and builders have been discouraged from constructing adequate housing.

There is a nationwide squeeze on rental housing, which disproportionately hurts the elderly, minorities, and lower-income people. Last year, rental vacancy rates dropped below five percent for the first time in 20 years — and are as low as one percent in some metropolitan areas.

The single-family resale market in 1980 was the lowest in five years, and housing starts last year were about 900,000, below the number needed to replace the annual demand for new housing in the 1980s.

President Reagan's program for economic recovery is a major policy improvement, but regrettably is anti-housing.

We endorse slowing the growth of spending, taxing, regulating, and money supply, and we endorse a multi-year plan to achieve a more stable and faster growing economy where all citizens can prosper.

The president's program is encouraging, but if it is to reduce inflation and spur the economy, modifications are needed. We are most concerned with the inflationary potential of the proposed tax reductions.

If enacted as given, those tax cuts could overstimulate consumer spending and exceed federal spending cuts, causing higher federal deficits and fueling inflationary expectations. The president's program is likely to cause nearly one percent higher inflation and interest rates.

A major problem with the proposed tax cuts is that they offer no direct stimulation to savings for investment in industry and housing.

Despite indirect encouragement through across-the-board cuts in personal income taxes, the likely savings would be inadequate to meet the needs of investment and to reduce consumption-based inflation.

Another problem with the tax proposals is the discriminatory depreciation for rental housing and industrial structures. Even though structures for both purposes have similar economic lives, the president would give a 10-year depreciation life for industrial structures and an 18-year life for rental housing.

By overstimulating consumption and understimulating housing, the president's program during the next four years would likely cause 125,000 fewer homes to be built and prevent 350,000 families from upgrading their housing.

Realtors recommend that tax relief be balanced to provide equal consumption and savings incentives. That could be achieved by:

1. Adjusting depreciation lives for similar structures to 15 year straight-line—including commercial, industrial, and residential structures; and
2. Raising interest and dividend exclusions from taxable income and raising the ceiling on Individual Retirement Accounts to directly stimulate savings.

Congress should accept the magnitude of the president's spending slowdown — making spending cuts that affect everyone except the truly needy.

The association offers to do its share by supporting 10 percent cuts in the budget of programs that benefit our industry—but all spending cuts must be tied to tax relief so the federal deficit will trend downward each year toward a balanced budget.

If these recommendations are enacted, inflation and interest rates will be lower, investment in industry and housing will be higher, more jobs will be created, and the average American will be ensured of more adequate food, clothing and shelter.

Says charges against mayor untrue

To the Editor: Let's see now. Election day is just a month away. So far Dan Partney has been publicly blamed Paul Schuler for the closing of the A.O. Smith plant.

Untrue... you know it and I know it. Dan Partney has publicly claimed that our city, under the Schuler administration, is "dead last" in Illinois out of Cook County in acquiring federal grant money, and getting less money than the City of Alton, a smaller community than ours.

Untrue... The real facts show that the present administration has done very well at acquiring federal money. Dan Partney, in a letter to many of the people in his County Board district, has charged the present administration with "irresponsibility" because they allowed the payroll at the Treatment Plant to be in fueling in the last eight years.

Untrue... "Fiscal irresponsibility" had nothing to do with it. The payroll at the Treatment Plant has doubled because the size of the plant and the degree of treatment required has doubled.

Dan Partney, in his newspaper ads, has blamed the Schuler administration for design and construction deficiencies at the Treatment Plant.

Untrue... The design and construction plans for the Treatment Plant were approved during former Mayor Partney's administration. Dan Partney has implied that the Mayor is insensitive to our unemployment problems, and has done little to create new jobs to our community.

Untrue... Mayor Schuler is very sensitive to this problem. He has supported the unemployment program during his administration. During his administration, five new industries have moved into Granite City, and most existing industries are undergoing major expansions.

Is Dan Partney really this confused? Or is he just "Untrue"? Vote for a real winner, vote for Paul Schuler for mayor.

NORMAN STOTZ

Moat lists qualifications

To the Editor: I would like the opportunity to answer the resident on Franklin Ave. about my views as a candidate for alderman of the 6th Ward.

I think that it was a very erroneous statement that the person made about my being alderman just for the Glenview area. My brother states problems throughout the whole 6th ward for which I am concerned about. If the people of this area support me, as the writer states, I am very thankful to them.

I think if the writer of the Franklin letter truly understood the problems of the storm water drainage, the person would realize the true problems are caused by the fact that the system is inadequate. If I am elected I will work to upgrade this system.

As for my being critical in these times of increased unemployment and problems in our city, I think everyone has the right to be critical. I believe no person can sit back and look at our problems and be perfectly content and satisfied.

I am proud of the fact that I was a delegate for Jimmy Carter at the National Convention because at the time that was 19,000 voters requested of me.

years ago I was not against Maryville Road, but I was against the poor planning and make-shift construction of Maryville Road. The road now has pot holes problems, no parking for the people who live on Maryville Road, and slow traffic flow caused by the trains at the intersection of Maryville Road and I-64. I am also concerned about the Lexington subdivision children that cross Maryville Road daily. I agree that the working knowledge of a sizeable budget is a necessity, but it is apparent to me that some members of the school board are lacking this knowledge. This has been proven by the closing of several schools and then coming back to request a $2,900,000 bond issue, which I might add was defeated by the people by a 2 to 1 margin.

I have lived in the Quad-City area all my life and have resided in Granite City for the last 18 years. These are my answers to the Franklin resident letter. I personally feel that anyone has the right to run for any office and to support whomever they wish.

I would also like to add, and I am also concerned, that my candidacy, please do not make any personal attacks on any of the candidates running for the office of alderman, nor against any of the residents.

Anyone wishing to know my qualifications, they are listed on my brochure which is being passed throughout the 6th Ward.

WOODY MOAD, Candidate for 6th Ward Alderman

Backs Riskovsky's race

To the Editor: I like to have my say about Jim Riskovsky. I worked for Mr. Riskovsky this summer, in his garage. As the days went by I really got to know Jim.

He cares about the people and needs of Madison. Jim Riskovsky is a "honest" man. He can really do something for us. Let's give him a chance. I know Jim can do it!

KATHY HARRELL, 1322 State St., Madison, Ill.

Wants voters to keep mayor

To the Editor: I hope the voters of Granite City learn from the residents of the board's primary election for mayor of St. Louis. Our mayor race parallels the St. Louis election. We have the possibility of replacing a good Mayor with a man that will do anything to get votes. Granite City has a mayor that deserves another term. He has proven qualities of leadership. We need not apologize for any of his actions in the eight years. He represents our city in a professional manner and has already shown merit government through increased city services. With aldermanic, County Board, and city through Mayor Schuler's ability to work and cooperate with these and other municipal bodies has progressed tremendously. Can you imagine the chaos of Council Meetings with the alternative candidates? I urge the voters of Granite City that before you cast your vote for mayor on April 7, just stop and think! Think before falling for false criticism of mayor Schuler think about what the ambitious challenger is promising. Think about the consequences of one family having too much control over our community. They already have county board representation, school board representation, and are trying to infiltrate Nameoki township. Therefore we simply cannot afford to gamble with the future of Granite City. On April 7, prove you are more sensible than the voters of St. Louis! When you have a good mayor - Keep a good mayor - and vote for Paul Schuler.

DONALD W. STUCKE, 1613 Clark Ave.

Favors Salchik in Sixth Ward

To the Editor: Qualifications are and should be an important issue in the forthcoming election for 6th Ward alderman. As a voter I feel compelled to state the qualifications of the man I choose to support. His name is Steve Salchik.

He is a family man with a church background. His job of 15 years at American Steel has led him to be elected by the employees to the credit union committee for the last four years. Linda, his wife, has been employed at National Food Store for 10 years. Steve and Linda both support their local unions.

Steve has served on the school board for the past five years and is currently board president. Prior to being president he was board treasurer for two years.

Having the responsibility of a 20 million dollar budget. The school board that he is serving on has tried to bring to the taxpayers voting power on school issues. I feel with these qualifications my choice for 6th Ward alderman is the best available.

ROBERT C. YORK, 2901 Sunser Dr.

Thanks for bleacher funds

To the Editor: I have been authorized by the GC North Steeler Boosters to write a public thank you to Neil Hagnauer, GC Township Supervisor, for all his help in acquiring $20,000 in federal funds to have new bleachers installed in the GC North High School gymnasium. This money represented 85 percent of the total cost of the bleachers. The other 15 percent, approximately $3,500 was paid by the North Steeler Boosters.

Without Hagnauer's help this dream could not have been realized. We, the North Steeler Boosters, now have a court to call home. To those who know about basketball, they know what is called "Home court advantage." Also the whole student body can all get together. This could not be done before. So, at this time on behalf of the GC North Steeler Boosters, thank you Nellie.

JOHN TRITTSCHUCK, President, North Steeler Boosters

City improvements by Schuler

To the Editor: In reply to Mayor Schuler's opponent about the two-lane overpass, there were quite a few mayors before Mayor Schuler. There was nothing done about the overpass until Paul Schuler was elected.

So, why shouldn't he take credit for it, and other improvements, good railroad crossings, etc.? Also, we have even laid off workers in Granite City without adding more, as the Mayor's opponent wants to do.

Let Mayor Schuler's record speak for itself. Let's re-elect Mayor Paul Schuler. OSCAR R. JONES, 2441 Dewey Ave.

Believes strip mines should replace land

To the Editor: Enclosed is a copy of a published announcement for organization and preservation of the sponsors is Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan and Regional Planning Commission. It is funded by federal, state, county and local communities, located in Collinsville.

When I tried to bring to their attention the desecration taking place by strip mining at Hurst, Ill., they justified it by saying the mining company was doing a good job of reclamation.

Here we have an organization supposedly to speak for preservation of farmland funded by various governments, actually condoning the devastation of good farmland.

The soil at Hurst is at least 30 feet and more in depth to the coal. Yet as you drive by you see rock in profusion. This indicates, the poor bottom soil is brought to the top and the good soil is at the bottom. They have mounds of dirt supposedly to cover this land. The most these mounds of dirt can do is about a foot in depth.

I will cite another example. Knox County, Ill. had a strip mining company had to put six feet of top soil back on top of stripped land. The companies took the top soil. The court said only three feet was necessary. What's wrong with six feet? That's not asking too much for that rich farm land. If this type of mining continues over the state, in time Illinois will be another desert. Is that fair to future generations? Are we so greedy and thoughtless that we confront future generations with standardized mining or industry. But if mining or industry can't operate with the welfare of the future in mind, they shouldn't be doing it. It's a government function. It's operation then belongs to government.

This high national public opinion is a government function. It's operation then belongs to government. This high national public opinion is a government function. It's operation then belongs to government. This high national public opinion is a government function. It's operation then belongs to government.

Favors Casmer Skubish

To the Editor: Casmer Skubish, a man of experience and integrity. What's in it for you? A leader in the 1st Ward who will devote all his time to city administration involving problems and gains to make Granite City even a greater city. Most people who reside in this city are proud of the progress and improvements made in the last era. True, industry has suffered but this is a national problem due to the American economy.

One of Mr. Skubish's strongest points is his ability to work with people. This will insure cooperation from the other city officials. Also, this characteristic will greatly enhance all his efforts to obtain the necessities which are required in this ward and Granite City. To all the people of the 1st Ward, I urge you to vote for Casmer Skubish on election day!

Poulos endorses Kittel

To the Editor: On April 7, 1981, you will go to the polls in the Third Ward and make your selection for the Office of Alderman. As you know, I will not be a candidate. I do recommend to you Mr. Carl Kittel, who is a candidate for that office. I have known Carl for a number of years, and find

Says sister qualified

To the Editor: I am writing to enlist your support for my sister, Sharon Perjak, who is a candidate for alderman to represent the Fourth Ward.

She has lived in the Fourth Ward throughout most of her adult life and has been active in helping the community in many ways. Sharon has exhibited the political and social skills necessary to get things done in the Granite City Council. Her election last year as precinct committeewoman was the result of the confidence placed in her by her neighbors.

Sharon has the desire and ability to listen to the problems of the people in her area and the skill to bring these matters to the proper councils of government for solution.

Her civic and political experience plus her integrity and dedication to service of people, qualify Sharon to represent you in the City Council.

I hope that you and the other voting members of your family will vote for Sharon Perjak on Tuesday, April 7.

SHARON'S BROTHER, BOB GIBSON

Only way to change vote

To the Editor: Citizens of Chouteau Township, have you noticed the latest trend in government and elections in general? Change! Voters all over the United States are "shaking out the rugs," getting rid of dead weight and electing fresh new faces.

Over time we have finally realized the full impact and power of the vote. We can express our needs and concerns by voting for the candidates who devote their time and energy working for the better interests of the people.

It often happens that when repeatedly elected officials spend too many terms in office they tend to stagnate, lose touch with their constituents, become unresponsive to their electors and when voting on issues take the position that people don't always know what's best for them. Therefore, they make the decision without seeking input from those whose fate they determine.

Remember, only you the voter, can initiate change in government. If you're ready for a change, take control of your own life, express your wishes, exercise your hard fought for right to vote. Never underestimate the power of just one vote. You can make a difference!

Do yourself a favor for a change, vote for candidates who represent your interests. Go to the polls April 7, show you care, bring a friend. VOTE!!

CHRISTINE WALLACE, 128 Kinder Lane (Chouteau Township resident) him to be a very knowledgeable and responsible person. I am sure he will work hard for the continued progress of the Third Ward. I hope you will give him your full support. Thank you. ROY POULOS, Alderman Third Ward

Madison rips Lawrenceville in 'Super'

Slam, bam and it's on to Champaign

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor of the Press-Record
CHARLESTON — They're a good basketball team. Make that a very good basketball team. No, a very, very good basketball team. Madison's Trojans, who probably didn't have to prove that to anybody, did so anyway here Tuesday night to Lawrenceville. And the result was an 80-56 victory for the Trojans in the Class A Super-Sectional at Eastern Illinois University's Lantz Gymnasium. It was the most lopsided victory at the Eastern Super-Sectional since the inception of the two-class system in 1972. And it means a third straight trip for Madison to the Class A State Finals at the University of Illinois Assembly Hall in Champaign this weekend.

But Madison, the 1977 state champ, won't have long to bask in its victory. Its quarterfinal round opponent Friday at 1:45 p.m. will be Providence-New Lenox, the 1979 state champ and number one ranked team in the state. Madison (27-2) is ranked second. Lawrenceville, which saw its season end at 28-3, was ranked third.

"They just flat blew us out of the tub tonight," said Lawrenceville coach Ron Felling. "We got us a hell of a banjo lesson."

But the game was closer than that — at least until Lawrenceville's 6-3 sophomore sensation Marty Simmons was forced to the bench with his fourth personal foul with 4:50 remaining in the third quarter. When he left, Madison led 35-32. When he returned at the beginning of the fourth quarter, the Trojans led 50-42.

Playing with four fouls, Simmons appeared timid and scored only two more points the rest of the way.

But all of that wasn't because of Simmons' unwillingness to go the basket. It was because of the defense of one Morris Hughes. Not only did Hughes lead the Trojan scoring attack with 19 points (mostly on offensive rebounds), but he played tough defense on Simmons in the second half.

"Morris did an excellent job on Simmons," said Madison head coach Larry Graham. "Of course, he (Simmons) had four fouls, but Hughes played him tough."

"Hughes is known for his offensive work, but he's a heck of a defensive player too. People don't realize that."

The game, for all intents and purposes, was over in the third quarter. That's when Madison made an amazing 13 of 14 free throw attempts. They made their first 13 attempts of the period. For the game, Madison made an outstanding 30 of 38 free throws. Included in that string was a nine-of-11 performance at the line by Carvell Claggett.

"Carvell had been having trouble with his free throws before tonight," said Graham.

But Claggett made up for it. "I figured it was time to do my job and make the free throws," said Claggett. "I knew we needed it."

The game began like it might be another heart-stopper, like the Madison overtime win over the Indians last season at the Charleston Super. The two teams traded baskets and the Trojans held a 14-10 lead at the end of the first quarter. Lawrenceville came back with a strong second quarter performance and trailed by three points, 29-26 at halftime. But that was before Simmons got his fourth foul. Both coaches agreed that was a critical point. "It was their turning point of the game," said Graham. "He (Simmons) is a heck of a player. He does a lot for them. I think when he picked up his fourth foul and sat down, it gave us the opening we needed."

Felling agreed. "I don't think Marty gets the recognition he deserves," he said. "We said all season, 'We go as Marty goes.'"

It wasn't exactly a strong offensive showing by either team. But credit both defenses, especially Madison's.

Graham, who had been critical of his team's defense early in the season, was singing a different tune Tuesday night. "Our defense has really improved," he said. "We figured our full-court press could give them trouble and it did when we had it on — for a while."

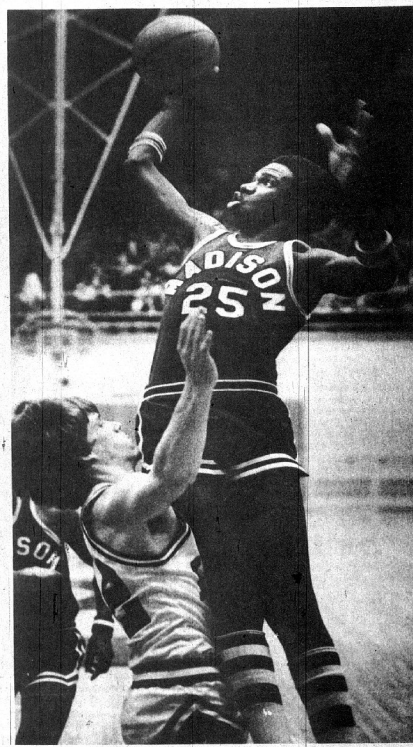

"But then they started

Cairo routs Pinckneyville, 77-42

CARBONDALE — The Cairo Pilots routed the Pinckneyville Panthers here Tuesday night to win the Class A Carbondale Super-Sectional at the SIU Arena. The outcome wasn't a surprise (the two teams split a pair of regular season games), but the margin was.

Pinckneyville, which surprised sixth-ranked Okawville last week to win the championship, the Sparta Class A Sectional, couldn't buy a basket early in Tuesday's game. But just about everything the Pilots shot went through the hoop. Cairo held only a four point lead at the end of the first quarter, but outscored the Panthers 23-12 in the second period to take a commanding 37-22 halftime lead. The Pilots (28-4) were led in scoring by senior guard Lorenzo Duncan who pumped in 23 points. Senior center Anthony Webster also added 20 points for Cairo.

Pinckneyville's Panthers, who scored 16 points with a respectable 29-4 record, were led in scoring by senior center Ray Harris, who scored 16 points.

The game was the focal point of just about all of deep Southern Illinois Tuesday night. Over 9,000 fans jammed into Southern Illinois University's Arena to watch the action.

In other Class A Super-

Sectional action Tuesday night, New Lenox-Providence bumped off defending state champion Luther South 56-46 in a come-from-behind game. All-Providence center Walter Downing scored 18 points to lead the Celtics to their 28th victory in 30 games. Tiger Ollers scored 16 points and Byron Gabriel added 14 to help New Lenox advance.

In the other Super-Sectional Tuesday, Pana edged Atwood-Hammond 46-42 in the closest game of the night; Danville-Schlarman beat Illini Bluffs 53-50; Putnam County defeated Marengo 66-49; Liberty beat Pittsfield 56-43 and Dunlap defeated Warren 40-34.

New Lenox, Downing waiting

By PETE HAYES

Sports Editor of the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — Madison's basketball Trojans won't have very long to bask in their latest victory. After bumping off third-ranked Lawrenceville Tuesday in the Charleston Class A Super-Sectional, they face the unenviable task of taking on top-ranked New Lenox-Providence (28-2) and its 6-9 All-America center Walter Downing Friday in the second quarterfinal game at the State Finals in the University of Illinois Assembly Hall in Champaign. Madison won the state title in 1977, New Lenox in 1979.

Madison head coach Larry Graham, though he respects New Lenox, doesn't think it's beyond the second-ranked Trojans to come out on top. "They (New Lenox) are beatable," said Graham. "His five blocked shots, seven rebounds and trademark hook shot established him as an intimidating factor inside."

"I'll just be a matter of how well we can shoot."

"We'll have to adjust to what Downing does," he said. "Of course, I don't think we'll be able to drive the middle on them."

Tuesday's win over Lawrenceville, the Trojans turned the Indians' guards around several times and found the middle wide open for easy layups. But with Downing in the middle, that most likely won't be the case Friday.

New Lenox coach Frank Palmason said his Celtics aren't a one-man team. "We've played well as a team all season," he said.

"We wouldn't have gotten as far as we have with only one player doing the job. In fact, in several games when he (Downing) has been in foul trouble and had to sit on the bench, the rest of the kids have responded well."

Downing has already accepted a scholarship to play at DePaul next season. New Lenox's two losses were to Class AA state powers. It fell 65-55 to Chicago DeLaSalle and by only five points, 47-42, to top-ranked Quincy in the title game of the Fontaine Tournament.

The Celtics play quite a different style of basketball than does Madison. They like to slow it down and get the ball into Downing if possible or go for the high-percentage shot. If it doesn't drop, he'll most likely grab the rebound. The other four starters for New Lenox according to Palmason will be Byron Gabriel, a 6-1 senior point guard; Tiger Williams, a 6-1 senior guard-forward; Mike Tschida, a 6-5 junior forward; and Ken Thompson, a 6-1 sophomore guard.

Palmason said his team will have to play its own style of basketball, or be in trouble. "We have to play a deliberate style of ball," he said. "We can't get into a running game with Madison. We have to set the tempo."

"If we get into a gunning game with them, we'll get our tails beat bad." Madison's Graham said that even though his team may have to adjust somewhat, it won't make

Wood River upsets Tigers

By RICK WELLS for the Press-Record
COLLINSVILLE — All season long, the Wood River Oilers were taken very seriously by the area "powers." The Oilers' schedule in the Mississippi Valley Conference was considered too weak for Wood River to be thought a contender.

The Oilers proved everybody wrong. Last night, they upset 14th-ranked Edwardsville in the first round of the Collinsville Class AA Sectional.

And they did it decisively, beating the Tigers 61-48. About 2,800 people jammed into the gymnasium to watch an almost flawless performance by Wood River.

The two biggest reasons for the upset were the same two people that have carried the team all season long — the Oilers' bread-and-butter guard, Dan Coddington and Terry Shewmake.

Both players were given Honorable Mention in the Associated Press All-State basketball team. Both proved why they deserved it. Coddington, a 6-5 senior center, led the Oilers with 23 points. His five blocked shots, seven rebounds and trademark hook shot established him as an intimidating factor inside.

Shewmake's patented drives to the basket drove the tough Edwardsville 2-1-2 defense, one of the best defenses in the area this season, to fits. Shewmake either made the basket, took the foul or dumped the ball off to Coddington for an easy two points. He ended the game with 10 points and a team-high seven assists.

"I think we left all of our nervousness in the Alto game," said Wood River coach Darrell Burd, referring to a two-point regional champion win over Alto. "Edwardsville was the team picked to win it. We knew if we could shoot, we could play with anybody."

The Oilers not only shot well (23 for 39 from the field, 59 percent), but they beat the Tigers at their own game — defense. Wood River contained 6-7 center Paul Schaefer as much as it could. Schaefer finished the game with 17 points and 11 rebounds.

But the key to the success was holding guard Bruce Dickmann to four points. "We scouted Dickmann, and we didn't think he could shoot off a set shot," said Burd. So the Oilers cut off the inside drive at the same time sagging back on Schaefer. The Tigers couldn't hit from the outside and the rest is now history.

"My boys have got nothing to be ashamed of," said Edwardsville coach Bud Vallino. "They got beat by a good ball club."

"I thought (the Oilers) played together, and that's what it takes this time of the year," he said.

Wood River, now 25-2, and winners of 17 straight games, advances to the sectional finals Friday night at 7:30 against the surprising East St. Louis Flyers. Edwardsville.

North girls win

GRANITE CITY — Even though a 2-17 record doesn't say very much, the Granite City North girls basketball team had to feel it had the advantage in the first round of the Granite City South Class AA Regional Tournament here Monday. The Steelers were playing the Roxana Shells, a team they had gained one of their victories against earlier in the season.

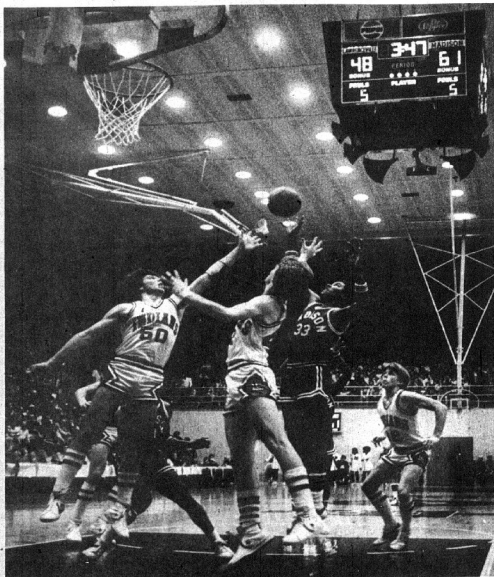

Unfortunately for Roxana, lightning does strike twice. North moved into the semi-finals with a 52-45 win. The Steelers will meet the Wood River Oilers in an 8 p.m. contest Tuesday (see related story).

North head coach Harry Cook can be happy that his Steelers won, because according to him it wasn't the most artistic way to gain your third victory of the year. "It was a very sloppily played game by both teams," said Cook. "In fact, the last two minutes of the game determined the outcome. We just forced them into more turnovers than they forced us."

EDWARDSVILLE — Coach Gary (Bo) Collins' Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville's baseball team has been ranked No. 3 in the United States by member coaches of NCAA Division II, it was announced by Collegiate Baseball in its current (March 6) issue. It was the first poll of the 1981 season.

The SIUE Cougars finished strong last year by winning their last seven games, a 26-27 season. The coaches in Division II could have taken into consideration the fact that Collins has 13 lettersman back, including six who started last year as freshmen. The rankings:

- 1) California-Riverside
- 2) Florida Southern 485;
- 3) SIUE-Edwardsville 483;
- 4) Cal. State-Dominguez Hills 490;
- 5) Florida International 475;

BLOOMINGTON — Duffy Bass takes his 18th Illinois State University baseball squad to Pensacola, Fla., for 12 games in eight days to begin the 1981 spring season. Bass has announced his starting lineup, with a left-hander in each position and freshmen alternating with veterans in right field and behind the plate.

Junior second baseman Rick Powell of Mundelein will bat first when the Redbirds play Marietta College of Ohio, March 8 in the Gulf Coast Classic, a round-robin gathering of northern schools. Powell led the Redbirds in walks last season.

Tom Hennrich of Granite City (South) will bat second and play shortstop. He hit .345 last spring as the Redbirds won 17 and lost 26. Hennrich led-off most of last year. "Rick gets on base better than anyone and Tommy moves the ball well," said Bass, explaining the change. "We hope they will get chances to hit and run."

Senior third baseman Mike Bock of Ripon, Wis., will bat third. Last spring, Bock led the Redbirds in extra base hits and hit five home runs. He led his summer league in homers, too.

Sophomore Lynn Wade of Griggsville will bat fourth and play center field. Wade hit .321 as a freshman, playing the infield and right field. He has taken over center field from Paul Kramer, who graduated last spring.

Bass claims' his most improved position is catcher, with sophomore Jay Hoffman of Highland and freshman Jim Pacanowski of Woodridge (Downers Grove, Ill.) ready to split time behind the plate batting fifth.

"Hoffman is more confident this year behind the plate," said Bass. "Pacanowski is a fine receiver too, and both hit well. Last year, we went south with Hoffman, an inexperienced freshman, as our No. 1 receiver. This is an important improvement." Senior Mike Mayerck of Arlington Heights (Arlington) will start in left field. He hit .270 last spring and missed the fall season with a knee injury, but Mayerck already holds the Redbird career record for doubles.

Brian Romac of Homewood (Homewood-Flossmoor) will be the starter at first base. Romac, a junior, played behind Dave Griffin last season. Griffin did not return to ISU after setting a Redbird record for home runs. He was drafted in January by the St. Louis Cardinals. Romac hit .277 his sophomore year.

Senior Ron Murphy of Macon and freshman Bob Daggy of Midlothian (Bremen) will alternate in right field. Murphy bats right and Daggy bats left. Both have good speed and Bass said the one who is not in the starting lineup will most likely serve as courtesy runner for the catcher.

Brian Smith of Springfield (Lanphier) will be the designated hitter and backup in the outfield and at third base. Bass is impressed with Smith's improvement as a sophomore.

"Look for Brian to move up in the batting order soon," said Bass. "He's worked very hard on his defense, too, and that will help keep him in the lineup."

Pitching will be the key. Bass will take nine pitchers to Florida for certain, 10 if senior Don Borgini of Gillespie can recover from a sore shoulder. The Redbirds are depending on freshman Tom Hammetton of Peoria (Richwoods) and Greg Troemel of Grayslake to fit into their regular starting rotation. Junior college transfers Sam Tomasello of Pontiac and Dave Wampler of Long Point also must come through for the Redbirds to have pitching depth.

Senior Todd Walker of Arlington Heights (Arlington), 7-2 a year ago, will start the first game for the Redbirds in Florida. In addition to Troemel and Hammetton, sophomore Jim Scott of Normal (University High) will be in the starting rotation.

"If you add in our returning players and the quality of our new players, we're ahead of last year," said Bass.

Mendoza ready for Golden Gloves title shot

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record

GRANITE CITY — The first time Danny Mendoza stepped into a boxing ring was in 1978. Now three years later, he has the chance to do something few boxers ever get a chance to do — win a second Golden Gloves championship. One that will probably give him national attention as an amateur boxer. The only thing standing in his way is a man from St. Charles, Missouri.

Mendoza will be facing William Trendley in the championship bout at the 165 pound open class of the "Budweiser" Golden Gloves St. Louis Boxing Tournament at Kiel Auditorium Saturday. The winner will move on to the National Tournament in Toledo, Ohio March 30.

The bout means much more to Mendoza than just another championship. He's used to that. He won the Golden Gloves title in the Novice Division (intermediate level) in the 1980. Presently Mendoza's opponent, Trendley, is ranked sixth in the nation of amateur boxers. A win Saturday would probably give Mendoza national ranking.

Danny wanted to play soccer when he was growing up. "When I was younger, I wanted to play soccer," said Mendoza. "I used to be pretty good, but after a while it was something I felt I had to do. My dad (Ruben Mendoza) was on the World Cup team and played in the Olympics and people kind of put me on the spot to do good. I got tired of it and wanted to do something else."

"Boxing is something I've always admired. I pictured myself fighting in a ring and I always dreamed of fighting Sugar Ray Leonard."

The credit for Danny's start in the world of boxing has to be given to Bobby Galvan. "Three years ago, Bobby was putting a gym in his garage," said Danny. "It was about the time when the 'Rocky' thing was in. He had a Muhammad Ali poster on the wall and some boxing equipment. It looked like a mini-gym without the ring. I really liked what I saw and it caught on."

DANNY MENDOZA ... GETTING A SHOT

It didn't take but a few minutes of Galvan hitting a speed bag that Mendoza wanted to be able to do it too.

"I started working out with Bobby and I found myself going to the gym every day," he said. "It grew on me. I realized later that boxing isn't as easy as it looks. But I'm glad I decided to go with it. My only regret now is that I didn't start earlier."

It was during the summer of 1978 that Danny really started to push himself and they follow and admire. Ali and Roberto Duran have been Mendoza's favorites, but his months of training have been styled after light-heavyweight prizefighter James Scott. "I really admire what he has done," said Mendoza. "He knew the mistake he made and he wanted to make up for it. He had a job to do. I really try to pattern myself after him. He works so hard and pushes himself. He's always in shape."

With that incentive, Mendoza got his first boxing bout. Set up by his manager, Mercie Mendoza, Danny made it to the Golden Gloves tournament in 1979. "Mercie knows all about amateur boxing in this area," said Mendoza. At age 18, Mendoza placed third in the novice division on a close decision. The boxer that beat him went on to win the championship.

"If I would have won, I would have had to fight in the open class (advanced level) next year," Danny said. "But, I think I should have won." Since then Mendoza has not been beaten in the Golden Glove tourney and has compiled a record of 23-4.

Now, Danny will be fighting, according to his manager, probably the best boxer yet. "I've seen Trendley four or five times," said Mendoza. "I really feel confident. The guy that I've been sparing with, Steve Westbrook, is ranked fourth in the nation in light-heavyweights. He's already beaten Trendley. And we've been working good together."

"I'm not going to underestimate him (Trendley), but there's no doubt I can beat him. We've got a good fight plan and I'm a pressure fighter. He's been noted to pull out bouts in the third round. I won't rush things, but if the opening is there, I'll tag him."

Spending most of his training time at 12th and Park in St. Louis, Mendoza has had plenty of experience with the best fighters. "There are seven or eight nationally ranked boxers at 12th and Park," said Mendoza. "All of them think I'll knock him out."

South girls advance to regional title game

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record

GRANITE CITY — With the possibility of a Granite City South-East, Louis Lincoln girls basketball match-up next week in the first round of the Jacksonville Sectional, the Tigers wanted to make sure what they would have to handle. So, Lincoln came out to scout the Warriors in the South Class AA Regional here Tuesday.

Maybe it was a good thing, because South certainly didn't divulge an secrets. The Warriors had plenty of work getting past the Alton Redwings 64-40 to move into the championship game tonight.

A Wood River win over Granite City North in the other semifinal contest (see related story) pits South (18-1) against the Oilers of Wood River (12-9) in the finals tonight. Game time is set for 7 p.m.

It had been a week since the Warriors played their last game. And taking on a 4-19 Alton team wasn't a contest they could get all fired up about.

"I don't know if everyone was fired up or not," said Warrior Chris Boyd. "It felt like a practice or something. I think we took them a little lightly. We beat them by 30 or so points and we were a little bit off. I guess we weren't expecting that much."

Whether they were ready for it or not, the Warriors got a good dose of shaking-up. The Redwings could have dug their own grave with a 18 first half turnovers, but South reciprocated with a 31 percent shooting effort. "The week off didn't help," said Warrior head coach Gary Morgan. "It wasn't only that. It's a time when you ease off conditioning and let them peak their bodies. When you do that, they tend to lose their mental edge. I think we weren't mentally sharp tonight. Whether I can fault them or not, they had a lack of mental readiness."

Everyone seemed to get off on a slow four for South. But, if anyone was ready to play, Kathy Sikora was. Remembering her 28 point performance the last time she played against Alton, Sikora picked up where she left off.

Muscling her way with a very physical Alton team, Sikora controlled the offensive rebounds in the first half and was just a terror on the boards after that. "She (Sikora) seems to have something with Alton," said Morgan. "Maybe it was Alton's lack of speed."

Whatever the case might have been, Sikora looked strong pulling down a team high 14 rebounds. With the majority of those being on the offensive end, she dumped in 18 points on a 9 for 13 effort. "I think she was the only one up for us," said Boyd. "She knew she had a good game before against Alton. I guess she figured she could do it again."

Boyd, in her own right, could have felt she could do her thing again. Drilling Alton for a season high 35 points in a previous meeting, Boyd put together a fine second half to lead the Warriors in scoring with 21 points.

It took them a while, but the Warriors realized Alton came to play. So, the format of the game completely changed. The Redwings committed just four turnovers in the second half and South improved its shooting to a respectable 55 percent. The latter was too much for Alton.

The Warriors seemed to wake up in the second half.

Hit in the nose with a pass in the second quarter, Susan Jeffries came back with authority, pulling down 10 rebounds for the game.

After a 4 for 12 shooting slump, Nita Graham fired in nine second half points and joined Sikora with 18. But, Graham may have made the play of the game.

Trying to counter South's inside strength, Alton went to its big ladies. Dick had thrown in 12 points through three quarters of play for the Redwings. She was also playing with four fouls. So, on a fast break lay-up by Graham, Dick followed. Alton, the last moment, Graham froze in her tracks and drew Dick's fifth foul.

"It was the type of play that won't show up in the books," said Morgan. "Nita told me before that one of these games she was going to do that. This time it worked."

Despite Daveport and Rodgers' 15 rebounds a piece for Alton and the Redwings closing of South lead to nine in the fourth quarter, Alton couldn't handle Sikora's inside moves. She threw in six unanswered points that helped the Warriors blow the game open.

North falls to Oilers in tournament semis

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record

GRANITE CITY — As the Granite City North girls basketball team sat and watched its cross-town rivals, Granite City South, in its semi-final contest of the South Class AA Regional Tournament, only one thought ran through its minds — An all Granite City regional championship.

The Warriors held up to their end (see related story), but the Oilers' hopes were short-lived here Tuesday. Blowing a fourth quarter lead, North's season came to an end by the Wood River Oilers, 51-43.

Closing out the year at 3-18, North can only look back at its last game as an example of what its entire season was like. To put it simply, the Oilers were too young and too tired to hold onto a good thing.

"It's really hard to pump the girls up for every game," said North head coach Harry Cook. But, Cook didn't need a big pep talk before the game. The Oilers looked ready.

Even though starting three sophomores, North played like a much more experienced team. Working on the Oilers' lack of height, the Oilers' looked to the inside game. North virtually owned the boards as senior Cindy Goeller pulled down 10 rebounds. "We were hurting on the boards all night," said Wood River head coach Bob Carter. I think they (Oilers) were looking past North."

With the contest knotting up seven time, North put together a formidable attack in the third quarter. Hitting seven of 12 shots, the Oilers went on a spree of eight straight points, rebounding from a 28-27 deficit to a 35-28 lead (their biggest of the game). North managed to nurse the advantage until midway through the fourth period. The margin was too good to be true.

"Can I say we gave them the ball game," said Cook. "It's hard when you have to play as many sophomores as I do. They really got tired."

For a half of play, the Oilers collected only six turnovers. But, when it really counted, North committed six in the third quarter and eight in the ever important final period.

breaking it and get a couple layups and we took it off. Our half-court defense has improved to the point that it did the job."

And how. Just ask Felling. "We couldn't get into any offense at all in the second half," he muttered. "They (Madison) took it away from us. They're too quick."

"We figured we could play with Madison from 40 feet in, but we didn't know about 90 feet."

In the fourth quarter, Lawrenceville tried to make a comeback three times. But each time its all-state junior forward Doug Novsek would hit a 35 foot bomb. Madison would come back with a basket, get a turnover and score again. It's hard to come back that way. Madison outscored Lawrenceville 30-14 in the fourth quarter.

"All year long, I've felt our guards were suspect," said Felling. "I'm not taking anything away from the kids, but Madison just ate us alive out front." Felling spoke the truth. Lawrenceville committed 20 turnovers (13 in the first half). Madison had only 11. The Trojans were 25 of 53 from the floor (47.2 percent). Lawrenceville was 21 of 48 (43.8 percent). Madison had a 37-28 rebounding edge.

Simmons led all scorers with 20 points for the Indians. He also grabbed a game-high 14 rebounds. Novsek added 18. But no other Indian was in double figures.

Madison had a more balanced scoring attack. Patrick Hatter scored 16 and Charles Claggett had 14.

Kisner asks if judgment against Briggs was paid

Richard Kisner, candidate for supervisor of Nameoki Township, is demanding to know whether his opponent ever repaid $3,000 which a court ruled he owed the township for collecting per diem payments for attending town board meetings while he was collecting a daily salary as supervisor.

April's balloting had ever repaid the debt, which a Madison County Circuit Judge ordered paid in a court order dated Oct. 5, 1971.

Town Clerk Douglas Tector responded, "I believe there was a settlement at that time."

Kisner contends the township agreed to settle the debt for $900 in a lump sum, but that amount was never paid, he said. Two checks from Briggs totaling $70 were rejected by the town board in 1973 and Briggs was notified he would have to pay the full $900 within 30 days or be responsible for the entire court judgment of $3,000, which grew to $3,560 with court costs.

The present supervisor, Harold Davis, who is a candidate for highway commissioner on Briggs' slate, told Kisner, "It would be a good idea to have this request in writing."

Davis earlier said he would not allow the open discussion at the end of the meeting to turn into a political stage. "I have been severely criticized for letting the township meeting become a political forum. Some people said at the last meeting that they won't be back and they are not here tonight. This is not right for people not involved in politics," Davis said before opening the meeting to audience participation.

Tuesday, Kisner delivered a written request to Tector, formally seeking "all information regarding a judgment against him (Briggs) in the amount of $3,000 on illegal per diem compensation for township meetings."

"I would also like to see the records on any money he paid back to the township and ask why you did not file a claim against the bonding company that wrote his bond during his term as Nameoki Township supervisor," Kisner said in the written request.

He said he had been advised by his attorney that the township must respond within 48 hours with the requested information so he has made an appointment for 3 p.m. today to examine the records and receive a written reply from Tector.

35 apply for sewer grants in Chouteau

Thirty-five low income Chouteau Township residents have applied and been accepted for sewer tap-on grants, it was announced at a meeting of the Chouteau Township Board on Monday night.

Walter "Dick" Sparks, township supervisor, said the accepted applications have been forwarded to Edwardsville. He added the deadline for applications that are being taken at the township office at 6794 North Thorngate Drive, Mitchell, is Monday, March 16.

He added there is a possible 131 more applications that may be eligible for the complete installation with the aid of the Madison County Community Development Grant Fund.

All residents planning to apply for a grant must do so prior to signing any contract for the installation of a home sewer, since the Madison County Community Development office, which is funding the grant program, will determine who the contractor will be through competitive bidding, it was noted.

In other business the trustees agreed to purchase a reconditioned Olympia typewriter from Shepherd Office Supplies at a cost of $290, for use in the township office.

A copy of operating guidelines for implementing phases of the sewer program prepared and submitted by the Madison County Community Development office was presented by Mrs. Pat Polley for each of the trustees.

During the meeting a letter from the City of Granite City, in relation to a public information meeting under the auspices of the St. Louis Metro Railway Enterprise was read. The session will be held at 7 p.m. in the Granite City Township Center and will focus on the relocating of railroad yards in East St. Louis.

Sparks announced the township had received checks in the amount of $523 interest in the general assistance fund and $566 interest in the town fund. Also received were taxes totaling $458 in the Road and Bridge fund and $326 in the general assistance fund.

A transfer of $2,000 from the Road and Bridge fund, designated for the purchase of machinery, to the general assistance fund was approved by the trustees.

Organ Pedalers club meets

The February meeting of the AOA Organ Pedalers Club was held with Dorothy Alsop, chairman, presiding over the meeting. Dr. Joe Sonntag, from Highland Park, the AOA state chairman stopped by to meet the club members and give a history and background of AOA. He was on his way to the organ extravaganza in Houston, Texas.

Dorothy Alsop, Helen Bowman, Jeannan Dorsch, and Carolyn Belling played several selections on the organ, keeping with the Valentine's Day and President's Day decorations. Next month's program will be by Don Cooper, Wilma Cooper, Bob French, and Henry Coleman.

The group tabled the idea of touring Wicke's Pipe Organ Factory until April or May when the weather is nicer. At this time, no plans have been made to attend Michael's Restaurant in Highland to hear Ed Scofield entertain on the organ.

A birthday cake was brought out for Burel Schmisser's birthday, while the group sang "Happy Birthday" and "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow."

Birthday cake and patriotic cupcakes were enjoyed by Dr. Joe Sonntag, Highland Park, Helen Testerman, Don and Barbara Cooper, Betty Applegate, Eliza Beth Novacki, Helen Bowman, Bob French, Irv Slate Sr., Dorothy Alsop, Diane Mason, Wilma Cooper, Henry Coleman, Burel Schmisser and Carolyn Belling.

BAC dedication Sunday

Belleville Area College's 35 year history will be reviewed in dedication ceremonies at the college at 3 p.m. on Sunday, March 15.

Dr. Marvin Cox whose dissertation was on the history of the college will present a synopsis of the development of the institution that pioneered community education in southern Illinois.

Joining the Board and staff of the college for the occasion will be United States Senator Alan J. Dixon, Illinois State Representative Celeste Stiehl and newly appointed Executive Director of the Illinois Community College Board, Dr. David Pierce.

Representative Stiehl will bring the principal address. College officials credit her with the major effort in the receipt of more than 2 million dollars in federal funds which was used to complete the Master Plan.

Surviving members of the Belleville Township High School Board who approved the formation of a junior college district in 1946 have been invited to attend the ceremonies, as have all members of the board who have served the college since it became a Class I Junior College in 1967.

Members of the steering committee who worked to pass a referendum which authorized the district will also be given special recognition at the occasion. Belleville Area College Board Chairman, Robert Dintelman, has issued an invitation to all friends of the college to join with the "college family" in celebration of the occasion. He particularly urged those students who have previously attended or are presently attending the college to be present for the dedication ceremonies. A reception which will include a performance of the Belleville Area College Jazz Lab Band, under the direction of Jerry Bolen, will be held immediately following the program.

Library programs planned in March

The Granite City Public Library has announced the following programs for March:

Storytimes will continue at the Branch Library (6 Nameoki Village) at 7 p.m. each Tuesday for preschool and primary-age children. Storytime at the Main Library (2001 Delmar) will be at 10 a.m. each Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday. These programs, which last a half hour, consist of stories, filmstrips, fingerplays, and games.

On March 14 from 2 to 3 p.m. there will be a craft session for school-age children at the Main Library. The project will be puppets made from milk cartons. Each child should bring a quart milk carton; all other supplies will be furnished.

Two special programs are planned at the Main Library for March 26 and March 27. Since there will be no school those days, March 26 there will be a puppet show at 2 p.m. March 27 there will be a film, "Return to Oz," shown in the Children's Room from 2 to 3 p.m. Tickets for the movie are free and will be available a week before the show on a first come, first served basis.

Granite City children who have taken part in the Young Authors Conference will have their original stories on display at the Main Library March 25. Some of these manuscripts will then be adapted for the Dial-A-Story project.

Hoekstra unopposed as Madison treasurer

Incumbent Madison City Treasurer Hilbert H. Hoekstra, 76, 1700 Second St., Madison, is unopposed in his bid for re-election in the balloting on April 7.

Prior to being elected treasurer, Hoekstra was employed as route supervisor for Taystee Bread. He also was employed by the Madison Police Department as a captain and was parole officer for the state of Illinois.

Hoekstra is a former police commissioner for the city of Madison. He is a Democratic precinct committeeman, Venice Township Democratic chairman and a member of the Madison County Executive Board.

Burglary at book store

A burglar entered the Day Spring Book Store, 3717 Nameoki Road, and stole a pocket calculator, worth $25, and between $7 and $10 in change from a cash drawer, it was reported Monday.

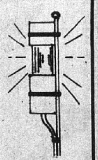

Entry was gained by breaking off the lock and knob on the building's rear door. The owners said it was the second burglary at the firm within a month.

AUTO STOLEN
Ivor W. Roberts, 2214 Amos Ave., reported Monday the theft of a 1969 green Chevrolet Nova from 21st Street and Edison Avenue.

U.F.O.'S SEEN IN GRANITE CITY STRANGE LIGHTS REPORTED CHASING CARS IN VARIOUS PARTS OF U.S.A.

Some observers report U.F.O.s landing however in this case what are being seen are tiny lights about the size of your little finger. They attach to your car and become a part of it. They emit a soft yellow glow that can be seen up to a mile away. The light is known as a "Mini-Bacon." It has a multitude of uses. It helps prevent accidents on parking lots and other congested areas. Your car can be detected even when hidden by other cars. It is a must for those tiny horn spots and subcompact, that are hidden by full size autos. It can't be beat, when used to alert someone you are trying to pickup in shopping centers, work school or any other place. They will spot you light on the top of your car instantly. No need to drive around and around waiting expensive gasoline. If you forget where you parked where you come home, sooner or later, don't walk all over searching for your car, simply look over the tops of the other cars and spot your "Mini-Bacon" light instantly. Saves time and aggravation. Use light to guide friends to your home, picnic area or festive gathering. Use as an emergency light, burn it all night. It won't run your battery down. It adds an elegant look plus a V.I.P. appearance to any vehicle. The regular price is $14.99. To introduce this light to this area, the price is only $9.95. We pay postage to your home. If you have two cars, order two for $17.95. If you are concerned about not receiving your light, order C.O.D. Post $2.00 extra for C.O.D. charges. Manufacturer offers rebate plan that can refund entire purchase price, even postage, when your light comes complete with 10 feet of wire, cables, switch and directions for 30 minute installation. Order today from Xray Co., P.O. Box 507, Granite City, IL 62040, receive order in few days.

"Congratulations..."
Grandpa!

FOR SALE BY OWNER:

Sparkling, well maintained, 2-bedroom residence ideally located within the central city near Wilson Park and the bus line. This cozy, pragmatic, furnished dwelling contains a full dining room, living room, kitchen, and bathroom. Enhancing features include central air conditioning and gas heat, wall to wall carpeting, custom kitchen cabinets, a full, dry basement and an insulated, unattached garage.

It is the ideal home for the "active" couple or for the retiree since it is ready for occupancy without additional labor and affords easy low cost maintenance, manageable utility payments, and taxes that, for a change, produce a pleasant surprise. Fringe benefits include the one thing money can't buy — good neighbors.

Viewing scheduled "by appointment only" on Saturdays from 9:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m. Serious inquiries only.

SEALED BIDS

WANTED
Sealed bids will be received by the Bi-State Development Agency of the Missouri-Illinois Metropolitan District for the Purchase of Shop Equipment.

The award to be let under this bid is subject to a financial assistance contract between the Agency and the U.S. Department of Transportation, Urban Mass Transportation Administration, and Illinois Department of Transportation and must conform to the requirements thereof. Payment for the procurement of Shop Equipment will be made in accordance with U.S. DOT requirements. All bidders will be required to certify that they are not on the Comptroller General's list of ineligible contractors.

Each bid shall be made in accordance with certain specifications as outlined in Bid Number 980 furnished for that purpose. Copies of the plans, specifications, and other bidding documents may be obtained at the Purchasing Division, 3869 Park Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63110.

The Bi-State Development Agency hereby notifies all bidders that in regard to any contract entered into pursuant to this invitation to bid, a discrimination or solicitation, minority enterprises will be afforded full opportunity to submit bids and/or proposals. In response, and will not be subject to discrimination on the basis of race, color, sex, age, physical handicap or national origin in consideration for an award. All bidders will be required to comply with all applicable equal opportunity rules and regulations and equal opportunity policies and procedures established by Bi-State Development Agency. Bidders must be prequalified with the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission, Public Contracts Division, 179 West Washington Street, Chicago, Illinois 60602, prior to the bid opening. This may be accomplished by submitting a completed IFEP Form PC-1 to the Illinois Fair Employment Practices Commission for prequalification prior to bid opening. These forms are furnished with all bid specifications.

The Bi-State Development Agency solicits and encourages minority business enterprise participation with regard to this project. MBEs will be afforded consideration of their responses and will not be subject to discrimination. Respondents will be required to comply with the Agency's Minority Business Program goal requirement where applicable.

Firms submitting bids will be requested to certify that they are not included on the U.S. Comptroller General's List of Persons currently Debarred for violations of various public contracts.

Sealed bids will be received at the General Office of Bi-State Development Agency, 3869 Park Avenue, St. Louis, Missouri 63110, until 2:00 p.m., St. Louis time on March 27, 1981 and will be opened and read in public at 2:00 p.m., St. Louis time on March 27, 1981. Any bid received after the time referred to above will not be considered and will be returned to the bidder unopened.

A pre-bid conference will be held for all interested parties on March 17, 1981 at 10:00 a.m. in the Conference Room, 1477 S. 38th Street, St. Louis, Missouri 63110.

Opposition in the Venice 2nd Ward

HANK SVEZIA

Hank A. Svezia, incumbent Second Ward Alderman in Venice, is running for reelection in the April 7 balloting.

A lifelong area resident, Svezia attended Venice schools and is a retired produce supplier.

Svezia is a member of St. Mark's Catholic Church, and is affiliated with the Venice Social Club and the Venice Crippled Children's Association.

He and his wife, Mary, have three children. They live at 619 Broadway, Venice.

"I plan to continue serving my ward and the city of Venice as I have in the past years," Svezia said.

Speaker reviews

Reyes Syndrome

Luther "Bud" Shaffer discussed Reyes Syndrome and its effects at the February meeting of Wilson School PTA. He also showed a film about the disease.

Delores Taft, president, was in charge and the PTA Prayer was read by Darlene Dooling.

It was announced the PTA will sponsor a class in cardiopulmonary resuscitation (CPR) from 6 p.m. until 10 p.m. on Friday, March 20, at the school.

The nominating committee reported on a slate of officers for 1981-82 and members were reminded an election will take place at the March business session.

Reports were submitted by Ray McGee, finance, Woody Moad, budget, Kathy Fourcalt, scouting, Ken Taft, membership, and Mrs. Dooling, parenting.

Ways and Means Chair-

Merchants' state meeting next month

Statewide retailers representing small and large stores in every merchandise line will gather at Pheasant Run, St. Charles, Ill., April 29 and 30 for the Annual Meeting of the Illinois Retail Merchants Association.

"Carrying the theme, 'Basically Better in '81,' the meeting will emphasize ways to improve performance in retailing fundamentals," Hugh E. Muncy, IRMA President, said. Work sessions on the agenda follow.

Newspaper advertising, with David West, Illinois Press Association, leading a panel of advertising executives.

Radio-TV advertising, with Stephen Waters, advertising director for Kirlin's, Quincy.

Sales training, with Mary Heinz Garzoni, Garzoni Group Consultants.

Stock turn, with a retail consultant, from Arthur Young & Company.

Internal theft, with retail loss prevention specialists

James McQueen of Evans, Inc., Paul Goodburn of J. C. Penney Company and Frank Sell of A & P Tea Co.

Legislation-regulations, with specialists in taxation, credit, personnel and labor relations.

Other features include retailer motivator Stacy B. Nash, head of a 10-store men's wear operation in the Oklahoma City area, and presentation of the 1981 Retailer of the Year Award.

Illinois Retail Merchants Association is the only statewide organization exclusively serving the interests of all retail stores. Its membership represents more than 85 percent of the total annual Illinois retail volume.

CHURCH BURGLARY

A Gibson electric bass guitar, valued at $650, and an amplifier, worth $275, were stolen in a burglary at the First United Pentecostal Church, 2450 Pontoon Road, reported Monday.

Wongler was charged with battery after he allegedly struck Joyce Vaughn of Collinsville, while he and Miss Vaughn were in a hospital room visiting a patient.

Ronald Wongler, 28, who listed addresses in Collinsville and Boonesville, Ind., was arrested following a disturbance at St. Elizabeth Medical Center at 3:20 p.m. Monday.

Man Louise Moad gave a favorable report on a T-shirt sale and Chris Kincer said PTA yearbooks should be available in early May.

Plaques for cultural arts award winners will be ready this month, Bill Smithson, legislation chairman, announced.

Schuman, McGinness face off in Ward 2

FRED P. SCHUMAN

JOSEPH MCGINNNESS

Running for re-election as Second Ward alderman in Granite City is Fred "Pat" Schuman, 37.

Assistant principal at Granite City High School South, he holds a bachelor's degree, a master's degree and a degree in supervision from Southern Illinois University.

While an alderman, Schuman has been a member of the finance committee, and chairman of both the negotiating committee and the air pollution control committee.

In seeking re-election, Schuman said, "I feel I have kept my pledges of four years ago of providing newsletters, ward meetings, creative alternatives to existing problems, and a leadership that can be trusted and believed."

Schuman lives at 2609 Edison Ave., with his wife and three children.

Joseph R. McGinness, 41, is one of two candidates for Second Ward alderman of Granite City.

McGinness, a resident of this area for 17 years, is employed at Admiral Merchant Motor Freight and is shop steward for Teamsters Local 618.

He received his education in Kentucky and Illinois, studying the ministry. He formerly was an assistant pastor and a pastor.

McGinness received an honorable discharge after serving in the U.S. Army for two years. He is married, with three children, and the family resides at 2605 Washington Ave.

If elected, McGinness hopes to help provide for better street and alley lighting, street repairs, proper traffic control, clean-up programs and to work towards better communication with Ward Two residents.

Transit board options open

By BILL WINTER of the Press-Record
Madison County's Mass Transit Board is walking a tightrope between conflicting citizen viewpoints and is trying to keep a variety of options open for the benefit of bus riders and taxpayers, Chairman William Haine said in an interview Friday.

In trying to avoid missteps atop that "tightrope," the board is cooperating fully with the Bi-State Transit System in seeking to improve bus service, and it credits Bi-State with a similar spirit of cooperation, he said.

Haine, who also addressed last week's Granite City prayer breakfast gathering, regards the present status of the three-member transit board as "politically untenable," but does not rule out the viability of a successor board that could be created by state legislation.

At the same time, creation of a "levee district" type of body—any sort of politically dominated transit program—is being scrupulously avoided, care has been taken to keep costs to a minimum, and to avoid forming another bureaucratic governing layer, Haine emphasized. The basic "politically untenable" problem relates to the county transit district's levying of a quarter-cent sales tax without having a direct voice in how, wisely or poorly bus funds are spent, it was explained. The board can suggest routes, and decide whether or not to request specific bus service, but it cannot control the elements that affect the cost, such as administrative expenses, types of vehicles, and driver wages.

No one at the prayer breakfast voiced opposition to the sales tax when the question was posed to the audience, but many residents are against it, Haine said.

Although the transit board itself is appointed, each member answers to voters: the three are a mayor, a township supervisor and a Madison County Board member, elected in a city, a town and a county district. As a result, each is answerable to the public, and the public is not "sold" on present bus service as provided by Bi-State, Haine said.

He estimated that Madison County has perhaps a year in which to achieve an improved level of bus service and to alter the public image of Bi-State. After that, the district's future might be in doubt, he believed.

Meanwhile, public elections are to be held in St. Clair and Monroe counties this spring on whether to continue their present quarter-cent and eighth-cent sales taxes.

Haine reported that opposition to the transit-related sales tax is growing because of the dividing line between areas served by buses and paying the slightly higher sales tax, and other areas lacking bus routes and without such taxation; retailers are concerned about across-the-line competition.

In addition, citizens question the forwarding of local and state revenue from Illinois to Missouri, with a St. Louis office staff deciding who to hire and negotiating driver pay that many regard as excessive, Haine said. He added that the top Bi-State Development Agency executive is provided a car and chauffeur.

Haine commended Bi-State Agency board members, including Carl Mathias of Granite City, and also praised the attitude and expertise of Bi-State Transit Manager William Wilson.

While he came within eyeshot of advocating a severing of ties with Bi-State and the awarding of a bus contract to some other agency or company, Haine said he does not have a closed mind on the subject.

He said the three-member transit board that he heads has decided to take no salaries as board members, and for $4,000 a year has obtained the services of an experienced transit adviser "worth ten times that amount." He commented, "I'm a Democrat, but we're being so conservative in our approach that we could be accused of all being moss-back conservatives."

He said that the combination of existing state laws allows little leverage for the Madison County Mass Transit Board in determining where to obtain bus service; Bi-State is the only one designated as eligible to receive sales tax revenue. The possibility of revised legislation is under discussion, including allowing for more than one potential provider and possibly a different makeup for the transit board, Haine related.

"But we are not holding up any money for Bi-State and we are working with them fully to obtain the kind of bus service that the people want," he added.

Introduced at the breakfast by Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, another transit board member, Haine presented his views and then answered many questions from the group.

He said that Madison, St. Clair and Monroe counties are the only portion of Illinois providing bus subsidies for a transit entity with headquarters outside the state. He stressed that the local transit board has no control over the Bi-State budget, and that there is no bus office or garage in Madison County.

Haine voiced confidence that with the same amount of funding as at present, or less, a new provider of bus service could be found. He asserted that some of the federal grants going to Bi-State bus purchases are in the name of the Illinois counties.

He said it has not yet been determined whether the transit board will be able to eliminate the quarter-cent sales tax at some point in the year. It went into effect Feb. 1.

Haine said little money is expended by Bi-State in this county, and that some drivers receive in excess of $25,000 a year. He commented that in New York City, pay and fringe benefits ruined a transit system.

Mathias told the gathering that Bi-State board decisions require majority support from both the Illinois and Missouri commissioners.

He said federal and state laws stipulate the separation of Bi-State capital accounts and operating funds, and that current negotiations involve a 6.8 percent employee pay raise.

Haine in responding to another question said regionalism has merits, but that it was not enough to prevent Missouri interests from blocking the creation of a major Illinois airport. He added that it would be possible to link Illinois and Missouri bus service even if there were multiple providers.

He was critical of present transit thinking as being centered around the St. Louis central business district instead of shopping areas in other communities.

Labor favors incumbents

The Tri-City Trades and Labor Council has given its endorsement to the re-election of Mayor Paul Schuler, City Clerk Robert W. Stevens and City Treasurer Nick Petrillo.

The 24 delegates representing allied AFL-CIO trades in the Quad-City area accepted a report of the legislative committee endorsing candidates in Granite City and in Nameoki, Chouteau, Venice and Granite City townships.

Schuler was endorsed over either Warren Decker or Dave Hines. Petrillo was endorsed over Bill Herbert, candidate for treasurer. Stevens is unopposed.

Aldermen endorsed were Fred "Pat" Schuman in the Second Ward, Glen Sprankle in the Fourth Ward, Jake Varadian in the Fifth Ward, Woodrow Wood in the Sixth Ward and Paul Ray Bowler in the Seventh Ward.

In the First Ward, the council did not make an endorsement, but gave a favorable rating to all three candidates who appeared before the screening committee, incumbent Charles Douglas, and former aldermen William Dallas Sr., Casmer Skubish, and Granite City Township Supervisor Nelson Hagnauer was endorsed for re-election over Tom Nesbit and Granite City Township Assessor Von Dee Cruise received the endorsement for that post over Shirley Voegelé.

George Sykes, who is unopposed for re-election to the Granite City Park Board, also was endorsed.

$1 million plan to pave Nameoki Rd.

Granite City is seeking a grant to widen Nameoki Road north to Edwardsville Road north to Pontoon Road to provide left turn lanes for most intersections and relieve traffic congestion, it was announced Friday by Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler.

Schuler presented the plans to officials of the Federal Aid to Urban Systems Committee recently and told the committee that the Nameoki Road project is expected to cost $1 million and the city hopes to undertake the project in 1985.

The request for a grant was made in conjunction with a previously announced plan to resurface the old Route 3 from Venice, through Madison and Granite City. The state has abandoned the roadway, so the cities now are responsible for maintaining them and are seeking grants to put the roadbed in good condition.

Mayor Mike Sasyk of Madison and Mayor Tyrone Echols of Venice attended the FAUS Committee meeting and participated in the joint appeal for the project to be placed on the agenda of upcoming projects.

Planned for resurfacing in 1983, if funds can be found, are from where Route 3 enters Venice east on Broad way, north on Madison Avenue through Madison to 20th Street in Granite City, west on 20th Street to Missouri Avenue and north on Missouri Avenue to Pontoon Road.

The project will cost about $1.1 million, the mayors said. The committee commended the mayors for their efforts and commented that it was the first time they recalled three separate governments working so closely together on one project for the good of all residents of the Quad-City area.

BOY SCOUT PLAN

APRIL PILGRIMAGE

Boy Scout Troop 7 of St. Joseph Catholic Church will attend the Lincoln Pilgrimage weekend set for April 24 to 26 in Springfield, Ill.

The group will travel by Amtrak train, camp at Camp, then tour a National Guard camp, then tour historic points of interest and participate in the pilgrimage to Lincoln's Tomb and the parade, according to the troop scoutmaster.

For Nameoki Township posts, both candidates for supervisor received a favorable rating, but neither Harry Briggs of the United With Progress Party (UWPP) nor Richard L. Kisser of the Progressive Action Party (PAP) was endorsed.

United With Progress candidates endorsed for re-election were Town Clerk Douglas Teeter, Tax Assessor Carl Macios and Tax Collector Freida Ballou.

Progressive Action Party candidate Frank Mehlis, who seeks re-election to the highway commissioner's post, also was endorsed over Harold Davis of United With Progress.

The state of candidates for trustee on the United With Progress Party received the endorsement of the Labor Council over their opponents. Endorsed were Andy Bessenman, W. Lee Adams, Jerry Adams and James Counts.

In Chouteau Township, the incumbent supervisor Walter "Dek" Sparks and Tax Assessor Marion Sparks were endorsed.

Venice Township Supervisor Christ Pashoff and Trustee John R. Piechocinski also received the endorsement of the Labor Council.

Members of the legislative screening committee which made the endorsement recommendations were Ed Reiske, chairman, Gene McGovern, Burl Hand and Marshall Testerman.

GIRL SCOUT WEEK is kicked off Saturday morning with a parade of three neighborhoods, represented by more than 700 girls and leaders from 24th Street and Madison Avenue to the Granite City Hall where the U.S., Girl Scout and Girl Guides flags were posted.

Girl scout week began Sunday and continues through March 14 with many activities scheduled throughout the area. Pictured is Troop 454 from Logan School leaving the parking lot of the First Assembly of God Church.

Sunken sewer to be replaced

The Granite City Street Department was scheduled to begin today on long-needed repairs to a sewer near a catch basin at Ball Street and Mitchell Avenue which has been accumulating raw sewage and has been causing an unpleasant odor and potential health hazard in the area.

Superintendent of Streets Lionel Portell told the city council at its last meeting that sewage from Granite City High School North has been collecting in the five-year-old catch basin and causing "a stench. And it's going to get worse this summer," unless it is repaired, he predicted.

Portell said about 193 feet of sewer line which sank shortly after it was installed below the water table about 1975 will need to be replaced. "Basically," he explained, "a sewer pipe put in by the Fins Ernest firm under contract with the city fell in before it was backfilled and the water table was so high, we just put an underground bypass line in to the manhole."

"The pipe was about 2½ to 3 feet higher than the sewer, so the sewage has to gather in the manhole 2½ to 3 feet before it reaches the level of the pipe. What we propose doing is to go in and install a lower pipe and eliminate a problem we've had for years."

"The repair work should take about a week and it will take quite a bit longer to repair the street," Portell added.

The repair work will cost about $5,000 for materials, with street department employees doing the work. He said about $3,000 is available from the disaster reimbursement fund and asked for $2,000 from the general fund to do the work.

He stressed that the work should be done now, since the dry fall and winter have allowed the groundwater table to drop. Waiting until the water table rises may make expensive dewatering of the ground necessary to repair the sewer, he added.

Bypass pumping of the sewage 24-hours each day will be necessary during the repairs, Portell told the council. He said Friday he was having some difficulty hiring the union men for the round-the-clock pumping, but expected to have the problem solved by today.

In other business, the council quickly passed two annexation ordinances on "a matter of some urgency," according to Mayor Paul Schuler. Some observers said the "urgency" was to get the parcels annexed so the residents could be residents of the city 30 days by election day, April 7, thereby qualifying to vote. Alderman Charles Douglas of the First Ward first made a motion to place the annexations on final reading for final passage at the council's March 17 meeting, but upon learning of the "urgency," he made the motion to suspend the rules and place the annexations on final passage. They were approved.

Annexed were homes at 2561 Buenger Blvd., and 2572 Stratford Lane.

In other business, a request was made by Douglas that the street department do temporary paint striping for lane dividers for northbound traffic on Nameoki Road at Johnson Road.

Douglas said the lanes swerve where the median widens and then curves into a turn lane and it is difficult for drivers to stay in their lanes without painted lane dividers.

The request was denied when Alderman Glen Sprankle of the Fourth Ward said he had visited the Illinois Department of Transportation that morning and the state is planning to do the striping soon.

Schuler said he was concerned, "We may assume some responsibility if we paint it," and Superintendent of Streets Lionel Portell added, "We would prefer them (the state) doing it, really."

Optimist brunch set for May 3

The Granite City Optimist Club will hold a pancake and sausage brunch May 3, headed by Bill Sternberg. The club met last week to discuss this and other events.

The club is also sponsoring an oratorical contest to be held March 19.

This year, the Optimists are sponsoring a member drive to work toward achieving Honor Club status for the first time since 1956. Several new members are needed to achieve that status.

Only a slight rise in state school aid

The Granite City School District is not expecting substantial state help in solving its financial problems for the 1981-82 year, it was indicated at last week's School Board meeting.

Illinois Education Supt. Donald Gill has said he believed Governor James R. Thompson when the governor said there cannot be much extra money in the coming year for the state's elementary and secondary schools.

Thompson asked the State Education Board to bring its request for state school aid into conformity with what he says is available, and Dr. Gill conceded that the board will abandon its original funding request for an increase of $187 million.

In his annual budget message last week, the governor recommended that public schools receive $2.76 billion, a hike of only about $90 million but a "6.9 percent per-pupil increase." Thompson said the proposed budget reflects "a desire to allow school systems to exercise more flexibility in determining their programmatic needs, as well as to eliminate state mandated programs where appropriate."

The governor said Illinois is in better fiscal condition than many other states, but still is threatened by a cutback of federal funds and by citizen resistance to tax increases. He concluded that schools, like other parts of government, must accept smaller revenue growth than in past years.

"No matter how much we might want to provide more state money for schools than this, it is simply not there this year," Thompson said, adding that an expected 10 percent rise in assessments throughout the state may help districts to counteract the trend in state dollars.

He proposed that the state boost its general aid instead of specific grants to school districts. He emphasized the need to contain school transportation costs and to find new ways to finance schools.

In a separate matter, the Illinois House has approved legislation to permit 175 school days rather than 176 in 1980-81, offsetting the "day of thanksgiving" student holiday that honored released hostages on Jan. 28.

Dr. Gill has commented that the Illinois School Code gave him no choice but to cancel school Jan. 28 for the following day, in line with a joint Congressional resolution signed by the president.

The state superintendent told the Granite City district, "We regret it was necessary under the law to require the closing of schools. The need to close on such short notice caused significant disruption, not only in school programs but in the daily lives of many people. It could not under the circumstances have been avoided."

At the request of special education parents, the Granite City board decided last week to display a state proclamation designating 1981 as "the year of disabled persons."

CIA CONTROVERSY

President Carter said on Feb. 23, 1977, he had found nothing "illegal or improper" when he had reviewed the more controversial activities of the CIA.

CITY OFFICIALS were in attendance at a BAC open house program for senior volunteers and senior aides. Seated from left are Von Dee Cruse, township tax assessor; Nick Petrillo, city treasurer; Mayor Paul Schuler and City Clerk

Robert Stevens. Standing are Bernice Mercer, Vernice Walter, Madeline Simpson, Bernice Crimmins, Paul Raczewicz, Sharon Sea, Marge Hall and Frank McGinnis.

Open house program for elderly persons

The Belleville Area College programs for older persons of Madison County held an open house, with approximately 50 persons attending.

Included in the days activities were tours of the new facility located in the basement of the old McKinley School, refreshments donated by Granite City officials and insights into the Retired Senior Volunteer Program provided by volunteers and Senior Aides. The office has been donated to Belleville Area College by St. Elizabeth's Medical Center.

The Retired Senior Volunteer Program recruits and places persons 60 years of age and older into meaningful volunteer opportunities within their own communities in public or private not-for-profit agencies and organizations and proprietary health care facilities.

The Senior Aides Program provides employment to low income persons 55 years of age and older in public or private agencies in order to train or retrain persons to be eligible for unsubsidized employment.

The Older Persons office also handles inquiries about Medicare reimbursements and will assist you in filing the Illinois State Tax Relief Claim, and information known as Circuit Breaker. For more information on any of these programs, Quad-Cityans may call 578-3223.

Simple errors delay tax refunds

Many of the errors that delay tax return processing, slow refund checks and inconvenience taxpayers are avoidable, the Internal Revenue Service Springfield district director said this week.

In 1980, for example, 7.1 percent of all Form 1040s and 6.2 percent of all Form 1040As contained at least one taxpayer mathematical error of some type. Errors ranged from incorrect addition and subtraction to failure to compute the earned income credit when eligible.

The most common math error on both forms last year was incorrectly reporting the tax from the tax table.

Such problems resulted from taxpayers using the wrong tax table for their filing status, following the line for the wrong income level, and looking under the incorrect column for the number of exemptions for that taxpayer.

Other common errors on tax returns are not using the peel-off label and instead writing incorrect or illegible Social Security numbers, only one signature on a joint return, failure to attach W-2s, "Wage and Tax Statements," and failure to attach supporting forms and schedules.

The IRS advises taxpayers to double-check their returns prior to sending them in. Accurate returns are processed more quickly and resulting refunds are received sooner, the director concluded.

Ginny Lepping medical industrial director

The co-ordinator for the new Industrial Medicine Program at St. Elizabeth Medical Center is Ginny Lepping, RN, OHN.

She received her associate degree in vocational nursing from Cerritos College School of Nursing in Norwalk, Calif., and an associate degree in applied science from St. Louis Community College School of Nursing in St. Louis in 1976.

She has completed further studies in occupational health nursing at Harvard University in Boston and City University of New York School of Nursing in New York City.

She has considerable background in occupational health nursing, including directorship of the occupational health and safety department of Fainter's District Council No. 2 in St. Louis. In addition to leading several seminars and workshops, she conducted a one month independent tour in Australia in the spring of 1980, studying occupational health management. As co-ordinator of the Industrial Medicine facility at SEMC, Ginny will be working with businesses and industry in Madison and St. Clair counties to provide health care services tailored to their needs. The program includes pre-employment physicals, lab tests, X-rays, return to duty exams and other services.

The Industrial Medicine facility is located in the new Ancillary building.

Job program for older workers

The Job Service of the Illinois Department of Labor is announcing a referral employment network (RENEW) to encourage and promote the employment of older workers.

Men and women 55 years of age and older who are seeking full-time, part-time or temporary employment are eligible to utilize the RENEW services. RENEW Worker Jewell Young may be contacted at the Job Service office, 7 American Village Shopping Center for additional details on the program.

According to a spokesman for the Job Service, "The RENEW program assists two groups. First are the older workers looking for jobs, and second are the employers who are looking for qualified and experienced workers to fill job openings. Both are encouraged to contact the Job Service at 451-5756 for assistance."

$15,000 circuit breaker level is being proposed

State Rep. Sam Wolf of Granite City reports that legislation on which he is a co-sponsor would broaden participation in the "circuit breaker" program for the elderly and the handicapped. HB 111, endorsed by 96 of the House members, would increase the allowable annual household income for persons eligible for property tax circuit breaker grants from the present $12,000 to $15,000.

It would also increase the maximum grants for all participants in the program by decreasing the portion of household income used to limit grants from 5 to 4 percent.

Mrs. Reidelberger seeking re-election

Margaret J. Reidelberger, 58, is unopposed in her bid for re-election as tax assessor in Venice Township.

Mrs. Reidelberger was born in Venice and has lived there all her life. She attended St. Mark's Catholic School and Madison High School. She also has attended seminars and workshops for assessing.

A member of St. Mark's Catholic Church, Mrs. Reidelberger also is active in the ladies' society of the parish, the Venice Crippled Children's Association and the Illinois Township Officials' Association.

She was employed in the tax office for the collector for more than 20 years and was appointed assessor in 1975 to fill the unexpired term of her late husband, Frank R. Reidelberger Jr.

"As assessor, I plan to continue to serve as in the past seven years to give each citizen of our area a fair and honorable appraisal," said Mrs. Reidelberger. "We also serve the senior citizens with their circuit breaker, homesteads, and 1790 bill," she continued. She resides at 1240 Klein St., in Venice, and has two children.

ZIP code directories on sale at post office

The 1981 National ZIP Code and Post Office Directory, priced at $8 per copy, is available through the Granite City post office, Postmaster Jack D. Wilkins announced today.

Wilkins also advised that customers can save money by turning in old directory covers or by buying eight copies of the publication.

By trading in the front cover of any previous directory, a dollar discount will be given toward the purchase of a new issue. The price for eight copies is $56, an $8 savings compared with the cost of the copies bought individually.

According to Wilkins, the Postal Service began publishing the informative directory, which also contains a listing of all U.S. post offices, in 1965. Prior to that time, individual ZIP Code booklets were published for each state.

The ZIP (Zoning Improvement Plan) Code program was established in 1963. Today, approximately 97 percent of all mail processed by the Postal Service is ZIP coded.

The directory is an ideal reference source for commercial mailers requiring current addressing information. Last year, approximately 223,000 copies of the publication were sold.

SOUTH HIGH Advanced Mixed Chorus will be among performers March 21 at the Vocal Music Festival which will be held in the Memorial Gymnasium at Granite City High School South.

Vocal Music Festival to be March 21 at South gym

The Granite City Music Department will present its fifth annual all-city Vocal Music Festival on Saturday, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. in the Memorial Gymnasium at South. The guest conductor for the evening will be David Castangay of the University of Illinois.

Students performing in the festival are from the North and South High School Advanced Mixed Chorus, Grigsby, Coolidge, and Prather Junior High Chorus, and the Elementary Chorus. These singers will rehearse during the day with Castangay and present their concert in the evening.

Numbers performed by the combined high school choruses are: "Elijah Rock" by Jester Hairston, "Ave Maria" by Anton Bruckner, "Get Happy" by Arlen and Koehler and "One by One," by John Coates. The combined junior high choruses will present "Bright, Sunny Morning" by Don Besig, "Praise the Lord with Joyful Song" by Hal Hopson, "Traveler" by Mark Wilson and "Old Joe Clark" by Neil Johnson.

The elementary chorus will sing "Non Nobis Domine" by William Byrd, "Two Thoughts for Children's Chorus," "The Guardian Angels," by Robert Schumann and "Two Roses" by Bela Bartok. They will also sing "Promised Land," by Natalie Sleet, and "I Just Sing" by Jeannette McKinney.

The elementary, junior high and senior high choruses will join together to sing "Movin' Right Along" from the Muppet Movie. Special appearances by Kemist, the Frog (Rob York) and Miss Piggy (Velinda Woungkin) will be made during this song. Joseph Owens is the music consultant for the school district, and Mrs. Patricia Michaeloff is the vocal music specialist for the district.

Music directors for each school are: Mary Ann Bright, South High School; Gail Mueller, North High School; Deloris Barker, Grigsby Junior High; Cheryl Compton, Coolidge; Sterling Schoen, Prather Junior High; Patricia Michaeloff and Julia Oyen, Elementary Chorus. Staging for musical numbers is by Mrs. Janet Collins. The festival accompanist is Mrs. Mary Ann Bright.

Tickets can be purchased from all students performing in the festival. The cost is 50 cents for students and 75 cents for adults.

ADVANCED MIXED CHORUS at Granite City High School North will sing at the All-City Vocal Music Festival to be held at South gymnasium March 21. The festival will begin at 7:30 p.m.

ELEMENTARY CHORUS will present several numbers at the All-City Vocal Music Festival which is to be held March 21 at the South High School gymnasium. The program will begin at 7:30 p.m.

Job Fair for handicapped

The Parents for Special Education, president Mrs. Melba Grady and Region I Special Education Director Larry Dew, announced that a "Job Fair for the handicapped" is being planned for April 29 at the Granite City Township Hall, 2060 Delmar Ave., from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m.

The program will be the second annual Job Fair to be held for Quad-City handicapped residents. This year's fair will include the Collinsville Special Education District.

William Monical, Boy Scout executive, has employed handicapped individuals to work in the Scout Office for the past ten years. He states "The relationship has been most rewarding. It has been a real source of satisfaction, watching each of these young persons develop as they work with real situations that have been challenging and needed."

They have grown and we have found growth of our own, by helping them find places for themselves in a world that, for the most part, tolerates only those who meet artificially set standards of performance. I would encourage anyone to accept the rewarding challenge of helping a person who must try harder, for you will find, as we have, that trying at all, is a rare commodity, today."

Many employers have already received invitations to participate in the Job Fair. An invitation has been extended to all employers who would like to set up a booth at the Job Fair. There is no fee charged, and no obligations other than an interest to become better informed about handicapped persons wishing to become active in the "work world."

Mrs. Grady and Larry Dew

FEWER EMPLOYEES:

STATE PAYROLL UP State Comptroller Roland W. Burris reported last week there were 119,088 state employees in January, a drop of 1,848 or 1.5 percent from December. There were 1,069 fewer employees in the higher education systems, and 779 fewer employees in all other state agencies.

Despite the January drop in employees, the comptroller said the state payroll is still 2,708 higher than in January of last year. Total payroll costs for all agencies have climbed $16,844,126 or 11.6 percent in that one-year period.

RECEIVES GREETING FROM PRESIDENT

Mrs. Velma Means, 2006 Beckwith St., Madison, received a birthday greeting card from President Ronald Reagan last week. Both celebrate the same birthday of Feb. 6, 1911, and both are the same age.

Madison second half means Sweet Sixteen

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record
VANDALIA — A year ago, Bunker Hill's bid to reach Champaign and the state basketball tournament was cut short when it ran into Madison. At the Vandalia Class A Sectional Tournament here Friday, Bunker Hill, once again, tried and failed.

The Minutemen even came into the game with an impressive 25-0 record and Madison knew what it was in for. But, a resounding second half performance by the Trojans turned the game into a contest into an easy 62-45 victory for Madison and another sectional crown.

The Trojans' win sets up another showdown. Moving on to the Charleston Super-Sectional Tuesday, Madison (26-2) will face the Lawrenceville Indians (28-2) in a re-match of last year's thriller. The Trojans took that game in overtime, 74-68. The Indians won the right to play Madison as they beat Marlinsville in the championship of the Bridgeport Sectional (see related story).

If anyone thought it was to meet Lawrenceville, Bunker Hill felt it should be the Trojans. The Minutemen were ready for Madison and let it know during their semifinal game against Trenton-Westcliff. "They were ready for us," said Madison's Pat Hatter. "I knew they'd be out to get us for last year. They were even yelling 'We want Madison' in the stands Wednesday. We just took it to them." And Hatter dealt a big hand in the Bunker Hill downfall.

The Minutemen knew what they had to do and for three quarters they didn't let Madison out of their grasp.

Hatter, Hughes power Trojans past Bunker Hill

"It didn't bother us being 26-0," said Bunker Hill head coach Jim Hlatka. "We wanted to play Madison and we accomplished what we wanted to do."

Despite a fine 56 percent shooting touch by the Trojans in the first half, Bunker Hill took full advantage of 12 Madison turnovers. With the lead changing hands 11 times, Bunker Hill fought back from a 26-19 deficit and took the lead with five seconds left in the second quarter. Doug Sauerwein spearheaded the Minutemen attack as the southpaw drilled in 17 points.

"Bunker Hill is a good shooting team," said Trojan head coach Larry Graham. "They are a lot better than they were last year. We just made some careless mistakes."

A patient offense and some fine passing by Bunker Hill gave Madison all it could handle. "They took it away from us last year in the first half, but we came back," said Hlatka. "And the second half is usually our best half."

Bunker Hill found out how tough the Minutemen had to feel it as a bad omen when Sauerwein, who was so deadly in the first half, went absolutely cold in the third quarter. "They (Madison) kept switching defenses," said Hlatka. "We got the ball inside in the first half and didn't in the second." When Bunker Hill did manage to get a pass to the middle, usually to Sauerwein, Madison began to swat the shots away. Sauerwein put up six attempts in the third quarter and Morris Hughes, Mark Zarr and Hatter each got a piece of the ball.

"We made a defensive switch," said Graham. "We were more aware of where Sauerwein was in the second half and we put Hughes on him." What a move it was. Sauerwein went one of eight in the second half and the Madison defense came alive.

"Madison has good jumping ability," said Hlatka. "They really intimidated us and dominated the boards." The Trojans held a 30-21 edge in rebounding. But, the biggest key in the game was the pressure Madison put on Bunker Hill.

The Minutemen had only collected five turnovers in the entire first half and in the third quarter alone they were forced into eight. "Causing the turnovers has been our game," said Graham. A couple of steals by Charles Claggett resulted in two uncontested lay-ups and the Trojans had suddenly opened a 38-33 lead.

"We lost our cool, but I didn't want them to give up," said Hlatka. "I didn't think we had as many turnovers as we did." It gave Madison the momentum it needed.

Things just got worse for Bunker Hill, as it started off the final frame, still only three points down, but with another turnover. It looked like a all-points message went out to Hatter to start his thing. Using the Bunker Hill mistake, Hatter went on an amazing shooting spree.

Scoring 12 points in the fourth quarter, Hatter was unstoppable, throwing up shots like Julius Erving and maybe better. The Trojans blew the game open, routing Bunker Hill 20-6. "I think Bunker Hill dropped their heads a little," said Graham. "They weren't used to our quickness." The Minutemen weren't ready for Pat Hatter or a 56 percent shooting show by Madison, either.

Leading all scorers, Hatter accounted for 26 points.

RESPIRATORY THERAPY OPEN HOUSE PLANNED

The respiratory therapy program of Maryville College-St. Louis will sponsor an informational open house for anyone interested in this career on Monday, March 16, from 5 to 8:30 p.m. in the multipurpose room of Gander Hall. Maryville College is located at U.S. Highway 40 and Woods Mill Road in the Woods Mill campus center. Respiratory therapy is one of the fastest growing allied health specialties, and an increase in the demand for such therapists is predicted for the 1980's. They work closely with physicians, caring for patients of all ages with diseases such as asthma, pneumonia, cystic fibrosis, emphysema and bronchitis.

David Gitcho in news at Olympia, Wash.

David Gitcho, son of the late Alexander C. Gitcho and Mrs. Dorothy C. Gitcho, formerly of Granite City but now living in St. Louis, is the owner and operator of Gitcho's Discount Sales in Lacey, Wash., it was reported here today.

Gitcho figured prominently in a recent news article in the Olympia, Wash., in which he reported a substantial increase in the sale of hand guns as a means of personal safety.

The increase in hand gun sales followed an increase in the number of burglaries and other crimes in Olympia, but Gitcho attributes it partly to gun control.

"I used to sell about five to ten a week but since about a month ago I've been selling about three to five a week," Gitcho said.

"I don't know why the jump. Maybe it's because of talk about gun control. People want to get guns before gun control."

Gitcho said he sells more guns to men than women but that a lot of men buy them for their wives.

"One guy bought one last month and said his wife had just been molested the night before."

New name for box board firm

The board of directors of Alton Box Board Company has adopted a resolution to amend the company's certificate of incorporation to change the name of the company to Alton Packaging Corporation.

Michael W. J. Smurfit, president and chief executive officer, said, "We feel the name Alton Packaging is more descriptive of the corporation's varied operations in paperboard packaging. The name Alton Box Board has served us well for more than 70 years and we feel that Alton Packaging will be representative in the growth years ahead."

Alton facilities include paperboard mills, paper reclamation, wood products and manufacturing plants producing folding cartons, corrugated shipping containers and paperbure products.

During 1980, the Jefferson Smurfit group of Dublin, Ireland, increased its ownership to 80 percent of Alton's outstanding stock, and, as previously agreed, will acquire all remaining outstanding shares in the next two years.

Jefferson Smurfit is a major international packaging company with subsidiaries and associated companies operating in Ireland, the United Kingdom, United States, Nigeria and Australia. The principal businesses of the group are packaging, paper making, print, publishing, audio-visual production and distribution.

Gardening in March

Area Garden Advisor

Mild weather in late February tended to stimulate gardeners as well as amend the company's certificate of incorporation to change the name of the company to Alton Packaging Corporation.

This stimulation has led to a few garden activities such as pruning and planting, plus signs of growth in some trees and plants. And March is even a better month for gardening.

Fruit growers should consider the following tasks: —Apply dormant sprays to tree and small fruit crops that require it. Then wash all fruit plants for signs of growth and be prepared to apply early pesticides.

Prune any and all fruits, but leave the peaches and nectarines till late. Usually the entire mature crop can be utilized for pruning. Begin with the older trees first, and finish with the young trees. Brambles should be pruned in a cool day when protective clothing feels comfortable.

Pick up and burn or destroy all prunings. This sanitation practices should make insect and disease control easier.

Fertilize after the frost has left the ground. Fruit trees should receive 1/4 to 1/2 pound of commercial fertilizer per year of age. Brambles may benefit from 3 to 6 pounds of fertilizer per 100 feet of row. Don't fertilize strawberries unless you know they need it.

Be prepared to receive nursery stock as it arrives from the nursery. Plant it if possible; otherwise, store it carefully.

The grapes and thornless blackberries to the trellis before buds swell. This will prevent bud damage. —Plant nuts that have been stratified over winter. Vegetables gardeners, too, will have plenty to do as the soil dries and the weather warms. March tasks are:

—Start tomato and pepper plants for your early plantings. These can be indoors or in a hot bed or greenhouse. —Make sure you have water and onion sets on hand to plant at the first opportunity. The earliest sowing should include cabbage, kohlrabi, lettuce, mustard, onion, peas, potato, radish, spinach and turnip. —Treat for soil insects where root crops will be grown. Use 6 ounces of 25 percent diazinon E to cover 1,000 sq. ft. of soil surface, and either water or rototill in. —Fertilize the garden as the soil is being prepared.

Park reminder

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District would like to remind softball teams that the entry fee deadline for the 1981 season is Friday, March 13 at 5 p.m. For more information those interested may contact the Park Office at 877-3059.

Pianist to perform with SUIE Orchestra

Dan Vizer, a Granite City pianist, is among the winners of the annual soloist competition at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph O. Vizer, 2740 State St.

Vizer, a senior at SUIE, will graduate this year with a piano performance degree. He is a 1975 graduate of Granite City High School South, where he was actively involved in the school band.

He will perform the first movement of Bach's D Minor Concerto with the SUIE Orchestra on April 25 in a performance at 8 p.m. in the Communications Building Theatre on the SUIE campus.

As part of a special study tour, entitled "Piano in the Great Capitals of Europe," Vizer spent last summer studying piano in London and Manchester, England; Paris, France; Brussels, Belgium; and at Amsterdam in the Netherlands.

He has accompanied and recorded with the international prize winning Concert Choral of SUIE and has appeared on both television and radio programs.

For the past six years, Vizer has taught piano to local students. He also serves as organist at St. Elizabeth Catholic Church and the Granite City Army Installation Chapel.

The pianist presently is studying with Ruth Slenczynska, concert pianist and artist-in-residence at SUIE. He also has studied with Ae Ree Kim of Seoul, Korea, Grace Welsh of the American Conservatory in Chicago and with Orland MacDonald in Granite City.

Glen Carbon dealer to provide 43 cars

Four Flags Motors of Glen Carbon will provide 43 new patrol cars for the Madison County sheriff's department, the County Board decided at a special meeting last week.

On the advice of State Attorney Donald Weber, the board unanimously rescinded its earlier decision to buy the autos from Ackerman Buick of St. Louis County. He ruled that Ackerman lacks a state license to sell autos in Illinois.

Board Member Charles Bode favored rescinding but then opposed awarding the business to Four Flags, commenting that the county has too many autos.

Sheriff Emil Toffant said 73 cars are needed. In addition to the 43 being replaced, some of which have over 150,000 miles of use, 30 autos are leased.

Both dealers bid on Buick Skylarks, Ackerman quoting $30,287 and Four Flags, $32,094.

Wants to waive inspection of late-model pickup trucks

State Rep. Everett G. Steele (R-Glen Carbon) has introduced legislation which would waive inspection requirements for late-model pickup trucks in Illinois.

Referring to the increased use and popularity of pickup trucks in recent years, Steele said, "The light-duty truck has become a second car in many families, used often for going to and from work and primarily for passenger use. It is unfair, and unrealistic," he continued, "to require owners of brand new or late model light-duty vehicles to continue to pay this unnecessary cost in both time and money, every six months."

The Steele Legislation, known as House Bill 469, exempts Class A and B division vehicles that are three years old or less, according to model year, from the Illinois inspection law requiring inspections twice yearly.

The cost of inspections is usually $12 or more per year. The State of Illinois does not receive any portion of the inspection fee. Under the proposed legislation, inspection requirements would remain for older pickup trucks, and for all trucks over the 1-ton model year.

The Madison County legislator pointed out that no inspections are required for camper-type vehicles or brand new recreational vehicle license plates. All recreational vehicles are exempt from the inspection law at the present time.

"This legislation in my view," Steele said, "is another attempt to remove unnecessary government regulations, and to use a 'common sense' approach in matters which affect the working public."

Offer scholarships

The ASIS Foundation, a non-profit affiliate of the American Society for Industrial Security (ASIS), is offering scholarship awards to encourage high academic achievement by students enrolled in colleges or universities offering programs in security.

The Security Scholarship Program will include three awards to students selected from applicants meeting the requirements established for this program.

Awards include $250, two-year community college student; $500, four-year college or university student; $750, graduate program student which are limited to colleges/universities currently offering certificates, majors or graduate degree programs in security.

The program is open to ASIS members and others who are students enrolled part-time or full-time in a two-year, four-year, or graduate "security program." Students must have completed at least two security courses, and the recipients must be enrolled in a security program at the time of the award presentation.

A minimum overall grade point average of B (3.0) is required. A student is eligible to receive an ASIS Foundation Scholarship only once. Entry material must be received by June 1, 1981. The following items must be submitted either directly or through arrangements made by each applicant.

1. Completed "Application for Security Scholarship." This required form can be obtained from ASIS Foundation, Inc., 2000 K St., N.W., Suite 651, Washington, D.C. 20006, (202) 331-7887.
2. An officially certified copy of the college transcript (must show overall grade point average).
3. A signed letter of support from the principal security instructor.
4. Deadline: June 1, 1981.
5. Mail, with forwarding letter signed by applicant, to: Scholarship Review Committee, ASIS Foundation, Inc., 2000 K St., N.W., Suite 651, Washington, D.C. 20006.

Miss United Teenager competition in July

Young girls between the ages of 14 and 18 are invited to enter the Illinois United Teenager Pageant to be held at the Continental Regency, July 17 to July 19 in Peoria, Ill., according to Susan Smith, pageant coordinator.

The Illinois pageant is the official state preliminary to the Miss United Teenager Pageant, a national pageant that includes 50 states, she added.

Contestants will be judged on scholastic and civic achievements, beauty, poise, and personality. There is no swimsuit competition or talent involved. Those who wish to enter must be between 14 and 18 years of age as of Dec. 31, 1981, and must have at least a B average in school, the coordinator explained.

Each contestant accepted will be requested to participate in the Volunteer Community Service Program of their choice.

This program teaches teenagers to share and participate in school and civic affairs by contributing a minimum of eight hours time to some worthwhile civic or volunteer work before pageant time. Each contestant is required to write and present on stage an essay entitled, "My Country."

The winner of the Illinois pageant will receive an all-expense paid trip to compete in the Miss United Teenager National Pageant, a three phase event to be held in Hollywood, Calif. (state costume), Honolulu, Hawaii (essay) and Washington, D.C. (finals). Among the prizes that will be awarded at the national level is a $15,000 scholarship and awards, automobile for the reigning year, $5,000 personal appearance contract and $2,000 wardrobe.

Those interested in entering the Illinois contest are advised to write for information to Susan Smith, P.O. Box 1821, Fayetteville, N.C. 28302 or call 919-822-1453.

Course for older drivers

An NRTA-AARP mature driving course, developed specially for older drivers, will be offered in Granite City, for the first time on March 30 and 31 at 2:30 p.m. on the Granite City BAC Campus at West 20th Street and Nevada Avenue, sponsored by AARP Chapter 1340, Inc.

This is the most important course for drivers 55 and over. It not only teaches Rules of the Road but is the first course that includes age related changes, such as eyes, hearing, reflex action, and medications, among other things that determine our ability to drive safely. It is open to all Illinois licensed drivers 55 and older. The main purpose of this educational program is to keep drivers over 55 driving as effectively as possible for as long as they wish to drive a motor vehicle.

The U.S. Department of Transportation assisted the associations to evaluate this new drivers program. A survey of the traffic courts in several states are recommending 55 alternative as a referral course for older traffic violators. New York which has passed a discount clause for auto insurance, for drivers 55 and over, who take 55 alternative driving or other approved courses.

The class is limited to 20 persons who must attend both days to complete the course. There is a $3 fee to help offset cost. NRTA-AARP subsidizes the remaining cost.

Vernice E. Walter, assistant state coordinator, will moderate the class. To enroll Quad-Cityans may call 876-5748.

Art Guild plans workshop

The Granite City Art Guild will sponsor an art workshop from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m. on Saturday, March 14, at Central Christian Church, 2020 Johnson Road.

Professor Walter M. Johnson of Urbana, Ill., will conduct the program which will include a lecture and drawing session from 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

Participants will work from a still life provided by the guild and the afternoon session will be set aside as time to complete the drawing or paint another work of art, according to the president, Mrs. Eva Meadows.

Lunch will be served by the Christian Women's Fellowship of the host church.

A fee of $16 will be charged and for more information those interested are advised to call 876-8905, Mrs. Meadows added.

The Granite City Business and Professional Women's

Commended for rescue

Coast Guard Radarman 3rd Class Philip W. Macias, whose wife, Judy, is the daughter of William B. and Judy Bain of Mitchell, has been awarded the Coast Guard Unit Commendation. He received the award for service as a crew member aboard the Coast Guard cutter Boutwell during the rescue of 520 persons from the stricken Dutch cruise ship Prinsendam in October 1980.

The Prinsendam caught fire off the Alaskan coast and the Boutwell, homeported in Seattle, Wash., assisted in the rescue operations in which the total crew and passenger complement was saved.

The Boutwell recently departed on an Alaskan fisheries patrol which will last about two months.

During the patrol, the Boutwell will maintain surveillance over foreign fishing fleets and conduct law enforcement boarding within the 200-mile limit to ensure compliance with the Fisheries Conservation and Management Act.

Macias joined the Coast Guard in July 1979.

Four Indonesians in 5 work earth

Four out of five Indonesians still work the earth and agriculture accounts for about half the nation's gross national product. The major cash crops are rubber, palm oil, coffee, tobacco, copra, tea, sugar, cocoa, spices and cotton. Food crops are led by rice, corn and cassava.

CITY RULE

Congress on Feb. 27, 1801, assumed jurisdiction over the city of Washington in the District of Columbia.

Paul Ray Bowler Doesn't Just Make Promises ... He Keeps Them

- PROMISES 4 YEARS AGO:
1. Stop spot zoning—update zoning ordinance
 2. Be fiscally responsible.
 3. Improve street conditions.
 4. Improve ground water problem in Dobrey Slough
 5. Help attract new industries to our city.
 6. Hold ward meetings to inform 7th ward residents.
- ACCOMPLISHMENTS:
1. As Chairman of Planning & Zoning the following recommendations from my committee were approved by the City Council.
 - (a) Stopped all spot zoning and special use permits.
 - (b) Instituted a comprehensive updated zoning ordinance that will protect the residential areas, but also stimulate commercial growth in designated areas.
 - (c) Fought against the commercialization of Pontoon Rd., Maryville Rd. and Johnson Rd.; also any further commercialization on Namooki Rd.
 2. As Chairman of the Finance Committee the following recommendations from my committee were approved by the City Council.
 - (a) Centralized inventory which allowed us to buy at discount prices, saving approximately 29%.
 - (b) Instituted a self-insured Workmen's Compensation Program, saving over $54,000.
 - (c) New major medical program that immediately saved the city $140,000 plus we get the interest on the money we levy to fund the program.
 3. A 6 year comprehensive street improvement program taking whole sections of the 7th Ward, thereby eventually paving ALL our streets.
 4. In the past 3 years the ground water problem of Dobrey Slough has not existed.
 5. New industries in our area — Michigan Metals, Feralloy, Glennon Steel, Steelabrade — just to name a few.
 6. Held at least 4 ward meetings a year.

IN ADDITION:

7. Fought against a Utility Tax that would have charged us for having to heat our homes in the winter and cool them in the summer.
8. Informed you on your tax assessment and provided you with the needed forms to lower your assessments and to protest your taxes.

Vulcanizing process found accidentally
